One Is to Be Installed at the Post-office.

The postoffice authorities have notified Postmaster Ripple that the local office is to be equipped in the near future with a new and improved electric canceling machine.

The machine now in use, though a marvelous piece of mechanism, is too small for this office, which has outgrown it, on account of the wonderful increase in postoffice business within the past year or so. The new machine is expected every day.

REUNION OF ODD FELLOWS.

Had an Enjoyable Day's Outing at Lake Ariel.

The Odd Fellows of Lackawanna county held their first reunion at Lake Ariel yesterday. It attracted about 2,000 persons to the resort and was far more successful than its promoters had hoped it would be. The reunion was in charge of a committee of forty representing the twenty-eight Odd Fellows lodges of the county, and two R. O. T. clubs. The latter is the woman's branch of the order.

John H. Kelly was chairman of the general committee; Miss Von Storch, secretary, and E. T. Davis, treasurer. All of these officers reside in Scranton.

Mr. Kelly said yesterday that he was greatly gratified over the large number who were present at the reunion and the general success that had attended it. After yesterday, he said, there was no doubt but that a reunion will be held annually by the Odd Fellows of Lackawanna county.

"It increases the fraternal spirit," said Mr. Kelly, "and brings the members of the order closer together, besides giving Odd Fellow and their families a delightful day's outing, with congenial associates."

During the day there were games of all kinds and all of the contests were watched with keen interest. One of the interesting events of the day was a nail driving contest for women. There were ten entries, each of whom drove ten nails into a plank. The judges, O. L. Colvin, W. H. Trevorton and John Francis, all of Scranton, decided that Mrs. Isaac Williams, of Scranton, drove the ten nails allotted to her in the shortest space of time and also in the most workmanlike manner. She was awarded the prize, a handsome gold badge.

The Lawrence band accompanied the excursionists and gave a concert, and also furnished music for dancing. The enjoyment of the day was unmarred by an unpleasant incident or by accident.

LUZERNE MINE INSPECTORS.

Re-appointment of Williams and McDonald Recommended.

The board which recently examined applicants for the position of mine-inspectors in the Wilkes-Barre and Pittston districts, met yesterday in the office of Lehigh Valley Superintendent W. A. Lathrop and finished looking over the papers and announced the result.

The board recommended the re-appointment of W. Williams and Hugh McDonald for the Pittston district. They have held the offices for a number of years, and are among the best vested mining men in the entire anthracite region.

The examining board consisted of W. A. Lathrop and Edward H. Williams, of Wilkes-Barre; A. W. Lelensing, of Upper Lehigh; John Gilhooley, of Avoca, and George Meneley, of Sandy Run. There were six applicants, and the condition of appointment was that the successful applicant must answer at least 90 per cent. of the questions. The examination was held July 25 and 26. The appointment is for five years—Wilkes-Barre Record.

GRAND COUNCIL OF Y. M. I.

Delegates from This Region Who Will Go to Pittsburgh.

The delegates from the several councils of the Young Men's Institute in this city and vicinity to the biennial grand council to be held in Pittsburgh on August 21, 22 and 23, have all been elected, and are as follows: John Boyle O'Reilly, council, M. A. McGinley; St. Brendan council, Patrick F. Duffy, Jr.; Phil Sheridan council, James H. Boye; St. Marquette council, James Lyford; Columbian council, Timothy Sullivan; Dunmore council, James Cullen; Daniel O'Connell council, Minooka, James Powell; Carbondale council, P. J. Collins; Jessup council, J. P. Donnelly.

Mr. J. B. McGibbons, of St. Brendan's council, West Scranton, is grand treasurer, and will be a candidate for re-election to that office. There is every probability that he will be re-elected without difficulty.

WANT MONROE WATER.

Another Scranton Company to Operate on the Pocono.

"An organization to be known as the Tunkhannock Water Supply company will apply for a charter to do business in Monroe county. The stockholders are Clarence Hallentine, Frank James, John E. Cummings, J. M. Walker and Louis Conrad.

"The above stockholders are all residents of Scranton. Like other progressive men of the city they see that there is something in water as a commodity, and they regard Monroe county as a fertile field for their operation. They want, of course, to be in on the ground floor when some big scheme comes along that has in view the tapping of all the lakes and water supplies of that section of the state into one big operation."—Stroudsburg Times.

FIRST DISTRICT DEMOCRATS.

Will Hold Their Convention in Golden's Hall This Afternoon.

The Democrats of the First Legislative district will hold their convention in Golden's hall, Bellevue, at 3 o'clock this afternoon, when a candidate for the legislature will be nominated to oppose T. Jefferson Reynolds.

The convention has been called by ex-School Controller John M. Casey, who is the permanent chairman of the district committee. Delegates have been named in the majority of districts and a large representation is expected.

M. J. McAndrew, G. R. Fitcher and T. J. Duffy, who have been mentioned for the nomination, have not made any effort to secure the honor, and in all probability it will go to T. D. Hayes, of North Scranton, by acclamation.

THEY COULDN'T AGREE.

Mr. Porter and Miss Wilson Before Alderman Howe.

Miss Helen Wilson, of the central city, was yesterday arraigned before Alderman Howe, charged with creating a disturbance in the saloon of Samuel J. Porter, in Center street.

Miss Wilson and Mr. Porter, it seems, were formerly good friends, very good friends, but recently they were suddenly snapped.

Since then, Porter claims that Miss Wilson has made herself generally obnoxious around his place, and yesterday created a disturbance, by abusing him vigorously.

Miss Wilson claims that Mr. Porter sent a disrespectful placard, and the case was finally settled amicably.

OFFICIALS BOUGHT CONDEMNED HORSES

AN INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE THAT INVESTIGATED.

Selectman Vaughan, Chairman of the Special Committee Appointed to Find Out What Became of the Six Missing Fire Department Horses, Tells All About It in a Sensational Report, Accompanied by an Equally Spicy Verbal Statement. A Removal is Recommended.

Daniel W. Vaughan, select councillor from the Nineteenth ward and the chairman of the special committee appointed to investigate the circumstances attending the sale of six of the eleven horses recently put out of service in the fire department, announced two weeks ago that when the committee reported it would have some sensations to spring. He said that a few of these sensations were sprung at last night's meeting of select council.

The first one came when the following report of the committee, recommending among other things the removal of veterinarian Sitterly, was read:

To the Select Council:

Gentlemen: Your special committee, appointed to ascertain what disposition was made of the six department horses, respectfully beg leave to report that councils have not authorized the sale or disposal of the horses in question.

We have ascertained that the ex-chief of the fire department, the veterinary surgeon and the chairman of the department committee, had the common council have assumed authority and illegally sold six of the eleven horses.

We therefore recommend that the city solicitor immediately proceed to recover said horses, and that the committee be continued to act in conjunction with the city solicitor in the said proceedings.

We further recommend that the mayor cause the immediate removal or discharge of Dr. C. M. Sitterly as veterinary surgeon.

When this report had been read, Mr. Oliver was the first to break the silence which reigned for several moments. He said:

MR. OLIVER DEFENDS.

"I notice that the ex-chief of the fire department is included in this report. I am satisfied that any dealing he had in this matter was an honorable one, and I am not willing to allow this report to be adopted without defending him." Mr. Oliver then started in at the beginning to trace the whole history of the case, but was interrupted by Mr. Vaughan, who said:

"If the gentleman from the Fifteenth wants proof, we can give him all he wants. All we want is to get those six horses back, and when we do that we'll call the thing square. The ex-chief of the fire department sold the two old Franklin horses for $100 and turned the money over to Frank Cobb, the horse dealer, to be credited to the city. That's what Mr. Cobb says, and I'm inclined to believe him."

Mr. Oliver denied this straight up, and insisted that ex-Chief Walker did not make the sale. Mr. Finn was the next speaker, and said:

"For the benefit of Mr. Vaughan, I would say that Mr. Walker did not sell any horses himself. The money sold, as they have been sold for years, by the purchasing committee of the fire department."

Mr. Vaughan was beginning to get excited now, and when Mr. Finn had finished, he said:

WHAT MR. COBB SAYS.

"There's no evidence in the city treasurer's office to show that any horses were sold, Cobb says he doesn't know the man that bought the two Franklin horses. All he knows is that Walker came to him and handed him $100, saying that he sold them. He sold three horses, one to Wade Finn for $50, one to himself for $25 and one to Dave Nichols for $25. Sitterly came to him another day, he says, and gave him $60, saying that he had bought one of the Eagle horses himself for that amount."

"What did Sitterly do then? After selling to himself one of the horses that he himself had condemned, for $50, he went down to the Eagle horse house the next day and bragged about the bargain he had struck, saying that the horse was easily worth $125. The gentlemen will remember that when the veterinarian sent in his communication, recommending the purchase of the new horses, he said that some of the horses in the department were twenty-five years old."

"Were any of these six horses sold the twenty-five year old animals? No, they weren't. The twenty-five year old horses were still in the department, drawing the General Phinney engine and they're doing excellent work. These people didn't sell themselves any twenty-five year old horses, though, you can bet. I want to say that the purchase of these new horses was forced on us so that some people could have an easy thing of it."

When Mr. Vaughan had finished, Mr. Finn said:

MR. FINN'S REMARKS.

"I got one of those horses, but I want to tell the gentlemen from the Nineteenth that if he ever gets it back it will be at the tail end of a lawsuit."

"Well get it back all right, don't you worry," replied Mr. Vaughan.

Mr. McCann remarked that as a member of the fire department committee, he knew nothing about either

LONG WAS SEEN AT STROUDSBURG

Slayer of the Dunmore Police Officer Supposed to Be in Hiding in Monroe County.

Tony Long, the slayer of Patrolman James Golden, of the Dunmore police force, is still at liberty, and is now being hunted in hiding near Stroudsburg. One of the brakemen on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad, while sitting in a Stroudsburg hotel, Wednesday afternoon, saw an Italian in the place, whose build and manner were exactly the same as the man described in the description of Long, which he had read in Wednesday's Tribune.

He scrutinized the man closely, and saw that he was of heavy build, had a black moustache, wore a black suit and a top hat, and on his one cheek there was a livid blue mark, a bruise such as would be caused by a blow from a club.

The brakeman strolled quietly over to the hotel clerk and told him of his suspicions, and advised that the suspect be arrested. He was told that the man had spoken for a room for the night, and the clerk suggested that once he retired, a constable be summoned.

Shortly after this, Long, for there seems little doubt that it was he, left the room, and a Stroudsburg officer was called in. On his arrival, however, the man had disappeared, and a search failed to reveal any trace of him.

The Scranton authorities were notified of the occurrence, and Patrolman Keys, of Dunmore, went to Stroudsburg Wednesday night. He found that a man answering the description of Long was seen lurking around the railway station for about four hours, but had not taken any car from Stroudsburg.

Keys has no doubt that the man seen at Stroudsburg was Long, as the description tallies exactly with that of Golden's slayer. He feels considerably chagrined that while the man was in the very hands of the Stroudsburg police that he should have escaped them.

There is a large Italian settlement near Stroudsburg, and Keys has expressed his opinion that Long is in hiding there.

Acting Coroner Palme yesterday morning Wednesday arranged for the body of Patrolman Golden at the Lackawanna hospital. He removed the bullet, which lodged in the abdomen, and will hold an inquest in the case. The remains were removed to Golden's undertaking establishment in Dunmore.

NEW CAMP INSTITUTED.

Branch of P. O. S. of A. in Old Forge Borough.

The Patriotic Order Sons of America gained a large number of new members last night, when a new camp was instituted at Old Forge. Efforts have been made for some time to establish a camp in the borough, and last night the results were seen in the interest and earnestness displayed by the new members.

District President Frank Hazzard was in charge of the ceremony, and made a splendid speech. Other interesting addresses were made by prominent members of the order.

HE FORFEITED THE FIFTY.

Alleged Speakeasy Keeper Failed to Appear for a Hearing.

Thomas Carroll, of Luzerne street, who was arrested Wednesday on a warrant issued by Mayor Moir, charging him with keeping a speakeasy, forfeited a $50 deposit yesterday, in the absence of Mayor Moir, Carroll was on Wednesday arrested before Alderman Kasson and left $50 as a guarantee that he would appear at a hearing at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. He did not appear, and thereby sacrifices the forfeit.

HAMILTON TO LEAVE WITH SALISBURY

LACKAWANNA TRAINMASTER HANDS IN HIS RESIGNATION.

It Was Unlooked for by Superintendent Russell and His Successor—Chief Dispatcher Rine Talked of for the Place—R. M. Sproule Named to Succeed Chief Car Accountant Lowe—Mr. Salisbury May Go to the Jersey Central.

With the advent of T. E. Clarke as division superintendent of the Lackawanna railroad yesterday came the resignation of Trainmaster F. P. Hamilton, which was voluntarily handed in to Superintendent Clarke shortly after the new official assumed his duties.

Mr. Hamilton contemplated resigning several days ago, and when The Tribune announced Superintendent Salisbury's retirement he forthwith tendered his resignation, to take effect immediately.

It was well known among railroad men that Trainmaster Hamilton was Superintendent Salisbury's right bower and this, in a measure, accounts for his retirement within twenty-four hours of each other. Mr. Hamilton acknowledged the fact that he had resigned when asked by a Tribune man, but would not give any reasons.

"Will you remain until your successor has been named?" he was asked. The reply was in the affirmative, but in all probability that will be a day or two, as it is rumored that Edward M. Rine, chief train dispatcher, will succeed him.

The resignation of Mr. Hamilton was also confirmed by Superintendent Clarke, but no action was taken yesterday, owing to the absence of General Superintendent Russell, who was in New York conferring with President Truesdale.

LONG WAS SEEN AT STROUDSBURG

Slayer of the Dunmore Police Officer Supposed to Be in Hiding in Monroe County.

BEEN HERE A YEAR.

Mr. Hamilton came to the Lackawanna railroad about a year ago from the New York, Susquehanna and Western railroad, where he was trainmaster under E. E. Loomis, who is in general supervisory charge of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western coal department. He succeeded George M. Hallstead, son of ex-General Manager William F. Hallstead, who retired shortly after the advent of President Truesdale.

Another important change was made in the car record department yesterday, when Robert L. Sproule, distributing clerk in the transportation department, was appointed by Superintendent Daly to the vacant position caused by the resignation of Chief Car Accountant G. M. Lowe, who recently retired from the company's service.

Mr. Sproule has been a clerk in Superintendent Daly's office for over a year. He came here from the Illinois Central and is a young man who gives much promise of becoming a prominent factor in railroad circles. He succeeded H. A. Seaborn as chief clerk of the car record department, the latter having been temporarily in charge of affairs at the Lackawanna avenue office since the retirement of Mr. Lowe.

Division Superintendent Clarke assumed charge of the office vacated by Mr. Salisbury yesterday, and after acquainting himself with the clerical force and some of the details, went over the Southern division with Messrs. Daly, Salisbury and Hamilton on a tour of inspection. The party returned on the Daily at 3:20 o'clock.

Shortly afterwards Mr. Clarke granted an interview with a Tribune man. He stated that as yet he was not very familiar with the duties of his new position, but hoped to merit the respect and confidence of the Lackawanna employees. George L. Stoddard, who has been chief clerk to Superintendent Salisbury, together with the other clerks, has been retained.

Mr. Salisbury is still in the city and will remain here a few days. He intends taking a rest after twenty-nine years of active service. As yet he is undecided as to what the future has in store for him, but, with all his experience, there is little doubt but that he will again take up railroad work.

There is a possibility of Mr. Salisbury succeeding C. A. Beach, who, it is rumored, has resigned as superintendent of terminals at Jersey City for the Central Railroad of New Jersey to become superintendent of the Philadelphia and Reading railroad. Mr. Beach will succeed George D. Whitcomb.

There is no truth in the rumor that Superintendent Schwarz, of the Syracuse division, will resign. Superintendent Daly says, and for the present no other changes are contemplated among the employes of the company.

FLYNN WILL ALSO RUN.

Archbald Man Declares Against Slate-Makers.

John E. Flynn, of Archbald, one of the defeated Democratic candidates for jury commissioner, announces his intention to run as an independent.

After stating that he is prompted in this move by the belief that "delegates to a Democratic convention should have a voice in the naming of the party ticket, he proceeds to say: "I was a candidate for that office at the Democratic county convention in 1897 and also at the convention in Scranton last Tuesday. I am convinced that on each occasion I was fraudulently deprived of the office. Money and other influences were used against me, with the result that men were nominated who were favorable to the corrupt schemes of the party managers, and it has been impossible for a poor man or a man of moderate means to get fair treatment. I believe a majority of the people of this county are not in favor of such methods, and after some deliberation, I have concluded to come before the people at the November election."

Mr. Sturges is still at the seashore.
