LABOR AGITATORS IN TOWN

National Organizer Frederick Dilher and other labor agitators addresed an open air meeting from the balcony of Hotel Anthracite last evening. They reviewed the great work nocomplished by the United Minc Workers of America and held up golden promises to those who enter the folds. One speaker guaranteed that within six months the miners will be getting more wages for shorter hours and a smaller ton of coal, while another declared that soon the engineers and firemen wil afallate with it and then the entire country and government, as far as transportation goes, will be under its control, it was urged that every friend of organized labor see to it that he smokes no cigars. wears no clothing or shoes and drinks no beer which doesn't bear the union

WILL DIRECT ST. ROSE CHOIR.

After two months' vacation the choir of St. Rose church will resume rehearshis tonight preparatory to the opening of the remodelled church. The music to be rehearsed is the cele-brated "Misea Pro Pace" by Theo Von La Hache. This is the most difficult piece of music ever undertaken by the choir and the services of Professor Haydn Evans have been secured to He will continue in charge till the return of Professor Stockman from Europe.

COUNCILS IN SESSION.

Councils met in joint session last night to elect a city engineer, but as more applications for the office are expected, they adjourned to meet for that business Thursday night. Selectmen then disposed of some routine work. Among other things they authorized the abatement of a stagnant water nuisance on Wyoming street, near Russell park and instructed the building committees to have defective wiring of city building made

THE NEW DIRECTORY.

The Carbondale City Directory for 1900, published by C. S. Hayne & Company, is a very beautiful and useful volume. It is complete and up-todate, and in its tasteful typography and handsome binding reflects great credit on the office of the Scranton Tribune, where it was printed.

DEATHS.

Late Saturday night, after an illness of eight weeks, Mrs. Cynthia May Hines' life came to a close. Her malden name was Packer, and she was born fifty-eight years ago in Brooklyn, Susquehanna county. She married the late Charles W. Higes more than thirty years ago and removed to this city, where she has since resided. For eighteen years she has lived in the house where she died. She was a consistent member of Trinity Episcopal church and was a woman of many estimable traits, Deceased is survived by but one child, David amendment was voted down and the L. The secretary reported having seen the Postal Telegraph company in regard to the removal of some poles, which the company have since removed. The bonds of High Constable Vincent were read and accepted. Edmund Edmunds moved that if the Carbondale Telephone company does not complete the putting in of their plant by the 12th of the present menta, when their ninety days' time expires, that they be not granted an extension of time unless they give permission to the borough to have the electric light wires attached to their poles. The motion was defeated by the following vote: For the motion, Edmunds, Quinn and Bergen; against, Harris, Blythe and Shlanto, Mr. Quinn sug-empelling property owners, where in ase of a fire their property has been partly destroyed, to tear down the re maining portions of the building sixty lays after the conflagration. He pointed out a number of partly consumed buildings which were standing and which, he said, were an eye-sore, a detriment to the borough and were the means of depreciating the value of other adjoining property. His idea met with approval, and a motion to prepare an ordinance to cover the point was adopted. The board of health was hauled over the coals, the prevailing opinion being that board had not accomplished anything for the amount of money appropriated. Mr. Harris moved that the appropriation for the present year be reduced to $25. Mr. Edmunds made an amendment, making it $100, ch operator in this city. OLYPHANT.

The Father Mathew Opera house was filled last night in response to the call of the Taxpayers' Protective association for the purpose of discussing the sewer question and to adopt definite plans for fighting the sewer corporation. David E. Lewis was chairman of the meeting and S. J. Matthews, secretary. Ex-Burgess McNulty was the first speaker and denounced the company in very plain language, He was followed by Antol Gilinsky, T. D. Evans and George W. Patten. who spoke in the same vein. M. W. Cummings occupied the floor for over twenty minutes and offered many

He urged that the flames. The heavy stream soon the people act as a unit in the matter were first discovered they were placed owned by a corporation. "They are under control by the hose company, here against our win, with a burden badly gutted, and the contents were all in my power to fight them to a ruined by the flames and water. The finish," he said. He suggested furflames, but the intense heat cracked New York papers warning investors of the conditions on which the sewer is being put in. Continuing, he that it was one of the purposes of the sewer company to get control of the surface drainage in the borough and urged the citizens to back up the council and see that they enter into no contract with the company.

Burgess Manning spoke briefly and said he would veto any ordinance passed by the council in favor of the sewer company.

A committee of three, consisting of M. W. Cummings, Antol Gilinsky and William Bell, was appointed to draw up an agreement to be submitted to the taxpayers for their signatures to refrain from connecting with any orporation sewer. Ex-Councilman O'Brien thought that if the company was not putting the streets in proper condition afer the filling in, it was the ouncil's duty to demand that they to so, and a special meeting of the council will be held tonight to act on that matter.
