One of the most important elsteddfods ever arranged for in America will begin its sessions at Young's Pler, Atlantic City, tomorrow morning, and much local interest is attached to the event in view of the many competitors who will represent this city in the various contests. Nearly all of the wellknown soloists from West Scranton will compete for the individual prizes. and a choir of mixed voices has been rehearsing the chief choral numbers for some time.

The programme has been published in this department, and all who are interested are famillar with the competitive numbers. The adjudicators are men of national reputation, and the contests are expected to be of a high standard of excellence. Arrangements have been made by The Tribune for special reports of the eisteddfod, and the successful competitors will be announced on Thursday morning.

Nearly a thousand singers and their friends will leave the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western station on a special train this morning, and the party will be composed of residents of many cities and towns in Northeastern Pennsylvania. The train will leave here at 8 o'clock and go by way of Manunka Chunk to Philadelphia.

Dembo-Silverstone Nuptials.

One of the prettiest weddings of the season took place last Wednesday ovening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Silverstone on South Seventh street, when their daughter Ray was united in marriage to Samuel B. Demhe of this city.

The ceremony was performed under a canopy in the parlor by Rabbi Finberg, assisted by Rev. Lewis. The bride entered the parlor leaning on the arm of her father, who gave her away, Miss Nellie Curran played the wedding march and also furnished music throughout the evening.
