CARBONDALE.

NEW LODGE INSTALLED

Thomas C. Hayes, of Brooklyn, N. Y., the deputy supreme chancellor of the Catholic Benevolent Legion, has instituted Carbondale council in this The following are the officers who were elected and installed: President. T. M. Nealon; vice president, P. L. Neary; secretary, P. F. Walsh; collector, T. L. Gilmartin; treasurer. Thomas Killeen; chancellor, R. H. Kerwin; orator, P. F. Moffitt; Marshal, M. II. Brown; guard, P. F. Brennan; medical examiner, Dr. J. A. Kelly: trustees, E. H. W. Burke, T. L. Neary and J. F. Burke.

Deputy Hayes was assisted by several of the comrades of Scranton council, No. 701, and after the installation exercises remark were made by the visitors and cigars and refreshments were enjoyed until the 10.51 train, when the Scranton delegation left for home. This council starts out with good prospects and it is expected to soon have a large member-ship, as it gives good protection at a very low cost, and is one of the best Cantolic fraternal societies in the United States. They will hold their first regular meeting at St. Rose hall on next Monday evening.

A PERSONAL MATTER

A sensational sheet in this city last evening published under display head-lines, "Notary Public in a Pickle." Beautiful journalism isn't it? trouble is "Normanton" is of a re-vengeful disposition and because of a recent "turn down" he seeks redress through the press. The offended partyles, N. J., and New Jersey, ty did make a mistake, and in due Mrs. Job Hawkins, of Carbondale, course of time it will be seen that was in town yesterday. the old adage holds good. ## JERMYN AND MAYFIELD

Funeral of Henry Maynes Yesterday Largely Attended - New, School Principal In Town-Personal News.

The funeral of the late Henry Mayne ook place yesterday afternoon and was largely attended. The presence of such a large number of people at the obsequies bore strong testimony of the high esteem in which the young nan was held in the community and of the sympathy felt for the bereaved wife and relatives. The Knights of Pythias, Knights of the Mystic Cham and Hogarth's band were present in a body, as well as representatives from the Citizens', Mozart's, of Carbondale, and Mayfield bands. Just before the remains were taken from the house the band played the well known hymn, "Nearer, My God, To Thee." Services were held in the Primitive Methodist church, but not one half of the mourners were able to get inside, the edifice being filled.

Rev. Thomas Cook, pastor of the church, officiated, and preached an impressive sermon, and at the conclusion of the service the remains were taken to the borough cemetery, the band playing a dirge on the way to the graveside. Among the floral gifts was a pillow from the band and a lyre. The pallbearers, who were chosen from the two societies, were: David Morgan, Will Roberts, Samuel Griffiths, John Davis, Thomas Pritchard and George Cobb. The flower bearers were George Beckwith and Willie Tompkins. It is expected that many of the citizens will go to Lake Chapman to-day to attend the Farmers annual pienic. Louis Sizer will run his 'bus there for the accommodation of those going.

THEATRICAL. "The Parish Priest."

"The Parish Priest" is a dramatic gem of the first water. Like the diamond, it sparkles, no matter which way you look at it. It pleases all those who care for comedy, with situations in plenty for others who delve deeper and care for the dramatic side of life. It teaches men and somen to be henorable and charitable with each other; in fact, produces a dramatic picture sel-dom equalled. Mr. Sully as Father Whelan presents a munly, unpretentious Irishman, with a simple sincerity that is effective and admirable. There is no straining for stage effects, but, instead, a quiet reserve force that never fails to bring him his re-ward. He is herole without bravado, honest with out saintism and the pure, artistic air of natural permeates his healthful play.

r. Sully's cast this year is unusually strong. Mr. Shily's carried support being the artists engaged for his support being modern Babcock, Agnes Rose Lane, Mildred Theodore Babcock, Agnes Bose Lane, Mildred Lawrence, Flora Fairchild, Joseph L.
