CHARGED WITH BEING A SCOLD

MRS. ANN BUTLER ARRAIGNED LAST NIGHT.

James Maloney Placed Under Arrest at the Instance of William Edginton—Local Knights of Malta Entertained Visiting Knights at Last Night's Meeting—New Officers of Robert Morris Lodge Installed. Body of John Yocob Has Been Shipped to Philadelphia—Personals and Other Notes.

Mrs. Ann Butler, of South Everett avenue, was arrested last evening on complaint of Mrs. Catherine Reese, her neighbor, who alleges that Mrs. Butler is a common scold. Less than two weeks ago the woman was arraigned before Alderman Davis on a similar charge and paroled on her own recognizance in the hope that she would reform. But it seems that she does not want to reform and takes particular delight in tantalizing her neighbors.

At the hearing before Alderman Davis last evening Mrs. Reese testified that Mrs. Butler called her vile names, abused her and threw a teapot at her. The charges of malicious mischief and making threats were preferred, but the woman was discharged on the first count and requested to furnish $200 bail on the second. She was unable to procure bail and spent the night in the police station. Unless bail is furnished this morning Mrs. Butler will rest in the county jail until the next term of court.

Evans; recording secretary, David J. Davis; steward, D. Jay Reese; inside guard, Palmer Williams; trustee, James Powell. A committee was appointed to arrange for a social session at the first meeting in September.

Yocob's Body Shipped.

The body of John Yocob, who died at the West Side hospital, was shipped to Philadelphia yesterday, none of his relatives having put in an appearance to claim the body. Overtures were made to Cabollo, the dead man's boarding boss, to have the remains removed to his house and to give deceased a burial, but he refused to have anything to do with it.

The case will be investigated by Coroner Roberts, as the friends of Yocob claim that Cabollo is indirectly responsible for the man's death by turning him out of the house in an unbecoming condition. When the boarding boss was apprised of that fact he became very much alarmed, and denied that he turned Yocob out of the house.

Maloney Arrested.

James Maloney, of South Hyde Park avenue, was arraigned before Alderman Davis last evening on two charges preferred by William Edginton, the blacksmith. They were charges of malicious mischief and making threats were preferred, but the woman was discharged on the first count and requested to furnish $200 bail on the second. She was unable to procure bail and spent the night in the police station. Unless bail is furnished this morning Mrs. Butler will rest in the county jail until the next term of court.

NO NEED FOR EXTRA SESSION.

Mr. Cannon, of Appropriations Committee, Talks. Washington, D. C., July 19.—Senator N. B. Scott, of West Virginia, and Representative Cannon, of Illinois, chairman of the appropriations committee, of the house, saw the president before the cabinet convened today. Both declared that there was no late news from China. Mr. Cannon, who can be assumed from his position as head of the appropriations committee, to be thoroughly conversant with the administration's views regarding the necessity for an extra session, says he can see no present reason for calling congress in extra session. "The president to summon congress together," said he, "what could he say to it? Not that our minister at Peking had been killed, for that fact has not been established; not that the Chinese government is responsible for the violence that has occurred, for that has not been established. In fact, the whole situation is shrouded in doubt and uncertainty. The veil must be lifted before we can see our way. Should future events necessitate additional troops for service in China, I have no doubt congress will provide the men and money that are needed."

Senator Scott talked with the president about campaign matters. He is on the way to New York. He will have general charge of the assignment of speakers during the campaign. He said the oratorical part of the Republican campaign will begin between the 15th and 20th of August. The Republican speakers, he said, would not shrink any of the issues brought forward by the opposition, but until Mr. Bryan's letter of acceptance was made public the speakers probably would follow the lines laid down in the president's speech of acceptance.

The fire burned rapidly, and in a few minutes the building was nothing but ashes. The fire, it is supposed, to have originated while building a fire in the kitchen stove. The house was valued at $1,000, and was not covered by insurance.

BARON NISSI'S APPEAL.

Last Letter from the Japanese Minister at Peking. Washington, July 19.—The Japanese legation here has made public the latest communication received by it from Baron Nissi, the Japanese minister to Peking. This telegram was received today at the legation from the Japanese minister of foreign affairs and is important because of the dates given. The telegram was dated July 13 by the minister, the Japanese consul at Chefoo, and is as follows:

"I received at 10 a. m. on the 12th a dispatch from Baron Nissi, dated Peking, June 29. The letter was brought by a special messenger—a Chinese who left Peking July 1st and managed to make the journey with great difficulty. The substance of the letter is as follows:

"The situation at Peking is extremely critical. The foreign legations are surrounded on all sides by Chinese soldiers and bombardment night and day. The members of the legations, the guards and residents are resisting to the utmost, but the overwhelming numbers of the enemy make opposition hopeless; our ammunition is being exhausted, our lives are in much danger and the case of the city is a desperate one. We earnestly request the immediate dispatch of reinforcements for our rescue from our precarious condition."

The Japanese consul at Chefoo adds that he communicated this letter to his colleague at the consular body there and also to the commanders-in-chief of the forces of the powers. Another cablegram received here through the foreign office from the Japanese consul at Chefoo reports that Tien Tsin castle was captured by the forces of the allies on the 14th and the safety of the foreign settlements is assured. Japanese troops took possession of Susse Ying, the Chinese naval station, on the 14th.

TWO OTHER INQUESTS.

They Were Conducted by Coroner in the North Scranton Cases.

Coroner J. J. Roberts yesterday afternoon conducted inquests in the cases of William Clemons and Mrs. Jane Edwards, who met their deaths by falling through the Ontario and Western trestle near Dickson City, and of William P. Lukens, supervisor of Ridley township, Delaware county, Pa., whose decomposed remains were found at the North last Sunday by a party of small boys.

The jury decided that Clemons and Mrs. Edwards came to their death by falling through the trestle while trespassing on the premises, and that Lukens died as the result of exhaustion in the woods, having wandered there while ill, and died unable to make his presence known and receive assistance.

In the first case Dr. Kennedy, of Dickson City, testified to having hurried to the scene of the accident Sunday night and found Clemons dead and Mrs. Edwards dying.

Matthew McPherson, postmaster at Dickson City, testified that he visited the trestle a few minutes after it occurred, being made acquainted with the accident by three passersby, who saw an umbrella lying on the trestle and found the aged couple lying below.

The trestle is used principally for the small locomotive carrying coal from the Richmond shaft to the breaker, and he declared, was an unsafe place for travel, the ties being about eight inches apart and in some places as much as eighteen or twenty inches apart. It is not used to any extent by pedestrians, and was only taken in this instance for a short cut, the couple coming from Throop boulevard and passing over to catch a car.

In his opinion, the couple must have been walking arm in arm, and one of them falling dragged the other along down.

These were all the witnesses, it being impossible to locate the persons who made the discovery. The jury decided that it was a clear case of trespass, and no one could, therefore, be held responsible for the accident. Charles Perry, Thomas Thomas, Edward Fidler, John G. Robinson, Thomas John and Patrick May were the jurors.

LUKENS CASE.

In the inquest to inquire into the causes of Lukens' death, little Francis Saitry, son of Patrolman John Saitry, was the principal witness. The boy testified that last Sunday he was berry-picking with three comrades, and found the decomposed body of a man, the head being detached and lying nearby. The four boys immediately ran from the spot and notified several men they met, who returned and took charge of the remains.

Will Hopkins, one of the men whom the boys called, testified that he lives near the place where the body was found, and that on the boys telling him of their gruesome discovery he hastened to the spot, and there saw the remains, and was one of the party that mounted guard over them until the arrival of the coroner.

Coroner Roberts then addressed the jury, and told them of the condition of the body when he found it, and the various articles found on the clothing, which led to identification. He further declared that there were no marks of violence on the body. He had learned by inquiry that previous to Lukens' departure from home he acted in a moody, melancholy manner, due in a measure to a severe attack of grip which he underwent, and to reverses in politics. J. Perry Lukens, his son, when he examined the remains, identified them immediately by the articles found on the body, the only thing missing being a wallet which he usually carried. Some years ago Lukens attended a political meeting in Scranton, and often since spoke of the city.

The coroner added that a few days previous to the finding of the body, moans and sounds of distress were rumored to have been heard in the woods. The jury, consisting of John F. Saitry, Thomas R. Thomas, Patrick Loftus, James Boston, C. H. Derby and Leon Levy, then returned the verdict given above.
