FINE PERFORMANCE.

Given by the Primrose & Dockstader Minstrels.

Occasionally a minstrel company with what it promises. One of these all-too-rare occasions was last night, when the Primrose & Dockstader troupe, at the Lyceum, entertained an audience that, despite the warm weather, filled the house and kept their seats to the close of the per-

In both the quality and variety of its nusic, fun and lateral specialties the ompany easily ranks with the foremost. Lew Dockstader, of course, is the bright particular star of the funmaking end of the aggregation, and his reception was, as it always is in Scranton, a very flattering one. His monologue, in which he deals solely with a summer hotel, and his "bunch of impersonations," in which he plays in a richly humorous style with the folbles of the leading lights of the political world, were well worthy of the inimitable Lew.

George Primrose, the old and alltime favorite, presented a pretty specialty, "Sunny, Sunny South," in which he cleverly introduced some picturesque scenie effects, as accompaniments to the most popular of the old and new Southern melodies.

The first part was elaborately staged and replete with good things. Walter Vaughn, Larry Dooley, Charles Kent and Harry Ellis, the leading soloists, vere exceptionally good.

Neil O'Brien's ridiculously droll fun n a musico-mechanical specialty was one of the biggest hits of the evening. The performance closed with an unusually good acrobatic act by the Carl Damman troupe,

LAND THAT ONCE BROUGHT A DOLLAR

IT IS NOW THE CAUSE OF A BIG SUIT.

Dean and Winton Heirs in Legal War Over a Forty-two Acre Coal Tract in Lackawanna Township. Allegation of Double Dealing. Another Chapter in the Jenkins-Coray Litigation - Two Liquor Licenses Granted by Judge Kelly. More Tax Collectors File Bonds.

Forty-two acres of coal land that was bought for $1, not much more than two decades ago, is the cause of a suit in ejectment instituted yesterday by A D. Dean, trustee for the heirs of I. S. Dean, deceased, against B. M. Winton and Walter W. Winton, trustees under the last will and testament of Catherine Winton, deceased, and the Greenwood Coal company.

The property, which is known as the "William Moore, sr.," tract, is located in Lackawanna township, and is being mined by the Greenwood Coal com pany. More than $14,000 in royalties has already been paid the Wintons, and the coal is far from being exhausted.

The plaintiff alleges that the tract vas originally owned in equal shares by Isaaac Dean and W. W. Winton. It es a performance quite in keeping 1878 it was offered for sale for taxes The day prior to the time set for the sale A. D. Dean saw W. W. Winton and, it is alleged, had an understanding with him that Winton was to pay the taxes and prevent the sale, using for the purpose money belonging to Isaac Dean, which he then had in his

Instead of keeping this alleged agree ment, Winton, so the plaintiff claims, went to Wilkes-Barre on the day of the sale, allowed the property to be put up and bought it for $1 in the name of C. Winton.

The Deans knew nothing of this, so it is claimed, until some years later, when negotiations were under way to lease the property to Frank D. Collins. Upon discovering that C. Winton was the owner of the property the Deans made efforts to bring about an adjustment of their claim. Nothing came of it, and the matter has been allowed to remain dormant ever since The Deans now propose to establish their right to an undivided one-half

While president and manager of the Rushbrook company, of which Mr. Coray was the principal owner, Mr. Jenkins at various times, so he claims, advanced money to meet pressing debt and on account of the company's embarrassment he was unable to collect his whole salary. #### From Mrs. Vaughn to Mrs. Pinkham.

"DEAR FRIEND-Two years ago I had child-bed fever and womb trouble in its worse form. For eight months after birth of babe I was not able to sit up. Doctors treated me, but with no help. I had bearing-down pains, burning in stomach, kidney and bladder trouble and my back was so stiff and sore, the right ovary was badly affected and everything I ate distressed me, and there was a bad discharge.

I was confined to my bed when I wrote to you for advice and followed your directions faithfully, taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, Liver Pills and using the Wash, and am now able to do the most of my housework. I believe I should have died if it had not been for your Compound. I hope this letter may be the result of benefitting some other suffering woman. I recommend your Compound to every one."-Mss. MARY VAUGHN, TRIMBLE, PULASKI CO., KY.

It can be pretty definitely stated that the ordinance appropriating $1,000 for the purpose of finishing the repairs on the Abington turnpike will be allowed to drop in common council and that it will never be resurrec-

FELL FROM A POLE AND WAS KILLED

SAD DEATH OF HENRY M. DA-VIS OF WEST SCRANTON.

He Was Working on a Pole Near the Corner of Grove Street and Clay Avenue, Dunmore, When He Was Seen to Topple and Fall-Supposed to Have Been Overcome by the Heat-Died Within a Few Minutes After He Fell-Coroner to Investigate the Case Today.

Henry M. Davis, of 622 West Lackavanna avenue, employed as a lineman by Electrician Frank E. Wade, fell from a pole near the corner of Grove street and Clay avenue, Dunmore, at 11.30 o'clock yesterday morning, and sustained injuries from which he died a few minutes afterwards.

The young man's skull was fractured by the fall, and it is genarally supposed that he was overcome by th heat and lost his balance on the pole. Davis was an experienced lineman nd began working for Wade on Monday afternoon. He was engaged in stringing wires to attach to the indicator in the Johnson store company's hose house. He had ascended the pole about twenty feet from the ground when he was seen falling backwards by a small boy, who called to the other workmen nearby. The unfortunate fellow struck on his head, and was rendered unconscious.

A messenger was sent for Dr. Brown, of Dunmore, but before he arrived Davis had expired. The body was taken in charge by Undertaker Price, upon the order of Deputy Coroner Paine, who will conduct an inquest in the case at the West Scranton police station at 4 o'clock this afternoon, Deceased was 28 years of age and was the son of Peter M. Davis, who for many years conducted the Golden Eagle hotel in Center street. He was also a brother-in-law of Harry May, one of the permanent men at the Scranton Hook and Ladder house, The funeral arrangements have not yet been: made.

Deputy Coroner Paine will conduct an inquest in the case this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

FEUD IS STILL ON.

Roos Brothers Continue to Make Charges Against One Another. The feud between the Roos brothers, Leon and Abe, seems to grow more bitter with each succeeding day. It will be remembered that Leon who is 18 years of age, was arrested last week and held in ball on a charge of attempting to blow up the wagon of his brother, Abe, with dynamite The wagon in question is located a Linden street and Penn avenue. Leon is much wrought up over this harge and the further fact that in Free Press of last Sunday was written by Abe, which set ath a number of unpleasant things about Leon.

"It's not true, what my brother Abe sald about me in the Free Press," warmly declared Leon yesterday to a Tribune man. "Abe did not pay my way to this country. It was my brother Meses who did that. All that Abe did for me was to have me work for him and then not give me my pay. I had to sue him for it. I never thought of such a thing as blowing up his wagon with dynamite or any thing else. It isn't his wagon, any-way, and I never saw dynamite." Leon is now working in a lunch wagon on Spruce street and says he was employed there on the night it is alleged he tried to blow up his brother's

Abe Roos is apparently much conerned over the ungrateful conduct of his brother. He does not say much about the dynamite, for he was not in the wagon at the time of the allged attempt. That is only an incident with him, however, in the long list of grievances he has against his young brother, upon whom, he says, he has lavished his money, affection and attention, with results that are most dis-
