

WEST SCRANTON

SPECIAL MEETING OF LATTER DAY SAINTS HELD IN CO-OPERATIVE HALL LAST EVENING.

Addresses by Elder Joseph T. Finlison and Elder William H. Smart—Wife-Beater Placed Under Arrest—Mixed Choir Organized to Compete at Labor Day Elstedd-fod—Success of Rev. Evan R. Williams—Entertainment and Social. Other News Notes and Personals.

A good-sized audience assembled last evening at Co-operative hall, where a special meeting was held under the auspices of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, Elder Joseph T. Finlison, president of the East Pennsylvania conference, presiding. After the usual devotional exercises, President Finlison spoke briefly upon the tenets of the faith of the Latter Day Saints, closing with an introduction of Elder William H. Smart, president of the Eastern States Mission, as speaker of the evening.

President Smart gave an interesting address upon the warnings and testimonies of God unto this generation preceding the second advent of the Saviour, from a Mormon standpoint. Referring to Holy Will he showed that in past ages God had always warned the people before the consummation of any great event. The speaker then spoke to his subject under the following heads:

- 1.—Warning of heavenly messengers.
- 2.—Warning of men commissioned of God.
- 3.—Warning of human disturbances as in war, which is to be poured out upon all nations.
- 4.—Warnings of elemental and physical disturbances, as in tempests, earthquakes, seas heaving, hoods and their bounds, thunderings, lightnings, etc.
- 5.—Warnings of planetary disturbances, as in the earth's reeling and fro, the sun's being darkened, the moon's having the appearance of blood, the stars falling in the heavens, etc.
- 6.—Warning of silence in the heavens and the earth.

The speaker closed by vividly portraying God's mercy to His children in testimony by passing from the extremity of the voice of heavenly messengers to the voice of men; from the voice of thunderings, earthquakes and

The Highest Grade Sewing Machines Made Are in Our Show Windows This Week. They Are Cheap

No sewing machine can be better than the best that science and experience can produce. You may give it name and advertise that name and pay dearly for the name that has cost millions to make famous, but that does not make the sewing machine any better, and we unhesitatingly reassert, without fear of successful contradiction, that money will neither produce nor buy a better sewing machine than that which bears our name. Ours is an up-to-date machine in every particular. It is not the same variety of sewing machine that is usually sold in department stores. It is made by the largest and most responsible manufacturers of sewing machines in this country, and is as fully guaranteed by us and the manufacturers as any machine they produce and sell for twice the price we ask for the same machine that but lacks the well advertised name to make it a duplicate.

Cabinet Machines Finished with Ball Bearings and Cones, and the Newest and Best Attachments

And every other description of sewing machine for the home, the dressmaker, etc. Every machine sold carries a full and complete guarantee.

all who were privileged to attend report that the Columbian are clever entertainers. Deputy Coroner Paine will hold an inquest at 10 o'clock this evening in the West Scranton police station in the case of Philip Frehorn, who committed suicide on Friday morning at his home on Hampton street.

The members of the Scranton male party who visited Atlantic City last week, and competed for the chief prize, claim that partially he should have received the prize. The contest was one of the most successful ever held in this country and will be an annual event at Atlantic City.

The members of Mrs. Hill's Sunday school class at St. David's Episcopal church, will give an entertainment and social tomorrow evening, July 24, in the Sunday school rooms. There will be a programme of music, recitations, tableaux, singing parties and orations. Refreshments will be served by the same class. A pleasant time is promised to all who attend.

Timothy McNulty was arrested Saturday night by Patrolmen Hart and McLaughlin and locked up in the police station. At the hearing before Alderman John yesterday morning he was fined $10, and required to furnish $200 bail to keep the peace. He was unable to furnish bail and was committed to the county jail.

DAY'S DOINGS IN DUNMORE BOROUGH TEACHERS FOR THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS EMPLOYED.

The School Board held a Very Interesting Session on Saturday Night, at Which the Applications for the Coming Year Were Passed Upon—Prof. Joseph Gray, of No. 4 Building, Is to Be Granted a Third Examination—Topics Discussed by Clergymen Yesterday.

Saturday night the members of the borough school board met in special session in the directors' room in the High school building, and after a somewhat lengthy session, settled the two important questions which have been the topic of conversation among the residents of the town for the past six weeks, viz., the election and placing of efficient teachers for the ten borough schools and the janitors for the buildings. The only exciting and interesting part of the evening's programme was the election of a principal for No. 4 school building.

Professor Joseph Gray, the principal of the building last year, was an applicant for re-election, but in his examinations for a provisional certificate he failed. Superintendent E. D. Bovard granted him a second trial, but a failure to make the averages set by the board resulted in this one also. Mr. Spencer, moved for a third examination, which if not satisfactory, would result in Mr. Gray being dropped. The rest of the board were dubious about setting a precedent for other years, while the superintendent suggested that he hardly saw how a third examination could be given Mr. Gray and the other applicants who had failed the second time.

Mr. Miller said he thought ample opportunity had been given the applicant to pass, if proficient. After a hot discussion lasting over half an hour, in the end the board voted on the question. Two members voted for, while the other four remained silent. Finally, by mutual agreement, a third examination was granted Mr. Gray.

THE APPLICANTS.

It was with the greatest difficulty that the meeting carried out the election of the teachers and janitors. President Irvin and Secretary Haggerty were at their desks at 8 o'clock, Messrs. Spencer and Costello being in the lobby. Mr. Webber soon arrived, and Messrs. Spencer and Costello continued their lobby talk until 8:45 o'clock. President Irvin spoke of the necessity of having the power to arrest the offenders as nuisances. At 9 o'clock the meeting was called to order, when the applicants for teachers were read. They were as follows: Anna McGinnis, Margaret Kelly, Charles Cole, Margaret Duggan, Bertha Reilly, Gertrude Price, Ellen Flannery, Mary Gilligan, Margaret Fahy, Elizabeth Robinson, E. A. Farrell, Elizabeth Fitzpatrick, Lizzie Gallagher, Ella Black, Mary McHale and Joseph Gray.

THE APPOINTMENTS.

The following were elected with the votes as follows:

- Principal No. 1 building, R. S. Davis, unanimous; assistant principal, B. T. Moorey.

In the Churches.

Rev. J. L. Kreamer, pastor of the Dudley street Baptist church, preached the fifth and last sermon on the subject, "Why I am a Baptist" in the church last evening. A large number heard the last thoughts as given by Rev. Kreamer on this subject. In the morning the subject was "Simon Peter, the Fisherman," which was heard by a large number.

Rev. J. D. Dabney preached excellent sermons yesterday morning and evening on the subjects, "The Rock Foundation," and "A Walk and Talk with Jesus," respectively. The attendance was good at both services.

Mr. Short made the subject, "The Disciples of Christ in a Storm" was given in the Methodist Episcopal church last evening by the pastor, Rev. A. J. Van Cleft, and proved highly interesting. In the morning a sermon was preached on the subject, "The Father Glorified by the Perfect Work of His Son."

Services were conducted in the Presbyterian church yesterday morning by Rev. Harry Nye and an interesting and instructive talk was given. There were no services held in the evening.

A Fine Baritone.

Dunmoreans who attended the services of the Methodist Episcopal church yesterday had the pleasure of hearing probably the most promising baritone in this state, Henry P. Dreyer, who has just returned from Boston, where he has been studying in the New England Conservatory of Music. Although suffering from a cold, he showed that he has an unusually strong, rich baritone voice, which he has under perfect control.

His selections were "How Long Will Thou Forget Me, O Lord," by Metzker; "The Lord's Prayer," by Cowen, and "The Day is Ended," by Bartlett. Mr. Dreyer leaves the middle of August for a year's study and travel in Europe with his teacher, William Whitney. While abroad he will also study with the great Italian teacher, Vanuchini, Mr. Whitney being present at all lessons.

PARAGRAPHIC ITEMS.

Henry Dreyer, of this borough, sang at both services in the Methodist Episcopal church yesterday at the enjoyment of those attending.

The funeral of Elias Foley, who died suddenly at the home of his wife, Thomas McGrath, at 225 West End street, Friday morning, at 2:30 o'clock, was held at 10 o'clock from the home. A large number attended the funeral and sympathized with the surviving brother, John Foley, teacher in No. 1 building of the public schools.

NORTH SCRANTON NOTES.

J. W. Guest, a Former Resident of This City, Killed on the Railroad—Other News Notes.

J. W. Guest, son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Guest, of 118 Watkin street, employed as a brakeman on the Pennsylvania railroad, was thrown from the top of a freight car at Landith station, Delaware, on Saturday, and sustained a fractured skull, from which he died two hours later.

Deceased formerly resided here. The remains will arrive in this city at 1:55 this afternoon on the Lackawanna railroad, and will be interred in the Dunmore cemetery. Guest is survived by his wife and two children.

SHORT NEWS NOTES.

The funeral of Mrs. Thomas Watkins, who died at the Lackawanna hospital last Thursday afternoon from brain fever, was held yesterday afternoon from her late home on Edna avenue.

Rev. G. A. Cline, pastor of the Providence Methodist Episcopal church, of which the deceased had been an earnest member for some time, officiated. Members of the choir of the church had charge of the singing. Many friends of the deceased and the family attended, paying their last respects to the departed friend. The floral tributes were beautiful in design. Rev. Mrs. Cline read the Scripture and made a few words of many kind tributes in the character of Mrs. Watkins. At the conclusion of the services the cortege moved to Washington street cemetery, where interment was made.

The funeral of the late John McManamy was held Saturday morning at 9 o'clock, a solemn high mass of requiem being celebrated in Holy Rosary church by Rev. J. J. O'Sullivan. The edifice was well filled with friends and rela-
