MANGLED BY CARS.

Jumping on Coal Train.

pecial to the Scranton Tribune Factoryville, July 12,-A shocking accident occurred in the railroad cut. just above Abram Wrigley's, yesterday ifternoon, when a young lad named Sickler, in attempting to jump on a moving coal train, fell under the cars and had one leg and one arm crushed to pieces. The leg was cut off close to the trunk of the body, and the arm at the elbow.

He was in company with other boys, who have been making a practice for some time of jumping on passing trains, but had only been here a few days on a visit to his uncle and aunt,

Mr. and Mrs. N. G. Cobb. He is a son of Matthew Sickler, and his home is near Mill City, Pa. He was taken to the home of N. G. Cobb, where he is in a critical condition.
