SIX TRAMPS ARRESTED.

- Half a Dozen "Weary Willies" in the Police Station.

A gang of tramps was rounded up last night by Lieutenant of Police John Davis and a squad of officers and taken to the central station. About 7.30 o'clock last night a telephone message was received at police headquarters that six men, raggedly dressed and of suspicious appearance, were near the freight yard of the Jersey Central railroad.

Lieutenant Davis promptly responded to the call with five patrolmen, and, forming a cordon around them, informed the vagrants that they were under arrest. They took the news philosophically, and Lieutenant Davis and Patrolmen Quinnan, Connery, Thomas, Sartor and McColligan each took charge of one man and escorted him to the central station. The band of wanderers consisted of five whites and a negro. They offered no resistance and gave the police no trouble whatsoever. They will give an accounting of themselves to Mayor Moir this morning.

BOTH CAROUSELS CLOSED.

Merry-Go-Round Rides to Be Had Yesterday.

The peace of mind of those living around Nay Aug park was not dis-turbed yesterday by the strains of "'Deed I 'Ain' Seen No Messenger Boy," and such like floating westward on the breeze. For the first time in several months, the merry-go-round presided over by James L. Robinson, that much arrested man, was closed, and the poor little wooden negro who turns the hand organ was given a much-needed rest. Not only was Mr. Robinson's carousel closed, but, in line with Mayor Moir's recent determination, the one inside the park, run by Peter Stipp, was also shut down. The mayor has decided that though no complaints have been entered against Mr. Stipp's merry-go-round, it should be closed down as well as Robinson's, to avoid any charge of favoritism.

NEW VIADUCT ORDINANCE.

Measure Prepared and Will Be Introduced Thursday Night.

The new ordinance providing for the onstruction of a viaduct over the West Lackawanna avenue crossing of the Lackawanna railroad, as per the offer made by the Lackawanna and Scranton Railway companies to build the structure free of cost, has been drawn up by City Solicito, Vosburg and submitted to the officials of both companies for their consideration. The plans for the structure have been altered by the Lackawanna engineers to suit the wishes of City Engineer Phillips and have received his approval so that in all probability the new ordinance will be introduced in select council on Thursday night, now that all hindrances to its introduction have been removed.

RUSNOCK'S SCALDS RESULT IN DEATH

VICTIM OF AN ANGERED BOARD. ING MISTRUSS.

Marshwood Miner Who Was Douged with Beiling Water by His Sisterin-Law, Mrs. John Rusnock, Two Weeks Ago Last Friday, Expires at the Lackswanns Hospital from the Result of the Burns-Quarrel About His Board Bill Led to the Assault-No Arrest Yet.

Michael Rusnock, of Marshwood, a laborer employed by the Moosic Meunmin Coal company, Med yesterday morning at the Lackawanna hospital from scales inflieted the night of Friday, Aug. 17, by Mrs. John Rusnock, his sister-in-law and boarding mistross.

The two had a disagreement over Rusnock's board bill and it was terminted by Mrs. Rusnock seizing a caldron of boiling water and emptying the contents over her brother-in-law. She has not been arrested as yet.

Rusnock was not in the country very wood mine and proved himself an industrious, hard-working man. He lived with his brother, John Rusneck, and kls wife. Friday, Aug. 17, was pay day at the mine, and when Rusnock went home for the night his sister-in-law demanded money from him to pay for the month's board and lodging. The other lodgers in the house tell this functure. paying the bill on the ground that it was exorbitant, and that Mrs. Rusnock then flew into a passion and assaulted him with the kettle of bolking

Others claim that Ruenock on entering the house told his sister-in-law that he intended moving from the place at once and seeking offier lodgings. He then began to gather his property together, and, when presented with a bill, refused to pay it.

Another and the most generally diffused story is that the entire affair was the outcome of a drunken brawt. As a result of it being pay day the grog shops were well patronized by all the miners, and the boarding house was full of drunken men. Mrs. Rusnock approached her brother-in-law while he was in this condition and again brought up the subject of the bill, which had been discussed earlier in the day.

A warm asgument ensued between the two and, on Rusnock making a threatening gesture, the woman seized the kettle of boiling water and threw the contents over him.

He fell to the ground with a deep mander A. B. Stevens. Comrade Van of awful agony. This partially sobered the onlookers, who placed him upon his bed and tried their best to the county judge, sheriff and district sooth his pain.

The next day he was removed to the Lackawanna hospital, where it was seen from the very outset that his irjuries were of a very grave nature and that there was little chance of his recovery.

Rusnock was 35 years of age and unmarried. OPENING OF LYCEUM SEASOM.

the Discussion.

To the Editor of the Scranton Tribuna Dear Sir: Saturday's issue of The Tribune printed a statement from Mr. Williams, the gentheman who has begun a laudable crusade against the proprietors of summer resorts at which intoxicating liquors are sold without a license. Mr. Williams is credited with making the tighty erroneous assertion that we have no ounty liquor liceuse at Lake Lodore. This state ment is doubtless the result of a mbounderstanding of what Mr. Williams actually did say. Mr. Williams perhaps said that Lake Lodere the only resort in this region at which there varying stories of what occurred at both a county and a government Moense ! Some say that Rusnock objected to be right in saying so, and that Lake Lodore in saying the bill on the ground that it this respect stands in a category by itself. A man of Mr. Williams' intelligence would ardly say that after examining the court reords he found that at neither Lake Lodors no Lake Ariel was there a license to sell, for re-garding Lake Lodore he would be saying that which is absolutely untrue, and I believe he did willingly ratter such a rash and absurd un-The officers of the Lake Lodore Imprevement empany from the very begining secured from he court of Wayne county a restaurant license for Lake Lodore, and a United States internal revenne liceuse was obtained from Mr. Penman. Cure has been taken at all times that not only the spirit but the very letter of the law be com-plied with. The restaurant is opened only as societies conducting escursions to Lake Lodore desire it. On no other days. No liquors are sold on the grounds unless the society holding the recursion makes the request. Thus no liquous are sold at Lake Lodore when Susday schools or total abstinence societies conduct excursion

I hope that Mr. Williams will be so kindly just as to correct the misstatement accredited to him just not to us alone but to himself as well, in roving a character for fairness, for honesty and

Trusting thus, I am very truly, John H. Jordan, Manager Lake Lodore Improvement Company, Scranton, Aug. 25, 1900. Speaking to a Tribune man yesterlay, Mr. Williams said: "My efforts to enforce the law against the sale of intoxicating drinks at Lake Lodore and Lake Ariel has brought out quite a newspaper correspondence. That people may have the facts, am glad to give them.

"I left word that as a representative of the Anti-Saloon League, I would request them to do what they could to suppress the filegal sale of intoxicating drinks at Lake Ariel and Lake Lodore. I then called at the office of the prothonotary and asked him if there had been a license issued at Lake Ariel and Lake Lodore. After

"There had been a license granted for Canaan, which had been trans-ferred, but did not cover the sale of liquor at Lake Lodore. Mr. John Jordan, in an interview yesterday, produced a license made out in his name. which he says he thinks was this transfer referred to. There seems to be a mistake somewhere, and I will > take steps to get the matter right, in justice to all concerned. "I then went to the picnic grounds at Lake Lodore and found they have a government license framed and hung up in the place where beer is sold. "Lake Ariel has no such license. To make sure that Lake Lodore had a government license, and to be sure that Lake Ariel had no such license, I called at the office of the internal revenue collector in Scranton. I was informed that Lake Lodore had a government license, but Lake Ariel had

At the close of my address a resolution was passed asking the judge and sheriff of Wayne county to enforce the law against the illegal sale of liquor at Lake Lodore and Lake Ariel. also asked them in this resolution to suppress Sabbath desecration at each the lakes named. If there is no Sabbath desecration or illegal selling of liquor, then the resolution will not apply. "I tried to find out where the constable for Lake township was, while at Lake Ariel and I could find no one who even knew who he was, so I walked out to the justice of the peace and he gave me his name, I then wrote him a letter calling his attention to the violated law at Lake Ariel. "All the Anti-Saloon League asks is that the law be enforced, as it now stands."
