B. Y. P. U. Annual Meeting.
Today the annual outing of the Baptist Young People's union of Northeastern Pennsylvania will be held at Harvey's lake and from present indications one of the largest gatherings of the season will be the result.

The members of the various societies in the Baptist churches between Carbondale and Nanticoke have been diligently preparing for the excursion and upwards of three thousand young people are expected on the grounds.

The special train will leave the Lackawanna railroad station at 8 o'clock and will run direct to the lake without change. All who have not already secured their tickets can purchase them from members of the committee at the station and on the train.

New Draperies and Curtains for 1900-01

The real Twentieth Century Draperies, Upholsterings, Lace Curtains, etc., are now ready for your inspection. Lines are nearly all complete for the approaching fall and winter seasons, while the few gaps that remain are being filled up as rapidly as we can take delivery of the new creations from the manufacturers at home and abroad.

Quality, Novelty and Elegance

Combine in making these latest products of the textile arts a more than ordinarily interesting exhibit of the beautiful, and as the variety in all cases is based on the usual broad gauged Globe Warehouse plan it simply means that there is no similar collection in or near Scranton that offers the same attractions and inducements to intending buyers.

A Dress Rehearsal.

Upholstery Fabrics
Include Velours, Cotton Tapestries, Cotton Damasks, Derby Damasks, Brocades, Brocailles, Silk Warps and a new line of Roman Stripes in lovely novelty weaves.

Tapestry Curtains
A charming assortment in all the new shades and color combinations. Some have fringes, others heavy cordings—all are beautiful and highly artistic.

Couch Covers
In Bagdads, Roman Stripes and New Oriental Effects. Many striking innovations make these especially worthy of attention.

A Full Line of Upholstery and Drapery Furnishings.

NORTH SCRANTON.

Elizabeth, the little four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Rhine, of Jones street, had an exceedingly narrow escape from death yesterday afternoon shortly after 5 o'clock. The child was crossing North Main avenue, near Jones street, and ran directly in front of an inward bound Providence car, which was coming up the street at a fast rate of speed. The motorman put his brake on instantly, but not in time to prevent the fender from striking the child and knocking her down. She was quickly picked up by bystanders, and was found to be uninjured, save for a few slight bruises.

Miss Katherine McDonnell, Miss Katherine McDonnell and Miss McDonnell were assigned before Alderman Balby Saturday night, on the charge of being common scolds and common nuisances in the community of the Thirtieth ward, where they reside.

Russian Minister's Dispatch.
St. Petersburg, Aug. 13.—M. De Giers, Russian minister in Pekin, reports in cipher, under date of Aug. 4, as follows:

"The Chinese government recently applied to us and to all the foreign representatives in order to arrange the date and conditions of our journey to Tien Tsin. At the same time the Chinese government informed us that the foreign governments had not once demanded from the Chinese government our departure from Pekin under escort."

"We replied that we required instructions from our governments, without which we could not leave our posts."

"I consider it my duty to point out, as indefeasible to our journey, that the allied troops sent as an escort should be of sufficient force to protect 800 Europeans, including 200 women and children and fifty wounded. It appears that the journey to Tien Tsin at the present season of the year is dangerous on account of the lack of means of communication."

"All my colleagues here are sending similar telegrams to their governments. Please inform."

"The committee of the imperial mission and the Russian colony are well."

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Francis C. Kleinschmidt, one of the oldest settlers of this county, died at her home, 315 Back street, Sunday morning at 7 o'clock, at the ripe age of 84 years. She was the widow of the late George Kleinschmidt, who was head mechanic of the Lackawanna Iron and Steel company in the '70s. Mrs. Kleinschmidt was born in Scotland, Germany, and came to this country fifty-four years ago, settling in Scranton, and has lived here ever since. Her maiden name was Francis Bunde. She is survived by four daughters, one son and twelve grand-children. The funeral will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at her home, and interment will be at Pittston cemetery. Mrs. Kleinschmidt was quite widely known.

GATHERED SOUTH SCRANTON

BOX CAR BLOCKED CEDAR AVENUE LAST NIGHT.

Was Pushed Off the Lackawanna Tracks by a Switch Engine and Caused a Deal of Discomfiture Until Removed—Funeral of Bernard Welle Conducted Yesterday Morning from St. Mary's Church—Patrick Reilly Charged with Assault and Battery—Hartman Injured.

Last evening about 6.30 o'clock a switch engine shifting cars in the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western yards pushed a large box car off the track, across the sidewalk and about three-quarters across Cedar avenue, blocking the street and sidewalk.

About this time many men and women and teams were returning home after their day's work, and in a few minutes there was a large crowd gathered, offering suggestions and gazing the trainmen, much to their discomfiture.

One burly driver of a brewery wagon said: "Aw, take 'im off of 'I'll have 'im fetched for blocking the way."

Another suggested: "Push it clear across, mister, into the bearing brook, and lose it." The driver of a laundry wagon, evidently thinking of a cold supper, attempted to drive around, and in doing so very nearly "wrecked" the old economy, anyway! Next they'll want to be running on Lackawanna avenue," said he.

The only man who wasn't "phased" so to speak, was the 'night watchman, who said: "Well, if you don't like him, kick him over and take him away." After ten minutes of waiting and with the aid of a long chain, the recent car was hauled back to its moorings again.

FUNERAL OF BERNARD WELLE.

The funeral of Bernard Welle, who died Friday from sunstroke, was held yesterday morning at 9 o'clock from St. Mary's church on Grove street, and was largely attended. St. Joseph's society, of which he was a member, attended in a body, as did the Stone Mason's union, to which organization Mr. Welle also belonged.

Rev. Father Scroyen celebrated a high mass, after which Rev. Father Christ delivered the funeral service. After the funeral services, the cortege moved to St. Mary's cemetery, where interment was made. The pall bearers were Philip Scanton, Nicholas Loch, John Theobald and Charles Macker. Undertaker Klein was in charge of the funeral.

BRIEF NEWS NOTES.

John Cadden, of Pear street, had a warrant sworn out on Saturday for the arrest of Patrick Reilly, of Cedar avenue, charging him with assault and battery on three threats. He claimed that Reilly threatened to kill him with an iron bar. The defendant waived a hearing and was placed under $500 bail for his appearance at court.

Edward Hartman, of Pittston avenue, a young man employed at Spruks Bros.' lumber yard, on Ashler street, was painfully injured about his right ankle on Saturday while fixing a lumber binder. The heavy oak bar which he bound together with wire, swinging around and struck him on the ankle, badly lacerating that member.

On Wednesday evening, Bauer's Thirteenth Regiment band will give an open air concert at the William Connell Brass company's quarters on Pittston avenue.

John McHugh Jr., the 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John McHugh, of Louest street, was rainfully injured Saturday afternoon by falling off a heap of lumber in the rear of Contractor Boland's residence, corner of Pittston avenue and Locust street. Dr. J. J. Walsh is attending the unfortunate lad.

Troublesome to the Army.

During the civil war, as well as in our late war with Spain, diarrhoea was one of the most troublesome diseases the army had to contend with. In many instances it became chronic and the old soldiers still suffer from it.

Mr. David Taylor, of Wind Ridge, Greene county, Pa., is one of these. He uses Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and says he never found anything that would give
