LITHUANIAN WEDDING AT LAFAYETTE HOUSE

CELEBRATION BEGAN AT 7 O'CLOCK LAST EVENING.

Will Continue Throughout Today and Night-Nuptial Knot Will Be Tied at 9 O'Clock This Morning-Repairing the Jackson Street Church. J. J. Durkin and T. J. Jennings Injured-Mid-Summer Social-Hand and Sutton Boys Alive-Other Notes and Personals.

A wedding of unusual importance will occur at 9 o'clock this morning in Lithuanian circles, when John Botrumowich, of 126 North Filmore ave nue, and Miss Josie Kubilutie, of the Lafayette House, will be united in the North Scranton church by Rev. Anthony Kaupas, the pastor.

The celebration incident to the cere-mony began at 7 o'clock last evening the Lafayette house, corner of North Main avenue and Lafayette street, where several hundred of their countrypeople assembled and participated in a feast of music, song, cating and drinking.

The bride-elect has been housekeeper for George Carpus, the proprietor, for some time. Following the tieing of the nuptial knot, the bridal party will en-Joy a drive, and returning to the house noon, a reception and dinner will be tendered them,

During the afternoon and evening the bride will hold a reception, and each person who extends his or her congratulation will contribute their mite in silver or gold. All will particlpate in the feast, and singing, dancing and other amusements will be enjoyed during the day and night. Patrolmen James Feeney and Roscoe Walsh have been engaged to preserv

Mid-Summer Social. The Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor of the Sumner Avenue Presbyterian church will hold a midsummer entertainment and social in the church on Thursday evening, commencing at 8 o'clock. An admission fee of fifteen cents, including refreshments, will be charged. All are cor-dially invited. An excellent programme has been arranged, which will be as follows: Piano soto, Prof. Johnson (the blind planist); declamation, Miss Anna Davis; declamation, Miss May Lee; vocal solo, Miss Lizzie Grif-

Repairing the Church.

A force of workmen, under the diection of Rev. Thomas de Gruchy, esterday began the work of repairing he interior of the Jackson Street Baptist church. The walls will be covered entirely with steel sheeting and many other improvements will be made. The annual excersion of the church and Sunday school will be run to Lake Ariel on Friday, August 10, for 55 cents, and 25 cents for children. The low rate secured will insure a large attendance.

Prominent Citizens Injured.

County Commissioner John J. Durkin and School Controller Thomas J. Jennings, while out for a trolley ride Sunday evening, sustained slight injuries by being thrown from their seats in a car on the Throop line, which was thrown off the track. Mr. Durkin had the fingers of his eft hand squeezed, and Mr. Jennings' left leg was bruised. On their return to West Scranton, Dr. George B. Reynolds dressed their injuries and they were around as usual yesterday.

Hand and Sutton Boys Alive.

Word has been received from Ira Sutton and Robert Hand, the two boys who were supposed to have been in a railroad wreck at Wilmington, Del. The former is at Buffalo, and the latter is visiting his sister at Mayfield. The whereabouts of George Ginade and Hugh Ellis is still unknown. Nothing has been heard of them since they disappeared from home.

NORTH SCRANTON.

Some mean, yet designing thief, has been operating the past few weeks in that section of North Scranton toward Bull's Head, his latest plan to secure a whole set of harness by taking parts from different barns working well so far, Several persons complained the past week of his operations to the police and yesterday complaint was made by Contractor R. B. Dean that the barn wherein he keeps his driving horse was entered Saturday night and several very essential parts of the harness taken. The police are going to keep an eye out for suspicious characters of this kind.

The new stone steps approaching the front of St. Joseph's Lithuanian Catholic church, on North Main avenue, corner of Theodore street, are fast nearing completion. They are of cut blue stone and advance to the platform of the main entrance from either side in circular form. At the base there are five circular columns. which will have lamps or vases placed upon them. The whole effect is going to make a very attractive appearance. The class of the Puritan Congregational Sunday school of which John Phillips is teacher had a very enjoyable occasion the other evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Idus Roberts, on School street. Those who participated in the pleasure provided were: John H. Phillips, Martha Reese, Mary J. Edwards, Mary C.
