LARGE AUDIENCE FOOLED.

An immense audience crowded the last evening. All the standing room well as the seats were occupied. It was expected that a principal would be elected in the person of Prof. Hockenberry and as Prof. Bryden had notified the board of his intention to contract, the situation promised to be interesting. Nothing was done however, except the re-election of all the old teachers, exclusive of the principal. The salarles will be fixed next Monday evening. It is obviously the intention of the board to elect Prof. Hockenberry principal, but it will not do so until its attorney renders an opinion on some legal questions.

ANOTHER CANDIDATE.

Mr. Bachert comes well recommended by a former Carbondal-ian, James Creegan, who is now one was in correspondence with a numher of the councilmen, previous to the drow when he learned that Mr. Leighton would probably be elected.
