FITZSIMMONS DOWNS THE AKRON GIANT

Fits left the ring five minutes after he had delivered the winning punch, but it took Ruhlin twelve minutes to ome around sufficiently to be able to walk to his dressing room. Fitzsimmons was still a little bit dazed when reached his room, on the Fourth avenue side of the garden, and as some of those who gathered about him, he asked if it was not the fifteenth round in which the fight was finished.

He soon recovered his reason, and indulged in a hearty laugh. "Well," he said, "I'm an old fellow and a has-been, eh? Well, I guess I was good enough for Mr. Ruhlin, and he was not so bad, either. That was as tough a battle as ever I went through, but I'm still good enough for a more. Ruhlin is a good one, and with a little more experience he will about do. He hit me some corking wallops and although I did not realize at the train of Aug. 31st and all trains of time, I can tell you he can punch i bit. I was very tired, but the further the bout went the more positive I felt that I could finish him. Towards the close Ruhlin grew very weak, and knew I had only to steady myself a little in order to get him. He gave me a good fight, and I can give him nothing but praise,"

Rob's seconds wished him to go to a bath right away, but he refused, saying his wife was waiting for him and he must go home. And as soon as he got his clothes on he left the building followed by an admiring and cheering

Ruhlin Over-trained. Ruhlin when he reached his room vas in a sort of a trance and it was long time before he fully understood he had been defeated. He was badly bruised about the head and both eyes were almost closed. He did not are to talk, but managed to say: "I did the best I could, and no man can do more. Fitz whipped me and that's | Glen Onoko at 5.45 p. m. all I can say about it." Billy Madden. Ruhlin's manager, declared that Gus' defeat was due to James J. Corbett, who acted as one of Ruhlin's seconds, also declared that Ruhlin was overtrained. "I know this," he said, "for he was with me during my preparations for my bout with Jeffries. After that, Gus continued training for his battle with Sharkey, and worked even harder after that for his bout with Fitzsimmons. I warned him that he was doing too much, but he imagined that he could stand it. Anybody could see tonight that some thing was wrong with him, as he sent the right to the jaw repeatedly, but the necessary strength was not behind the blows."

Charley White, who refereed the out, when asked what he thought of the tight, replied: "It was a hard and flerce battle, in which both men fought fairly. Fitz clearly demonstrated that he is not a has-been, and still has the punch that wins. Ruhlin at times looked as if he might win out, but he lacks experience, which will be rem-edled in time, and I have no doubt that he will be heard from to much better advantage later on.

THE FIGHT BY ROUNDS.

soth feinting. Fitz landed a light right on the ear and Ruhlin countered with a light right on the chest. Ruhlin bored in, putting his left across the chest sending Bob to the rope. Fits broke ground and came to the center quickly. He fell short with the left and right to body. Fitz then hooked left to the chin and Gus came back with left and right to chin. Fitz missed left and right swings to the head. Fitz hored in, but in a mix up Gus beat him off to the ropes with left and right to face. Rublin went at Bob with both hands to the hear, cutting Bob's left eye, and Bob slipped to the floor. As he got up Ruhlin, who do not hear the bell, swung on Fitz's face. Bob's seconds claimed a foul, but was not allowed.

Round 2. Ges was the aggressor. Bob ducked left swing and they exchanged rights and left in but Gus met him with left and right to the acc. Both were fighting wildly, Fitz sent a nard left to the body and followed with right and left to the body which numbe Gus webble, and be clinched. Reblin sent a left to the face and shot his left to the ear and brought his right up to the body. A left jolt put Gas off Ladles' Aid s his feet. Fitz was the steadier and drove a hard right to the body, but for several swings. but Gus countered with a left to the face. Both stood still glaring at each other. Fitz sent a hard left to the wind: Gus clinched and held nesday, in honor of his birthday.

Very sad indeed was the sudden death of Edgar, the 2-year-old son of the face. Both were tired when they went to and right to the head and they came to a elinch on the ropes. . Gus tried a left to the head but fell short. Gus clinched. When they sent three lefts to the face and then sent a left and right in that shook Fitz to his toes. Clinches are frequent and both men are very tired. Work on both sides was wild. After a clinch Gus sent right and left to the head three times. First went back with left to the solar plexus and to his relief. He was an unusually swing for the head, Rublin ducking underneath
