TORPEDO EXPLODES WITH DIRE RESULTS tery.

HENRY KOBLATH, OF EYNON STREET PAINFULLY INJURED.

Small Boys Placed the Explosives on the Street Car Track-House of Samuel Hughes, in Aswell Court, Robbed -- Funerals of John Moyles and Augustus Bowman Held Yesterday-Prisoners Stoned a Street Car-Many People at Atlantic City-Other Notes.

Henry Kobloth, a blacksmith, residing at 608 Eynon street, was the victim of a most distressing accident shortly before 8 o'clock last evening. While standing on the corner of South Main avenue and Eynon street a railroad torpedo exploded on the street car track nearby and the tin covering flew through the air and struck him in the face, lacerating the flesh in a frightful

The injured man was assisted to D. M. Jones' drug store, at the corner of South Main avenue and Hampton street, where he was taken with hemhorrages and also suffered from the loss of blood. Dr. W. Roland Davis was summoned and attended the injured man, who was afterwards removed to his home.

A crowd of small boys had been placing torpedos on the track and several of them were exploded by the cars passing over them. Patrolman Thomis Jones was notified and after an investigation learned the names of the suspected boys, who will be arrested

Robbery in Aswell Court.

A burglar entered the home of Samnel ft. Hughes in Aswell court early Saturday evening and carried away a suit of clothes belonging to Mr. Hughes and $10 in money. The thief vas evidently concealed in the house, as the money was taken after the dothes were missed. Mr. Hughes had left his watch and the money on a stand while he was looking for his ciothes, and when he returned missed both watch and money. The matter was reported to Lieutenant Williams, who will make an effort to ferret out the mystery.

Stoned a Street Car.

Frank Regan, of Scranton street, and Michael Ford, of McNicholas court, were arrested late Saturday by Patrolman David Davis, charged with stoning a street car at the corner of Scranton and Seventh streets. When placed under arrest both resisted and caused much trouble. In police court yesterday morning Regan was fined $5 and Ford was held for a further hearing today, when the onductor of the car will appear gainst him.
