SOLDIERS' ORPHANS' PICNIC.

They Were Elaborately Entertained at Nay Aug Park.

At one point on the Nay Aug park grounds yesterday there was a most enjoyable time, and that was at the picnic, next the band stand, in the pines, where the patriotic ladies of the G. A. R. circle, 15, and Women's Veteran Relief union were entertaining the girls and boys now home on vacation from the Soldiers' Orphan school at Harford.

How it ever occurred to these ladies to do such a nice thing no one knows but that it did occur to them was in evidence yesterday. The tables were loaded with the choicest of cakes and all the delicacies of the season, beside the substantial pork and beans and cranberry coffee, which are inseparable from a Grand Army banquet. The boys and girls gave evidence that they had inherited the appetites of their brave fathers and they did full justice to everything in sight.

There were a number of guests who had not been invited, and whose room would have been better than their company, but they insisted on staying and sooner than have any row they were allowed to remain. They were particularly partial to the cake and hit on all in sight. They were all dressed in yellow striped shirt waists with trousers of same material and color. The park commissioners should look after them as their attentions are somewhat painful at times.

The day was all that could be desired and altogether it was as successful an outing as could well be imagined. There were present of the Soldiers' Orphan school children: John Heddon, John Davis, Timothy Cousins, Dalton W. Bryant, Wilbur Heddon, Edward Armstrong, Robert Armstrong, Charles Disbler, William McKivitt, Benjamin Armstrong, Gordon and Arthur Lewis, Burt Deeds, Josephine Eggins, Annie Disbler, and others whose names could not be obtained as they were never still long enough at a time to get them. The whole affair was under the direction of Mrs. E. A. Scull, state librarian of the Ladies of the G. A. R. Society of the Department of Pennsylvania. Long life to her and to her worthy assistants who never tire in their devotion to the old soldiers and their children.

DEATHS LAID AT DOOR OF DOWIEISM

THREE ARRESTS MADE IN THE NEWELL CASE.

At the Instance of the Dead Woman's Father, Warrants Are Sworn Out by Coroner Roberts, Charging Involuntary Manslaughter Against Rev. C. F. Newell, Mrs. Clara S. Boyd and Mrs. Louis Ellhardt, the Trio Held Blamable by the Coroner's Jury.

Charles F. Newell, of Throop; Mrs. Clara S. Boyd, of 1422 Penn avenue, and Mrs. Louis Ellhardt, of 140 Jefferson avenue, were yesterday held in $300 bail each by Alderman Kasson, on the charge of being responsible for the death of Mrs. Lydia F. Newell, of Throop.

As will be remembered, Mrs. Newell was a follower of John Alexander Dowie, the exponent of a new faith, which does away with assistance of physicians in time of sickness, and relies upon the medicine which heals all complaints. In March, Mrs. Newell gave birth to a child. There was no physician in attendance and shortly afterwards she died.

Coroner J. J. Roberts swore out the warrants for the arrest of the defendants, but Abraham Hanawalt, of Monticello, Ind., the father of Mrs. Newell, interposed through his attorney, D. B. Replegle, is back of the prosecution. The information lodged yesterday reads as follows:

"That Clara S. Boyd, of Scranton; Charles F. Newell, of Throop, and Mrs. Louis Ellhardt, of Jefferson avenue, did by carelessness and negligence cause the death of Lydia F. Newell, your dependent further saith that the said Charles F. Newell, Clara S. Boyd and Mrs. Louis Ellhardt, by carelessness and negligence, unlawfully killed and slayed Lydia F. Newell, contrary to the act of assembly, approved the 28th day of April, 1871."

A warrant was also issued for Mrs. Boyd's arrest, charging her with entering into the practice of medicine and surgery without complying with the act of assembly, and exhibiting to the prothonotary of Lackawanna county a physician's license, duly granted her.

VEHICLE WAS OVERTURNED.

John Keefe and George Touro Thrown from Dairy Wagon.

John Keefe, of Pine street, driver in the employ of the Lackawanna Dairy company, and his friend, George Touro, of Philadelphia, were thrown from one of the company's delivery wagons yesterday afternoon and both received injuries.

Keefe was badly bruised throughout his entire body, and had his face badly cut, while one of Touro's ears was torn from his head, it being necessary to take five stitches to sew up the lesion.

The accident happened on Pittston avenue, South Scranton, about 4 o'clock. The men were driving down the street when the horse stumbled in a hole in the road, and the wagon upset.

The upper part of the wagon was badly damaged. The horse escaped injury.

A PUGNACIOUS CRIPPLE.

He Gave Patrolman Peters and Lieutenant Williams a Hard Tussle.

A cripple who was making himself generally troublesome was arrested last night on West Lackawanna avenue and taken to the central police station. He accosted several persons for alms, and on being refused, grew very abusive. Patrolman Peters ordered him to move on, but he remained where he was, and Peters and Lieutenant Williams then arrested him. He resisted stubbornly, struck at the two officers furiously with his crutch, and threatened to shoot them when he got out of his crutch.

The patrol wagon was then summoned and Acting Sergeant Conroy and Patrolman Watkins responded with it. The cripple was taken to the central station.

THIRD ANNUAL REUNION.

Members of Stephens Family Will Meet Today.

The Stephens family will hold its third annual reunion to-day at the home of A. B. Stephens, near Nicholson, Pa. The progenitor of the Pennsylvania branch of the Stephens family was one of the original Connecticut settlers who receded northeastern Pennsylvania from the wilderness over a century ago, and to-day the descendants, to the number of two hundred, are scattered throughout Luzerne, Lackawanna, Wyoming and Susquehanna counties.

Those from this city who will be in attendance are Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Stephens and daughter, Miss Madge; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Derby, Mr. and Mrs. D. Y. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Derby.

REDEMERSKI WAS COMMITTED.

Man Who Interfered with Carrier Prosser Is in Jail.

Jacob Redmerski, who was arrested a week ago for interfering with Letter Carrier William B. Prosser, while the latter was delivering mail, was given a hearing yesterday afternoon before United States Commissioner George D. Taylor.

Only two witnesses were examined, Charles E. Carroll and William Schmidt both of whom saw the alleged interference. The commissioner considered the evidence as being sufficiently strong to warrant his holding Redmerski in $300 bail for his appearance at the United States court in Williamsport next month.

He was unable to furnish the required amount and is now in the county jail.

A NARROW ESCAPE.

Patrolmen Rescue Drunken Man from Wheels of D. L. & W. Cars.

Patrolmen Rodham and Quinnan, while walking down Railroad avenue, about 1 o'clock this morning, found the prostrate body of a man near a Delaware, Lackawanna and Western switch, at which a car was being backed. They removed the man from his dangerous position, being just in the nick of time, as it is probable that in another moment his life would have been ground out. The man, who is about 25 years of age, was helpless drunk and was taken to the Center street station by the patrolmen.

SICK BENEFITS CUT OFF.

Firemen's Relief Association Will Give Aid Only in Case of Accidents—Trickery Alleged.

After a very animated discussion the members of the Firemen's Relief association last night amended the constitution and by-laws of that organization so as to prevent any firemen from drawing benefits in the future unless disabled by accident.

Heretofore claims have been passed and the amount paid over to not only firemen who suffered an accident at a fire, but also to a great many for sickness, which they claimed to have contracted while fighting fires.

Many of the members of the association have been complaining for many instances they have been imposed upon by firemen claiming benefits for sickness, contracted at fires, and the amendments adopted last night were accordingly presented at the last meeting.

The only member who opposed the amendments last night was Select Councilman J. J. Costello, who is the delegate from the Cumberland Hose company. He admitted that there might have been instances in which the association had been duped by men stricken down with sickness and afterwards claiming that it was contracted at a fire, but he said that there were also many instances in which men did really contract pneumonia, bronchitis and other ailments while working at fires, in the winter, and he thought that the association should make an effort to draw the line between the worthy and unworthy cases, rather than cutting off all sickness cases.

A. B. Holmes, of the Columbus, was the main champion of the amendments. He admitted the truth of Mr. Costello's contention about there being some worthy cases where sickness was really contracted at a fire and said the association had been trying for years to find some way of drawing the line but could not.

"When a man is injured we know that there can be no trickery," said Mr. Holmes, "and as it has been admitted that there has been a deal of trickery in the working of this sickness clause, I'm in favor of striking it out. This action may bear heavily on a few but there's no law that doesn't oppress somebody."

The amendments were finally adopted, Mr. Costello being the only member to vote against them.

An unusually large number of claims, aggregating altogether $161, were ordered paid. They were as follows: William H. Lewis, of General Plimner; $40; L. C. Parry, of Columbus; $10; W. W. Walsh, of Columbus; $14; John Gillen, of Crystals; $10; Frank Scholl, of Crystals; $20; Charles Schneider, of Neptunes; $26; John Reuther, of Neptunes; $12; James Hopkins, of Cumberland; $24.

JAYNE HAD HIS OWN TROUBLES.

Conductor on Providence Line Attacked by Passenger.

Conductor Jayne, of the Scranton railway, had his own troubles last night. He was in the Providence road, and late last night one of the Italian passengers tried to flim-flam him out of the fare, saying that he had paid his five cents before he was transferred to Jayne's car. As it happened the car which the Italian had just left was one which only runs a short distance and on which no fares are collected.

Jayne put the Italian off the car, and he ran ahead and when Bull's Head was reached, flung a stone at the conductor. The car was stopped, and several of the Italian's co-patriots gathered on the spot, trouble seemed imminent for awhile. Police headquarters were notified and Acting Sergeant Conroy started for the scene of action.

When he arrived all was settled, however. The crowd had disbanded, and the belligerent son of Italy had been taken to his home by a special officer.

MERRY-GO-ROUND TO CLOSE ON SUNDAY

PROPRIETOR ROBINSON AGREES TO ABATE THE NUISANCE.

Mayor Is to Stop All Other Such Goings-on, Whether or Not They Have Been Complained of, in Consideration of Which Robinson's Contrivance Is to Close Down.

Compromise Was Effected After Five Prosecutions—Fines May Be Remitted.

J. L. Robinson, the proprietor of a merry-go-round in the vicinity of Nay Aug park, was arrested yesterday morning for the fifth time on the charge of maintaining a nuisance on Sundays.

Mr. Robinson was arrested for the fourth time last week upon the complaint of citizens residing in the neighborhood of the park, for running his "go" on Sunday, August 12. As Mayor Moir issued the warrant, and he was out of the city when Robinson was arrested, Alderman Kasson, who was acting in his stead, postponed the hearing until yesterday morning.

Now, Robinson, not at all abashed, ran his merry-go-round again last Sunday, whereupon the same property owners had another warrant sworn out on Monday for his arrest. He was arrested on this warrant just as he was entering the courtroom yesterday morning to answer to the fourth charge.

The only witnesses whose testimony was heard by the mayor in the fourth case were W. G. Conrad and Stephen Jones. Mr. Scragg, who represents Mr. Robinson, started in to be funny and asked Mr. Jones if it wasn't a fact that nothing but sacred selections were rendered by the hand organ.

Mr. Jones replied in the negative and furnished Mr. Scragg with a list of the "sacred" music which included "The Way Bred in Old Kentucky," "Darling Sue," and a few others of a like sort.

MAYOR WAS CONVINCED.

Attorney Hand wanted to swear some more witnesses for the prosecution, but the mayor wouldn't have it, saying he had more than sufficient testimony already.

Mr. Scragg then moved for Robinson's discharge, on the ground that the act of assembly, under which he was arrested, is not constitutional. The mayor announced that a higher court than he would have to decide that question and promptly fined the prisoner $10.

He was then arraigned on the fifth charge.

Mr. Scragg contended that Robinson was arrested while answering to another charge and that his arrest was therefore illegal. His Honor didn't look at it in that way, however, and took the evidence of the witnesses for the prosecution.

B. B. Hicks and Livy S. Richard maintained that Robinson's machine seriously annoyed them on Sunday. Mr. Scragg offered no defense and Robinson was accordingly fined a second $10.

It is believed, however, that a compromise will be effected, at least that is what Mayor Moir announced yesterday afternoon.

Robinson's contention all along has been that he would have closed his merry-go-round on Sundays if the proprietors of the one inside the park did likewise. He has insisted that he is the victim of a special persecution.

NOT COMPLAINED OF.

The truth of the matter is that though the merry-go-round inside the park has been running on Sundays, it doesn't seem to have annoyed any person, as no complaints about it were entered with the mayor, whereas in Robinson's case the complaints have been innumerable.

The mayor believes, however, that no merry-go-round should be allowed in question inside the city limits on Sunday, even though its proprietor did secure privileges from the park commissioners.

He has accordingly taken steps to have this one closed down on Sundays.
