LACKAWANNA COUNTY. FAIR EXCHANGE.

CARBONDALE.

WILL BE SETTLED SATURDAY. School Board Will Fix Course and

Elect Principal. Last night the officers of the school board executed the formalities of signing contracts with the recently elected teachers. Saturday night the board will meet and settle the two questions which have been agitating the public mind for the past three months-it will fix the course of study and elect a principal for the high school.

Attorney Butler's opinion regarding the status of the principalship has been received by the board, but what it contains cannot be learned. There is some reason, however, for believing that it favors the election of a principal, which is tantamount to considering the extension of Professor Bry-den's contract illegal. In asmuch as the physicians of the ity have filed their protest against the Ad curricullum, the fixing of new burses will be attended by no little interest and possibly by some warm discussions by members of the board.

It will also be necessary, before Pro-fessor Hockenberry can be elected, for him to resign and for his successor to be seated. Then he will occupy the in enviable position of being in the hands of his friends. Of course, his election has been slated for months, but like all other events of the future it posses an element of uncertainty,

The board room will be crowded on Saturday night and those who wish to witness the important proceedings will have to be on hand early.

DESERTER ARRESTED.

Sergeant Rooney and Private Moorey, of Company N, Seventh United States artillery, yesterday took from this city Daniel Hodgins, who deserted from Willett's Point, N. Y. Many weeping relatives and a curlous crowd witnessed the young man's departure. The aged father, who did not seem to thoroughly understand the situation, asked: "What are they taking him for; he hasn't killed any-A bystander suggested that that was the difficulty, they desired him to remain until he had picked off a few of the enemy.

WILL APPLY FOR A CHARTER.

On September 24, application will be made in behalf of Doctors H. C. Wheeler, J. A. Kelly, S. S. Shields, Alexander Gillis, of this city, and Reed Burns, of Scranton, for a charter for a corporation to be known as the Carbondale Private Hospital and Training School. This will enable the institution, which has been doing such splendid work under the name of Dr. Wheeler's Private hospital, to gradu-

Board of Health's Attention Called to a Disgusting Nuisance-Langman Family Hold a Reunion-Per-

Residents of Main street and people who were upon the street last evening about 9 o'clock had to submit to a most disgusting nulsance, caused by the hauling through town on one of the wagons of the Lackawanna Fertilizing works of a dead horse or mule which was in such a state of decomposition that the effluvia emanating from it was almost unbearable. If it is a necessity that such things should be carted through the borough, it should be done at night, after ordinary people have retired and closed their doors. The matter was reported to the board of health, and if they possess the necessary power it is hoped they will prevent a repetition of the nuisance alluded to.

Mr. McNally's Offer.

Editor of The Tribune. Sir: Please permit me through your widely circulated paper to answer an article in this morning's issue concerning an alleged exerbitant price agreed to be paid me by the school board of the city of Scranton. Now, those so-called taxpayers, who are either afraid or ashamed to put their signatures under their creatic asser-tions, say the old school is insured for $3,500 and that is not near its full value. Gentlemen, here your opportunity. You can have it from mer $800; put up or shut up. You cannot accord ng to your very enlightened estimation ch a grand opportunity. For the edification my misinformed friends of the Sixth ward they will call on me I will show them figure Denis that my property has cost me $5,000, my their very intellectual caluation planing o plat at $1,000, building, $800, cush, $4,200, alving the school board the use of the building during the erection of new one worth to the school board $1,000 to $1,500, and agreeing to clear all buildings off at my expenso—not such an exorbitant price. In the meantime, you scoffers, call around and secure the old building for $800. I will give you time o pay for it, or hold your peace. Thanking you, Respectfully yours.

It is to be regretted that in your report f yesterdas's Reptasoph excursion to Lake Ariel more extended actice could not be given to be addresses delivered there in the afternoon, for the reason that they would thus reach more of the members than could possibly get to hear em amisi the noise and bustle of so large a umber of people on the grounds. Brother Bolami's address was indicative of s enthusiasm for the welfare of the though it was along the heaten track, while Supreme Sentinel Handrick's address was full of fun; but in the address of Brother J. Elliot oss we had what was not merely a display of elequence, but was forceful, thoughtful and timely. I cannot report that address, nor even give a fair indication of it; but I was particurly impressed with the warning note he sounded after declaring that the Order of Heptasophs is "grand in the work it has already accomplished. soundless in its possibilities, and holy in its surposes." I can't recall the words of the ming exactly, but the impression they left with me is that there is too much self-acking in the sub-indicate conclaves for the proper practice of the fraterial principles we practise. nd too much of a disposition to use the fre order has now reached a point in its develop ment where the tendency toward extravagant management it extremely dangerous, and that therefore the greatest care should be taken to

THEATRICAL.

"Sapho" at the Academy. A fair sized audience sweltered through for acts of "Sapho," the famous, at the Academy of Music last night. The sweltering can be taken a a double sense, for whole the thermometer was pretty high in front of the footlights, vas considerably higher on the stage. The Elicy Stock company made a bold ven-ture in introducing "Sapho" into their reper-tore, but it will doubtless be a successful one, if its success with a Scranton audience can be taken as a criterion. Their version of Daudet's novel, closely tollows the Nethersole interpre-tation, although it is free from the whole-sile sulgarity and coarseness of the original produc-

The company is well drilled in the lines, and last night's performance went along very smoothly. The distinct hit of the even-ing was scored by Edward O'Kelly, who made a very natural, very likable Ferdinand Bries, Mr. O'Kelly is possessed of a grand physique, and gives a hearty, whole-souled portroyal of the difficult role of the Parisian journalist, which carned him the applaces of the entire audience. William Gilletto's "Secret Service," which i to be presented with all the original scenery and effects at the Lyceum Monday afternoon and even-ing, Sept. 3, Labor day, is a four act drama founded on certain incidents in connection with of Richmond during the late Civil war. Mr. Gillette's previous performances in the play-making line, all of which have been eminent successes and some of which are still popular attractions, gave reason for the expectation that he would some day write the most striking American play ever penned, and, if all that has been written about "Secret Service" is to be be

Indeed, "Secret Service" has been almost un animously declared by the critics "the best American play ever written."
