

NORTHEAST PENNSYLVANIA

HOPBOTTOM.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Hopbottom, Aug. 23.—Mrs. N. M. Flett was taken suddenly ill Sunday night, and she is in a very serious condition at present.

Mrs. I. W. Wright, who has been visiting here for a few weeks past, will return to her home near Chicago this week, leaving here Friday afternoon.

A picnic party was given by Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Brown, at Jeffers' cottage, on Thursday, in honor of Miss Dora Cruise, of New York.

Mrs. Jennie Dunbar is the guest of Mrs. Bell, at Nicholson.

Quite a serious mishap befell a balleted young man a few nights ago, which should be a warning to other young men to go home early.

The funeral of the late R. Charles Woodruff took place this afternoon from the family residence on Jackson street, Rev. Mr. Meekin, pastor of the Lanesboro Methodist church, officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Titsworth have returned from their vacation, spent at Montross and Heart Lake.

In Susquehanna, August 23, unless the authorities interfere, Tim Hurley, of Susquehanna, and Harry Fischer, of Brooklyn, N. Y., will indulge in a scrap.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Tiffany and Miss Ida Barber, of Scranton, visited at A. S. Walde's, Brooklyn, Pa., on Wednesday.

Mr. Jerome Hartley was in Montross Tuesday.

Mr. Tenant, former proprietor of the Tingling house, now of Clark's Summit, was in town this week.

SUSQUEHANNA COUNTY.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Susquehanna, Aug. 23.—The annual encampment of the Susquehanna County Veterans Organization commenced Wednesday in Riverside Park, Lanesboro.

Quite a number of veterans have already arrived. The weather permitting, there will be a big crowd today.

The funeral of the late R. Charles Woodruff took place this afternoon from the family residence on Jackson street, Rev. Mr. Meekin, pastor of the Lanesboro Methodist church, officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Titsworth have returned from their vacation, spent at Montross and Heart Lake.

Mr. Ralph Archibald, formerly principal of our school, and Mr. Anthony, the coming principal, were callers in town Tuesday.

Miss Edna Brown and Miss Mable Jeffers attended the picnic at Heart Lake Tuesday.

Mr. John Bishes played with the Glenwood band at the Heart Lake picnic.

A runaway occurred down Main street Monday evening between 9 and 10 o'clock, in which the seemingly impossible happened.

The water course underneath was being changed, thus leaving an open channel several feet deep, with dirt and rocks thrown up several feet, filling the remainder of the street between walks.

TUNKHANNOCK.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Tunkhannock, Aug. 23.—The second contingent of fresh air children arrived here on Wednesday afternoon and were taken care of by the same committee who had charge of the former lot.

The marriage of Miss Ruth Esser, daughter of Superintendent O. O. Esser, of the Lehigh Valley is announced.

Mrs. Esser is well known in town, having visited here for several summers. She will marry Rev. Charles J. Junkin, of Enclawood, N. Y.

J. Wood Platt is in attendance at the grand jury, the nights of Pythias at Harrisburg this week.

The Dimock camping is in progress this week and many Tunkhannock people are in attendance.

The Republican primaries will be held in this county on Saturday afternoon next.

The interest in the primaries centres around the fight for the nomination for representative for which H. D. Tiffany and Moses Shields of Nicholson and S. R. Brunkens, of this place, are asking.

TRIBUNE'S EDUCATIONAL CONTEST

A Number of Changes Took Place Yesterday.

HOW THE LEADERS STAND

- Charles Rodriguez, 428 Webster avenue.
David V. Britley, 103 West Market street.
Oliver Callahan, 415 Vine street.
David C. Spencer, Bloomsburg.
Eugene Boland, 235 Walnut street.
Arthur Kemmerer, Factoryville.
Miss Fannie E. Williams, Peckville.
Harry Reese, 331 Evans court.
Sidney W. Hayes, 922 Olive street.
Miss Grace Simrel, Carbondale.
Edward Murray, 516 Hamm court.
John P. Smith, 2532 Boulevard avenue.
Richard Roberts, 1303 Hampton street.
Robert Campbell, 1532 Monsey avenue.

Quite a little shifting about took place among the leaders in the Tribune's Educational Contest yesterday.

The first five leaders maintained their relative positions, although David Britley made returns of the largest number of points, consequently gaining on Rodriguez for first place.

There are quite a number of young persons who are watching this contest from outside the lines, and some of them must wish they had entered into the competition.
