Sunday, Mrs. A. J. Taylor met with a pleasant surprise on Saturday in the unlooked for arrival of her mother, Mrs. W. Wright, whom she had not seen for about two years. She was watching wonderingly, the approach of two tadies whom at first glance she falled to recognize, and when she discovered that one was her mother, whom she supposed to be at her home near Chicatgo, she was nearly overcome. Joy seldom kills, however, and the visit will be none the less enjoyable for being unexpected. We understand Mrs. Wright will spend August here, and her many friends in town will be pleased to see her again. A camping party from this place and Nicholson, will occupy a cottage at Upper Lake this week. The party will include Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bell, Messrs. Gien Roberts, Claud Roberts and Runt Tingley; Miss Inola Dunbar and the Misses Taylor of
