

LIVE NEWS OF THE INDUSTRIAL WORLD

SECRETARY ATHERTON AFTER ANOTHER INDUSTRY.

Large Cigar Factory Is Asking for Facts About This City—D. L. & W. Board for Today—Convention of United Mine Workers called for August 13 at Hazleton—Operators' July Letter on Condition of the Market—Figures About the Tin Plate Industry—Odds and Ends.

Secretary Atherton, of the board of trade, is going to make an earnest effort to bank still another industry from Binghamton. The inhabitants of the "Parlor City" are very much put out because this city secured the Clarke cut glass factory, the proprietors of which had a loving eye fixed on Binghamton.

The papers in this city are urging their board of trade to get a hustle on itself, and with this end in view have discovered that a cigar factory from Syracuse wants to locate in Binghamton and are endeavoring to arouse public interest in the scheme.

Secretary Atherton noticed a copy of one of the Binghamton papers yesterday mentioning this fact and he immediately dictated a long letter to the officials of the company, telling them of the wonderful advantages of Scranton as a manufacturing center, and urging that they come here and look over the ground.

The secretary also received a letter yesterday from a gentleman named Field, residing in Cleveland, who announced that he knew of a large number of small industries in large western cities, the proprietors of which, on account of labor difficulties, are desirous of locating in smaller cities.

Secretary Atherton has written for further and more exhaustive particulars.

Convention at Hazleton.

John Mitchell, president of the United Mine Workers, has issued a call for a convention of the anthracite miners in Hazleton on August 13. The purpose of the convention is to devise means by which a joint conference of operators and miners may be held to arrange for a readjustment of the scale of wages now being paid by the anthracite operators.

The Hard Coal Market.

The July letter of the Anthracite Coal Operators' association says of the market: There was little change in anthracite market conditions during the past month. Shipments to the west have prevented a large surplus from accumulating at the points, and at the latter there was a slightly more active movement than during the preceding month. The New England market also showed a tendency to increase its purchases. Prices were fairly firm, though there was a disposition at times to make concessions to secure prompt business.

Time Expires August 1.

The time limit which the Interstate Commerce commission, together with congress, has placed upon railroad companies for the equipment of cars with the regulation coupler expires the first of next month. At present the railroads doing an interstate business are putting forth every effort to comply with the interstate regulation and it is thought that when the law goes into force every railroad will be properly equipped.

Regarding the export trade of the American style of car couplers, it was said that so far the attempt to introduce them in Europe has not resulted in success. In Mexico, however, the general tendency of the times is to adopt American methods in railroading and a fairly large market has been found there. Russia is also adopting American couplers on its trans-Siberian railroad.

Figures on the Tin Plate Industry.

We regret to note that the Kansas City outfit neglected to say anything about the "untaxed dinner pail" in its deliverance to the people of this country.

At the present time the tin plate industry employs about 17,000 people and pays them in wages over $10,000,000 annually. There was a time when we paid all this money and more to England for the privilege of having her do the work for us.

Here is the record of the output of the mills in the United States during the past eight years, an output that has increased in spite of the fact that the Democratic prophets declared that we could not make terne plate in this country:

Table with 4 columns: Year, Long Tons, Year, Long Tons. Data for 1892-1899.

This gives a pretty fair idea of what has happened in this single industry, and we fancy that the "untaxed dinner pail" cry will be a rather unpopular one during the coming campaign.

This and That.

C. A. Draper, of New York, payment of the Ontario and Western railroad was in the city yesterday.

Drake & Stratton have over a dozen small engines working on the "Penny" improvements between Harrisburg and Altoona.

The Cumberland Valley Railroad company has inaugurated the summer half-holiday in its shops and offices at Chambersburg.

During the balance of the season conductors of regular trains will honor special Sunday excursion tickets to and from Heart Lake.

The work of raising the wrecked engine out of the bog at Cresco is progressing slowly and some time will be required to complete the task.

The Delaware and Hudson company completed their June payments yesterday by paying the employees of the No. 4 and No. 5 colliers at Plymouth.

When Lackawanna engines fail for steam from any cause, engineers are required to make a telegraph report of the same to the division superintendent's office.

Register books have been placed in the telegraph offices at both ends of the Lackawanna yard and heretofore all conductors must register their trains on arriving and leaving.

The breaker boys employed at the Clark Tunnel company's breaker, near the Notch, went on strike yesterday for an increase of ten per cent. Other boys were employed to take their places.

The repairs now being made at the Cayuga and Dodge colliers will necessitate the shutting down of the colliers for several weeks. The employees will find work at the other mines operated by the company.

A clerical error in the due bills received by boys employed at the Mt. Pleasant colliery caused some trouble at the mine yesterday morning. As soon as the matter was brought to the attention of the officers of the company the trouble was straightened out and the boys went to work.

The Wheeling and Lake Erie is in the market for a number of new bridges which are to be erected soon. It is said that the steel for these bridges will be purchased in a day or so. How many there are and where they are to be placed is not told. This is said to be a part of the programme of the Wheeling by which it hopes to build up its roadbed.

Conductors, trainmen and engineers on the Lackawanna railroad have been notified by Superintendent Salisbury that whenever it is necessary to apply the brakes to hold a standing train, either on the main track or a siding, it must be done with the hand brakes. This is to give the engineer an opportunity to change his train line before the train is started.

Superintendent Salisbury stated yesterday that the responsibility for the wreck at Cresco has partially been determined, but he will not give out any names until he confers with Superintendent Russell. When asked if any of the company's employees were responsible, he admitted such to be the case, but preferred to withhold further information for the present.

It is reported that the Pennsylvania railroad has purchased the Pennsylvania tidewater canal, running from Wrightsville to Havre de Grace. The purchase also includes the big dam, a mile and a quarter long, that spans the Susquehanna at Wrightsville, York county, and Columbia. It is said the Pennsylvania company will build an electric road down the towpath to connect with its line at Havre de Grace.

General Manager F. D. Underwood of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad company announced in Pittsburg that heretofore the company will not recognize the Order of Railway Telegraphers, and that any employees of the company being members would not be tolerated. Mr. Underwood advised the men to withdraw from the order, which they will doubtless hurriedly be considered. It has a membership of over 39,000. A month ago the company asked its men to withdraw from the union, which request was not heeded.

SUSQUEHANNA.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Susquehanna, July 19.—The Seven-Country Veteran association will hold its annual reunion at Lake Ariel, August 15. Excursions will run to the lake from various places under its control. John G. Woolley, the Prohibition candidate for president, will speak at Thomson, August 20.

R. H. James, of Lanesboro, is the guest of Honesdale relatives. Peckins are traveling through Susquehanna county, selling a powder which is supposed to kill worms upon shade trees. The fellows are frauds of the first water.

Coal business on the Jefferson division of the Erie is very dull. The Great Bend tannery, now the property of a trust, the American Hile and Leather company, is gradually shutting down. Two months ago one hundred men were employed; now but six are employed. It is understood that the shut-down will be permanent. It is Great Bend's chief industry, and its loss will be severely felt. The trust has eighteen planers under its control, and six of them have already been closed.

Hallstead and Great Bend clubs will play ball in Great Bend on Saturday afternoon.

Martin Brothers, of Deposit, are negotiating for the large farm of the J. H. Cook estate, Main street, in Susquehanna, upon which they will erect and occupy, as a department store, a three-story brick block.

Leroy Judd is critically ill at his home in Great Bend. Congressman C. Fred Wright, of this place, on Wednesday presided at meeting of the stockholders of the American Charcoal company, held in Binghamton. Mr. Wright is vice-president of the company. It was decided to increase the capital stock of the company from $35,000 to $100,000.

Last of Famous Brigands Dead. New York, July 19.—News has come from Rome of the death of the famous brigand, Fioravante, who for so many years eluded every attempt to capture him. He was shot by a peasant whom he threatened with death because of his refusal to take a letter demanding five thousand francs. Fioravante was the last of the old race of brigands which infested the neighborhood of Rome. For some years there has been a standing reward of four thousand francs for his capture or death.
