MORNING WEDDING ON BROMLEY AVENUE

REV. E. R. WILLIAMS AND MISS JEMIMA JONES UNITED.

Ceremony Was Performed by Rev. William R. Richards, of Wilkes-Barre—Groom Has Accepted a Call to Coolville, O.—George Glander, the Well-Known Barber, Missing from Home Since July 25—Dr. Brennan's Father Dead—Case Before Alderman John—News Notes.

The ceremony which united in marriage Miss Jemima Jones, of North Bromley avenue, and Rev. Evan R. Williams, of Hampton street, was solemnized at 10 o'clock yesterday morning at the home of the bride.

Shortly before the hour set, Miss Daisy Wade rendered the wedding march from Lohengrin, to the beautiful strains of which the young couple proceeded slowly to the altar. In a corner was a large canopy of royal purple, trimmed with yellow flowers, the colors of the class of 1900 of Marietta college and from which hung a huge decorative horseshoe. Here they were met by Rev. William R. Richards, of Wilkes-Barre, who performed the ceremony according to the ritual of the Congregational church.

The bride presented a beautiful appearance. Her gown was of poplin, flamed with Duchesse lace over white satin ribbon. They were unaccompanied. At the conclusion of the ceremony, congratulations were tendered and all enjoyed a wedding breakfast. Only the immediate relatives and most intimate friends were in attendance.

At noon Rev. and Mrs. Williams left on a wedding trip, which will embrace Philadelphia and Washington, after which they will proceed on their journey to Coolville, Ohio, where they will make their future home. An army of friends met them at the Delaware and Hudson station, where farewells and congratulations were exchanged. The bride's traveling gown was of blue broadcloth with hat to match.

Rev. and Mrs. Williams were well known and highly honored in this vicinity, as was evidenced from the vast array of gifts received, consisting of silverware, glassware, carpets, and among which was a lot of table silver presented by members of Mrs. Williams' Sunday school class.

minutes after his father expired. His many friends sympathize with him in his bereavement. The funeral will occur tomorrow morning. Interment will be made at the Plymouth cemetery.

Before Alderman John.

Contractor Jacob Henry instituted a suit before Alderman John last evening to recover $25, which he alleges is due him from Mrs. Catherine McHugh, of Luzerne street, as part payment for work done on the defendant's house.

From the testimony adduced, Henry seemed to complete a building for Mrs. McHugh for $100, and leave everything in ship-shape. This he neglected to do, it is alleged, and the final payment was withheld. The alderman gave judgment in favor of the defendant.

GATHERED IN SOUTH SCRANTON

COUNCILMAN PHILLIPS' WATCH ON A TEAR.

Consumed Time at an Alarming Rate and Is Now Laid Up for Repairs. Funeral of Mrs. Charles Mengle from the Family Residence on South Wyoming Avenue—John Healey Injured by Being Thrown from a Wagon—Funeral of Arthur O'Malley This Morning.

Councilman Fred Phillips, of Cedar avenue, is happy once more. Mr. Phillips is the possessor of a watch that up till yesterday acted in a perfectly decorous and business-like manner. Yesterday, although no reason can be assigned, it started off at 7 o'clock and in twenty minutes, by his watch it was quarter to eight. Round and round, using the face as a cyclo path, the big hand whirled, doing a Jimmie Michael stunt, and by 10 o'clock, according to well-regulated timepieces, this wonderful watch registered ten minutes to 12. Whereupon, like all hungry men, Mr. Phillips went to dinner, but found he had arrived two hours too soon.

Mr. Phillips was naturally mentally disconcerted by such abominable action on the part of a respectable watch, but being at home, he decided to stay and watch the watch, and this is what happened. After going at a 2:40 clip for fifteen minutes, it had traversed in time two hours and twenty-five minutes across the watch's face and Mr. Phillips mentally calculated if it kept going at that pace it would be supper time before dinner. Therefore, he grew desperate, not wishing to lose his dinner, and opened the case and tried to stop it with his knife. It stopped suddenly and is now in the hands of a watch repairer. Nevertheless, Mr. Phillips is happy. He stopped the watch in time, and saved his dinner.

Funeral of Mrs. Mengle.

The funeral of Mrs. Charles Mengle, who died Sunday evening, was held yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the family residence on South Wyoming avenue, and was very largely attended. Services were held in the Cedar Avenue Methodist Episcopal church, Revs. F. P. Doty and Rev. W. A. Norrit officiating.

Rev. Mr. Doty preached a touching and beautiful sermon, basing his thoughts upon Isaiah xli: 2: "When thou passest through the waters, I will be with thee; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow thee." After the services in the church, the cortege moved to Pittston avenue cemetery, where interment was made. The pall bearers were John Hahn, John Schrader, Jacob Klein, John Leber, William Sheffer and Bart. Fuller.

John Healey Injured. While loading sand in a car at the South side Monday afternoon, John Healey, of Pittston avenue and Brook street, was thrown headlong from the wagon upon which he was standing by the sudden starting of the mules attached to the conveyance, and seriously injured.

Upon examination it was found that his collar bone was broken and several of his ribs severely bruised. Dr. Quinn was summoned and reset the fracture.

NUBS OF NEWS.
The funeral of Arthur O'Malley, who died Tuesday, will take place this morning from the family residence, 1205 Pittston avenue, at 9 o'clock. A religious service will be celebrated in St. John's church, on Fig street.

A 16-month-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Bombacher, who died Tuesday, was buried yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Joseph Moran, the 2-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Moran, of Meadow avenue, who died yesterday morning, will be buried this afternoon.

The remains of Francis, the 1-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Towers, of Willow street, who died yesterday, were yesterday shipped to Ashley for interment.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kiehoff, of Hickory street, left yesterday for a visit to friends in Factoryville.

CASES ARE MULTIPLYING.
Another Chapter in the Swartz-Dulange Story.

Mrs. Mary Dulange, of Old Forge, was arrested yesterday on a warrant issued by Alderman W. S. Miller, charging her with perjury. The prosecutor in the case was Philip Swartz, the Old Forge merchant. The case is another of the long line that have grown out of the arrest of Mrs. Dulange's husband some three weeks ago.

Mrs. Dulange went before Alderman Kannon and swore to an information which charged Swartz with conspiring to have her arrested with a view to extorting money from her. For this Swartz was arrested and entered bail.

After she had been held in bail for her appearance at court yesterday, Mrs. Dulange made a statement to the effect that Swartz had never asked her for money, that she never desired to have him arrested for conspiracy against her, and had no knowledge that he had conspired against her.

THREE SECURED LIBERTY.
County Jail Prisoners Admitted to Bail by Judge Kelly.

John Pezza, charged with larceny and receiving, was released from jail on $500 bail, furnished by W. C. Wells, before Judge John P. Kelly yesterday.

James Lowe, one of the three colored men accused of stabbing John Walsh in a saloon fight on Penn avenue, secured liberty by entering $500 bail before Judge Kelly. S. J. Porter became his bondsman.

Lewis Wilk, who was arrested six weeks ago on the charge of receiving stolen goods, was bailed out by Alex. Tryscho, Judge Kelly fixed the security at $300.

THE DEWEY HOMESTEAD.

The above picture shows the house where George Dewey was born December 26th, 1817. It was occupied by the Dewey family until after the death of the Admiral's father. It then came into the possession of Captain Edward Dewey, who sold it to its present owner and occupant, T. R. Gordon, Esq., in the summer of 1892. Mr. Gordon moved it to its present site in the following February, 1890, and has occupied it until the present time. Mr. and Mrs. Gordon are unflinching in their courtesy to the thousands who visit this shrine, the birthplace of Admiral Dewey.

A recent letter from T. R. Gordon to the Peruna Drug Mfg Co., Columbus, O., reads as follows:

"It is with great satisfaction that I find myself able, after an extended trial to write you in this emphatic manner of the good your Peruna has done my wife.

"She has been troubled with catarrh from childhood, and whenever she has a cold, or any unusual condition of the weather it was worse than usual, and seemed more than she could bear. The dropping in her throat at night prevented refreshing sleep, in fact, we came to look upon it as incurable, and from the many remedies used in vain, we had reason to

"We are thankful and happy to say that your 'Peruna' has been of great benefit to her, and I confidently look for a complete and entire cure. High praise is not too much to bestow upon your remedy." T. R. Gordon. Address The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, O., for free book on catarrh

HEADACHE

Headache may be called a woman's ailment. Some men suffer from it. But almost all women have to endure its pain with each recurring month. This fact points at once to the intimate relation between the health of the delicate womanly organs, and the general health of the whole body. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription banishes headache by banishing its cause. It cures the diseases which irritate the delicate womanly organs, fret the nerves and waste the strength. It increases the vitality and builds up the nervous system. "Favorite Prescription" contains no opium, cocaine or other narcotic.

"I want to praise your medicine," writes Mrs. Sarah J. Hursey, of Crescent City, Putnam Co., Va. "I have been sick for twenty years, and have been almost in bed five years, and now I am able to work all day. I have taken eight bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and four of Golden Medical Discovery, and one vial of 'Belletts.' I praise your medicine to all. I had the headache but it is gone. My throat and cough gone, and all my old troubles are better. I tried many other kinds of medicine and four doctors."
