WYOMING CONVENTION.

The County Democrats Nominate Candidates at Tunkhannock. Special to the Scranton Tribune

Tunkhannock, Aug. 13.-The Wyo-ming county Democrats held their county convention at the court house at this place this afternoon and nominated candidates for the offices of representative, associate judge and jury commissioner, besides appointing conferces to meet with the conferees of the other counties in the congressional and senatorial districts for the nomination of senator and congressman. The convention was called to order at 2 o'clock by County Chairman A. H. Squier. The organization was made by the election of Charles Walters, of Washington township, as chairman, and Walter Mahon, of Overfield, and James Rooney, of Braintrim as secre-taries. Fred Osterhout, of Factoryviile borough, was appointed reading clerk. The first business after the com-pletion of the rell of delegates was the resenting of the resolutions and, after being read by the reading clerk, were unanimously adopted. The resplutions as presented contained a strong endorsement of Bryan and Guffey, and also of the course of Hon. A. H. Squier, member of the legislature from this county, at the last session. The standard Democratic and insurgent clause in regard to Quay and Quayism was also incorporated in the resolu-tions. There being no candidate from this county for either state senator or congress, the convention confined themselves to naming conferees, and as senatorial conferees Miles Champion and George N. Doyle were named, and for congressional conferees the nominations were C. S. Knapp and Sheriff John W. Gray. Then came the nomination for representative. For this office there have been two aspirants, Hon. A. H. Squier, the present member, and ex-Sheriff C. S. Knapp, place. of Baintrim, and a strong fight had been put up to defeat Squier by a cer-tain faction in the party. When the nominations were called for, however, tist church. James Rooney, delegate from Brain-trim, announced that Mr. Knapp refused the use of his name as a candidate, and there being but the one nomination. Squier was nominated For associate judge unanimously. there was a close fight on between D. W. Herman, of Eaton township, and Harvey Sickler, of this borough, and the roll of delegates being called, the vote was announced as 26 for Sickler core of 8-10. A. W. Lyons and family and N. and 24 for Herman, resulting in the Sussman and family enjoyed a car-riage ride to Tunkhannock today, and nomination of Sickler. The nomina-tion was afterwards made unanimous. For jury commissioner there were several nominations, and Delegate Hope, of North Branch, was nominated on the first ballot. On motion of James W. Platt, the convention then ad-journed. Among the prominent Democrats present, either as delegates or spectators, were ex-Sheriffs Albert Depue, of Overfield; Oliver Easton, of Mehoopany, and C. S. Knapp, of Baintrim; C. L. Parker and M. D. Kelley, of Nicholson borough, and H. C. Stark and J. W. Stark, of Nicholson township; T. R. Stark, of Falls, and Harry Sherwood, of Meshoppen. C. A. Sisk, of Factoryville, was in wn Monday and took a look at
