We pledge our earnest and undivided support o the nominee of this convention and ask all itizens, both Democratic and Republican, to samine his record and investigate the principles advocated by him. We ask all workingmen, par-ficularly, regardless of politics, to use common sense and to vote for the man who will represent them faithfully and well. Justice to labor is a question above politics and the man who best represents this principle is the one who should receive the politic amount of all workingmen. receive the united support of all workingmen.
We sincerely deplore the wretched condition of the workingmen of this state and we ask the candidate nominated by us today to do all in his power to accomplish such legislation as will bring relief and improve the condition of the working people in general. Such legislation as will give justice to labor and justice to capital, and only justice.

We pledge our support to the splendid ticket nominated at the recent Democratic county convention. Believing, as we do, in the right of tion the authority of the chairman men should have a share in the government of these United States, we heartily and unanimous ly oppose the trusts which now govern the gov oriment: the dectains of militarism which is only a blind to give the plutocrats of this country a powerful standing srmy to menace workingmen and every fraud and sharie that are the accompaniments of Mark Hanna's reign. And, that we may give force and effect to these, our beliefs, we plodge our united, loyal, enthusi-astic support to that great champion of an awakened Democracy, William Jennings Beyan.

Mr. Beamish placed in pomination the name of Timothy D. Hayes, of North Scranton, the unopposed candldate for the legislature. In nominating him he said: "I present a candidate who will best represent the plain people of this district. One who knows that it is to go down into the mines and labor for his daily bread. He is not wealthy, but possesses intelligence, which will enable him to legislate for his constituents. "A man who has felt the hand of oppression and was personally a victim of oppression resulting from strike. He has made a study of the state laws and is a worthy representative of the ranks of honest labor; a man who will worthfly represent both labor and Democracy.' The nomination was seconded by Frank J. Johnson, who said the First legislative district was the Gibralter of Republicanism in Lackawanna county, made so by the treachery of Democracy, but he hoped that Democracy will rally around their candidate and that no Benedict Arnold will be found in the camp. He spoke of Mr. Hayes as the standard bearer of the working people in the district, and derided the policy of the Republican administra-
