O'MALLEY WILL HOLD OVER.

Agrees to Remain Until Monies' Bond Is Approved.

Plumbing Inspector M. F. O'Malley has agreed to remain in office until the bond of his successor, Arthur C. Monies, is approved by common council. Mr. O'Malley's resignation was to have taken effect on July 1, but he graciously consented to hold over until the appointment of his successor was confirmed.

Mr. Monies' bond has been approved by select council, but it is necessary to have it go through common council before he can be sworn in. The new plumbing inspector is a son of the late Hon. William N. Monies, the second mayor of Scranton, and is both a theoretical and practical plumber of high standing, having taken a three years' course in New York city.

SHE TOOK CARBOLIC ACID.

Mrs. Grace Flynn Was Very Much Discouraged at the Time.

Mrs. Grace Flynn, formerly Miss Grace McGone, whose parents reside at 628 Lavelle court, attempted suicide in a hotel at Oswego, N. Y., a few nights ago, by taking carbolic acid.

She had been traveling with a man named James Miller, who was canvassing for a firm which enlarges pictures, acting as his assistant. She adopted this means of earning a livelihood, as her husband has not been living with her recently.

She and she reached Oswego in the early part of the week, and after putting up at a hotel, he borrowed $8 from her, all she had in her possession. She skipped out with this and didn't pay the board bill, so that she became discouraged and determined to end her life. She purchased some carbolic acid and took some, though not enough to prove fatal.

The report was circulated in this city yesterday that she was dead, but this was without foundation. Her father went to Oswego on Thursday, and arrived home with her yesterday. She was still quite ill, and very repentant.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

[Under this heading short letters of interest will be published when accompanied, for publication, by the writer's name. The Tribune does not assume responsibility for opinions here expressed.]

Should Give Names of Witnesses.

Editor of the Tribune—

Sir: The following letter is one of the many received since the Men's union and the Municipal league began their work in this city:

Dear Sir: You would be doing morally good to the community if you will send your agent out here after the Constable, who is walking in the city, and get from him five dollars every month in each and every "hole-in-the-wall" in his bailiwick in the month, which nets him a neat little sum in the month, which he will hold all the year. I do not believe he does any official business, because the alderman, who is his boss, is not on officially good terms. He is too busy to work for the alderman. All his time is taken up looking after the "speakeasies." By arresting the constable for not returning those "speakeasies" would do more good than pulling all the "holes-in-the-wall" in the city. If that was done, we would have an honest constable to begin with and more honest saloons. I would pay license if my neighbors will. Please give this your attention and oblige.

(Signed) "A Saloonkeeper who has got to 'sue up' every month to the Constable."

The writer of the above and similar letters are hereby informed that in sending their communications, which are always welcome, they should give the names of witnesses who will prove the statements made. While the reform would be having remarkable success in this city, it is much less tedious and expensive if those in sympathy with it would take the trouble to assist in furnishing testimony.

If they have any they may be mistaken, and being unjust to innocent parties. Dozens of suffering wives and mothers have written heart-breaking complaints of the hell-holes that are running their lives out, but only a few have furnished the names of witnesses.

This "saloonkeeper" who has got to sue up every month to the constable of his ward should also be willing to do his part in convicting his perpetrator. If he is not courageous enough to give his name and that of others, how can he expect us to do all the work? We would much prefer to convict these treacherous constables rather than an equal number of "speakeasy" offenders. We have good evidence against some of them. But our task would be much easier and more successful if the victims of these enterprising gentlemen would come out and assist.

To that end we would say, that in so far as we are able, we will endeavor to secure testimony for any saloonkeeper who, having abandoned his business before being arrested, shall furnish evidence that will secure the conviction of "protecting" constables and other "blood-sucking" officials.

The names of the parties furnishing the evidence need not be made public, necessarily, but should be furnished to Mr. Robert Wilson, the agent of the societies, or to Messrs. Beers or Torrey, the attorneys.

The letters are well enough, but will receive little attention, unless the writers (almost all) will sufferer, those who will help us to do what they can towards the grand work of making Scranton a safe and decent place of residence for "Wives," "Mothers" and everybody else.

TAXES ARE DOUBLED BY THE NEW LAW

MERCHANTS PAY TWICE AS MUCH AS FORMERLY.

Act of May 2, 1899, Regulating Mercantile Taxes Increases the Collections in This County from $11-845.50 to $24,506.14 and Enlarges the Number of Taxables from 1,166 to 1,715—Every Vendor Is Now Taxed on Percentage Basis. Scranton Pays the Bulk of the Tax.

By the operations of the new mercantile tax law, the act of May 2, 1899, the business men of Lackawanna county are called upon to pay to the state more than double the tribute that was levied in previous years. This is shown in a comparative table compiled yesterday by County Treasurer M. J. Kelly.

The total number of licenses reported this year was 1,715 and the total collections amount to $24,506.14. Last year the licenses number 1,166 and the collections amounted to $11,845.50. There is still $2,145.72 outstanding on this year's licenses, 377 parties having failed to pay up before July 1, as the law requires. These taxes have been placed in the hands of various constables for collection.

The following table shows how the collections are divided, geographically speaking:

Amount Collected	Outstanding	Paid	Total
Scranton	$1,610.34	$1,173.51	$2,783.85
Carbondale	1,409.02	211.97	1,620.99
Berks and
townships	6,526.28	782.01	7,308.29
Total	$24,506.14	$2,145.72	$26,651.86

CAUSE OF INCREASE.

The large increase in the number of licenses is mainly due to a provision of the new act making hotel keepers liable for a mercantile tax on their cigar sales. They must pay the same rate as any retail vendor of merchandise, $2 plus one mill on the volume of business transacted, and $2 fees. Wholesale dealers pay $2 tax, $2 fee and one-half mill on the volume of business.

Under the old act only such merchants as did over a thousand dollars worth of business in a year were subjected to a mercantile tax. The new act makes every dealer in all kinds of goods, wares or merchandise except liquors which, of course, are specially taxed.

To make sure that no one will be skipped the law directs that after the appraiser for a district makes his report, a detailed return under oath of the amount of business he transacts. Several suits were started to test the constitutionality of the act and only last Wednesday the Supreme court ruled in one case that the act was constitutional.

County Treasurer Kelly says no difficulty was experienced here in securing the returns. His only trouble was in making collections. On July 1, there were 377 licenses still unpaid and under the law he was called upon to bring suit for their collection. Many of these, however, have since settled up.

NEW LAW OPPOSED.

In many parts of the state, strong opposition was offered the new law, because of its alleged inequitable clause providing that each merchant should make a detailed return under oath of the amount of business he transacts. Several suits were started to test the constitutionality of the act and only last Wednesday the Supreme court ruled in one case that the act was constitutional.

County Treasurer Kelly says no difficulty was experienced here in securing the returns. His only trouble was in making collections. On July 1, there were 377 licenses still unpaid and under the law he was called upon to bring suit for their collection. Many of these, however, have since settled up.

YOUNG SISCO SENT TO JAIL.

Committed on the Charge of Having Killed His Father.

Alton Sisco, the twelve-year-old boy, who shot and killed his father, Oscar Sisco, in South Canaan, on Tuesday afternoon, was committed to jail by Justice of the Peace Paul Swingle, of South Canaan. Young Sisco was taken to Honesdale yesterday morning and placed in the county prison.

The details of the affair, as developed at the hearing, are as follows: The father often came home intoxicated, and when in this condition was very dread. A few years ago he was found here for assaulting his wife. On Tuesday he came home and commenced his assault on a cripple, whom he was keeping for the poor authorities of the town. The son, Alton, interfered in behalf of the cripple, and the father then turned on his son. The son fled from the house, but soon returned and found that his father had attacked his mother. He went to her rescue.

In the excitement, and in defense of his mother, he took his revolver and fired the fatal shot. The revolver which the son used was presented to him by his father on July 4, in opposition to the wishes of his mother.

Alton is a bright boy and large of his age. The funeral of the father was held at his home, Thursday afternoon.

ROAD A DISGRACE TO MAYOR AND CITY

SO SAYS H. E. PAINE OF THE TURNPIKE COMPANY.

The Company Has Waited Long Enough for the City and He May Start Work Before the Fate of the Ordinance Appropriating $1,000 for Repair of the Road Is Known. Councilmen Beginning to Come to the Conclusion That the Road Will Have to Be Repaired at Once.

It is considered very probable that the ordinance appropriating $1,000 for the repair of the Abington turnpike will pass both branches of the council, now that the city solicitor has so clearly pointed out the legal status of the case.

There is no one to deny that the road is at present in an extremely deplorable condition and that it should be repaired by some one. The city, by the terms of its contract, which the supreme court has declared legal, is bound to keep the road in repair, and it can be seen that the majority of the councilmen are beginning to look on the question from this common sense point of view.

"It doesn't make any difference whether the terms of the contract are good or bad," said Luther Keller, of common council, who favors the passage of the ordinance, "or whether the road is going to be condemned. The contract says that the city must keep it in repair and that's what should be done."

Those who favor the passage of the ordinance are using their influence on President Paine of the turnpike company in an endeavor to have him hold off the repairs which the company contemplates making until the fate of the ordinance is decided. There may be trouble in doing this, however. Mr. Paine said yesterday:

CONDITION ABOMINABLE.

"The condition of that road at present is abominable. Wagons are being broken on it and people are having their lives jolted out on it every day. The fact that it hasn't been repaired is a disgrace to the city, a disgrace to the councilmen, a disgrace to the street commissioner and a disgrace to the mayor."

"The company has been waiting and waiting for the city to do some repairing for a long time now and we're not going to wait much longer. I can tell you. We've got 150 tons of rock broken up and ready to put on the road, and we're going to put it on pretty quick."

Mr. Paine contends that, under the law, the turnpike company is the judge as to whether the road is in good repair, while City Solicitor Vosburg claims that under the contract, there being no express statement, the court alone can decide this question. Mr. Paine is so firm in his belief, however, that he doesn't ray any attention whatever to Mr. Vosburg's views.

In the meantime it is expected that condemnation proceedings will soon begin. The resolution directing the city solicitor to act as attorney for the petitioners has already passed select council, but may meet with trouble in common on account of a technical defect. It appropriates the sum of $200 for legal expenses, whereas a rule of councils provides that no money can be appropriated except by ordinance.

JOHN WHELD BADLY CUT.

Serious Results of a Fight in the Saloon of Dominick Dagutis on Penn Avenue.

As the result of a brawl in the saloon of Dominick Dagutis, at 421 Penn avenue, at 6:05 o'clock last evening, John Wheld, of 216 Cherry street, South Scranton, was taken to the Lackawanna hospital last night, with several facial wounds, and Robert Payne, alias John Cooper, William Sims and James Low, all colored, were taken to the central police station and will this morning be given a hearing on the charge of assaulting and feloniously wounding him.

Clifford, a companion of Wheld's, had his left hand cut in the melee, and after having the wound attended to, left for his home. The fight occurred about 6 o'clock in the saloon. Wheld and Clifford were standing at the bar, and the three colored men were a short distance away. Wheld made a dash for the door, and a war of bills from his pocket to pay the bartender and made a rather ostentatious display of the cash.

One of the men standing by made a sudden snatch at the bills. Clifford drew them back and the other remarked that he had cut him only that day for a joke. Hot words ensued and blows were struck. Wheld here took a hand, and one of the colored men was struck to the floor. He rose quickly and the three made a dash for the door. There was a flash of steel and Wheld cried out:

"A general fight ensued here, in which Wheld received more stab wounds, Clifford's hand was slightly cut and James Low was struck with a billiard cue, and sustained serious injuries.

Police headquarters were notified, and Patrolmen Ross and Marker arrived at the scene of action. Payne, Sims and Low had all taken to their heels, but were pursued and Sims was caught by Marker and Ross, while Payne was arrested by Patrolmen Parry, Feeney and Potter.

"This last night he was resting at a police station and later in the night Low was arrested by Mounted Officer Block and Patrolman Hoekensbery. His head was bandaged up and he appeared seriously injured.

Wheld was taken to the Lackawanna hospital, where he received with the blood spurting from a wound in the facial artery and several other cuts. Dr. J. W. Busch, resident surgeon, gave him prompt attendance and dressed his wounds. Beside the cut mentioned above, which was the most serious, the blood was flowing very freely. Wheld sustained a bad cut over the heart, the knife blade striking the fifth rib and glancing off. He has another small cut in the neck, and a bad flesh wound in the left arm. He is a young man, about 21 years of age. Last night he was resting easily and he will probably recover.

He was fortunate in being able to receive such prompt attention, as his wounds were of such a nature that in a short time longer he would have bled to death. All of the cuts were deep ones, the weapon being plunged into the flesh with great force.

The man who did the stabbing is not known, but Sims is suspected.

TONIGHT'S RATIFICATION.

Congressman Sulzer Says He Cannot Leave New York Today.

According to the Allentown Leader, Congressman William Sulzer, of New York, will not be able to attend tonight's big Democratic ratification meeting in this city, or else he is turning down his peasant eating friends for Scranton and making the excuse of an engagement in New York. The Leader says:

The Leader is in receipt of the following from Congressman Sulzer, of New York, which contains the disappointing information that he can't attend the Democratic county meeting: "I just returned to New York this morning from Kansas City and find your letter. I regret exceedingly it will be absolutely impossible for me to be with you on Saturday, owing to an imperative previous engagement here."

The programme arranged for tonight's ratification meeting is as follows:

Address by the chairman of the evening, Mr. Edward Merrifield, of the platform adopted at Kansas City, Professor George Howell, superintendent of schools.

Motion that platform be adopted, M. A. McGinnis, esp.

Motion seconded, H. W. Mulholland, esp.

Singing of the "Star Spangled Banner," with audience and speakers.

Singing on the motion to ratify, Hon. William Sulzer, Hon. T. F. Grady or substitute; Hon. T. D. Sullivan, Hon. J. P. Quinnan and Colonel Herman Ottoburn.

Adjournment of the meeting.

Singing, "My Country 'Tis of Thee," by the meeting.

The first band will accompany the singing and render one selection before the meeting opens.
