CARBONDALE.

A LIVELY CORPSE.

Winans Hull, the young man who was reported killed some time ago in Buffalo, N. Y., is home again and could be seen today on top of the telephone poles on Dundaff street lustily driving spikes in the cross arms that are now being put in place there. When asked to explain the rumor of his death he said that in company with a young man named Nichols he had been riding on a train near Buffalo, when he fell off and Nichols, thinking that he had been killed, telegraphed his folks to that effect, He claims that he was laid up for several day, the result of the accident. Why Nichols telegraphed that it had occurred in Colorado is yet a mystery.

SYMPATHY STRIKE.

About sixty drivers and runners of Coalbrook and Wilson Creek mines struck yesterday, partly for more wages and partly owing to sympathy for those down the valley who they thought had gone out. The collieries had to be shut down and a couple of hundred men suffered enforced idleness. A meeting was held at simpson last night and a committee appointed to wait upon Superintendent Rose. The impression prevails that the strike will be of brief duration.

It was generally expected that the election of principal would be the chief business of the meeting, but not a word on the at the last meeting, fixing the salaries of the teachers, in which some of them were reduced, was reconsidered and the salaries cut were afterwards restored to the rate paid last year. Assistant Principal Cuff appeared before the board to deny some charges brought against him to the board by Principal Taggart. In this he appeared to be in error, as Chairman Walker and other members of the board stated that no charges had been officially brought against him. To the surprise of the board, Mr. Cuff then tendered his resignation, in explanation of which he gave a profold reason, one being that he intended going to college and the other was that the board had not kept their promise, made last year, to increase his salary.
