Labor Day Attractions-A Member of the Crystal Fire Company Narrowly Escapes Drowning at Chapman Lake-Personals.

Quite a large number from the two boroughs spent yesterday out of town. The parades at Scranton and Carbonproved strong attragions for many of them and Lake Chapman and Crystal lake also had their share. At Lake Chapman, the Century Sewing club and Ladies' Magazine club had an enjoyable day. Everything passed off most pleasantly. The Crystal Fire company also held a clam-bake there, and one of the members, it is reported, eat so many clams that he fell into the lake and was with difficulty rescued.

Those who remained at home were treated to considerable fun in the afternoon, witnessing a base ball game between teams captained by C. Winter and Jimmy Sharkey, in which a number of the prominent men of the town took part. One of the principal features of the game was the two difficult catches made by Mine Foreman to Belmont; countermarch to Main.
