

RESPONSES OF EUROPEAN POWERS

The U. S. Government Receives Much Material Information.

COMMUNICATIONS ARE HARMONIOUS

If There Was at Any Time Any Prospect of a Serious International Clash, It Has Been Largely Removed—If the Present State of Affairs in China Is Protracted Until the Arrival of Walderser, Germany Will Endeavor to Control Negotiations—Steps Now Being Taken Toward the Appointment of a Peace Commission.

Washington, Sept. 5.—Within the last twenty-four hours the United States government has received from its representatives at foreign capitals much material information in regard to the attitude of the powers on the Russian proposal to evacuate Peking. These give the general nature of the responses made to Russia by certain of the powers. It is stated authoritatively that if there was at any time a prospect of a serious international clash, this has been largely, if not entirely, removed by the harmonious character of the communications the several governments are making. The exact nature of the responses is not made public by the state department, for there are yet some replies to be transmitted, and all of them are in, the negotiations are considered in such an incomplete form that they will not be made public.

It is said, however, that the answers go much beyond the tentative character of those heretofore referred to and are of a conclusive nature, so far as showing the purposes of the governments, although they may not be regarded as conclusive in accepting or rejecting the particular proposition advanced by Russia. The responses are understood to be rather long and somewhat argumentative, similar in this respect to the American response. The very fact is a cause for congratulation among officials, as they pointed out that there is no disposition to treat the proposal with ferocity or in any manner to give offense, but rather to bring the powers together on a common basis. On the whole, the general tendency of the responses is such as to give entire satisfaction here as to the course of the negotiations.

If the present state of affairs in China is protracted until the arrival there of Field Marshal Count Walderser, which should occur in about ten days or a fortnight, it is not to be doubted that the government of Germany will endeavor to have all the negotiations with the Chinese government conducted through that official as a representative, not of Germany alone, but all of the powers.

The Germans Active.

The German foreign office appears to be active in furthering the negotiations and quite a number of messages have passed between Washington and Berlin. Those persons most likely to have a correct understanding of Germany's attitude look for the suggestion of a compromise or middle course, which will be neither an acceptance nor a rejection of the Russian proposition, but will be such a satisfactory middle ground that all the powers, including Russia, can agree to it. For instance, it is suggested that Germany, with propriety, might suggest that a certain limit be fixed on the extent of the military detachments to be left at Peking, with an understanding that each small detachment confine itself to quarters so long as peace and quiet prevail in Peking, but be ready to act in case of further Chinese depredations. Diplomatic officials say that some such compromise is about the only way of avoiding an impasse, and that the best resources of diplomacy are now being used to secure this middle ground, on which all the powers can reconcile their several policies.

In another diplomatic quarter the strong belief is expressed that the requisite compromise will be found by China's re-establishing a government and naming peace commissioners. Official intimations have reached Washington that steps are now being taken towards the appointment of such a peace commission, including Li Hung Chang, the viceroy of Nankin, and Wu Chang, and Prince Ching, though representatives have already named Yung Yu and Hui Ting in place of the two pacific viceroys. But while there is doubt as to the personnel of the commission, it is quite generally accepted among officials that some such move on the part of China has matured and will take form in Washington very soon. In that event, it is believed by diplomatic officials that the entire status of the negotiations between the powers might be changed and that Russia no longer would feel impelled to insist upon the withdrawal of her minister and troops from Peking, as all these matters would be subjects for the commission itself to deal with. It is pointed out also that in the six days since the Russian-American notes were given to the world, the sentiment has been growing steadily in favor of continuing the presence of the troops at Peking.

COAL TARIFF REDUCED.

Berlin, Sept. 5.—The Neusten Nachrichten says the coal tariff will probably be reduced during the winter.

NOMINATIONS IN CONNECTICUT

Republicans Select Their Candidates and Declare Confidence in the Administration.

New Haven, Conn., Sept. 5.—The state Republican convention finished its work today, nominating George P. McLean, of Simsbury, for governor; H. H. Gallup for treasurer; Abraham Chamberlain for comptroller; and Charles G. R. Vinal for secretary of state.

The platform declares unaltered confidence in President McKinley and in his wise and patriotic administration of the affairs of the nation and endorses the Republican candidates and vice president; reiterates adherence to the gold standard, favors protective tariff and approves "all that has been and is being done to establish the rightful sovereignty and authority of the United States in and over its recently acquired territory and believes that under the protecting arm of the government, these new possessions will increase in prosperity and wealth and the inhabitants develop into an educated and enlightened people. It is in due time to bear such burdens and responsibilities of the government as the law-making power may find it expedient to entrust to their charge."

On trusts it says: "We declare that trusts which have for their purpose the increasing of the cost of the necessities of life or the decreasing of the wages of labor to be contrary to the spirit of our institutions and that the same should be restrained by appropriate legislation."

TRACTION COMPANY DEFENDANT IN SUIT

The Constitution of the State Is Quoted in Case of Schuykill Corporation.

Norristown, Sept. 5.—James W. Shepp and Daniel B. Shepp, large owners of the stock of the Schuykill Valley Traction company, filed a bill in equity here today against the United Power and Transportation company of New Jersey, which owns a controlling interest in the former corporation, enjoining it from continuing in control of the Schuykill Valley company and asking for the appointment of a receiver. The suit is based on that section of the constitution of Pennsylvania, which prohibits a transportation company from engaging in any other business than that of a common carrier.

The bill sets forth that the United Power and Transportation company, incorporated in New Jersey in April, 1899, has secured the control of the various lines operated by the Schuykill Valley Traction company, of whose stocks the Shepps own $100,000, and in addition has gotten control of and is operating various electric light plants in the state including those at Lebanon and Reading. The constitution of the state is quoted to show that such operation of transportation and electric light plants is an infraction of the laws of the commonwealth regulating common carriers. It is also alleged that the defendant corporation has not only secured the control of the state regulating foreign corporations and is therefore doing business illegally in Pennsylvania.

WRECK VICTIMS BURIED.

Six Funerals Held at South Bethlehem—Churches Crowded.

South Bethlehem, Sept. 5.—Six victims of the wreck on the Philadelphia and Reading railway at Hatfield last Sunday, were buried here today. The various churches in which funeral services were held were crowded and the streets were thronged with people. The victims were: Miss Annie Sherry, Joseph Madant, Ira and William Ehret, Richard Bachman and Robert Miller.

The condition of Mrs. William Burkhardt grew worse last night and her recovery is doubtful. Engineer Davis still is in a critical condition. Miss Bachman wanted to be allowed to attend her father's funeral today, but her condition would not permit. All the other injured are improving.

MR. ODELL THE CHOICE FOR GOVERNOR

Unanimously Nominated by Republicans of New York.

Gov. Roosevelt Speaks A Brief but Forceful Speech—The Convention Congratulated—The Position of Bryan on the Free Silver Question—A Vote for Free Silver—No Such Thing as Militarism or Imperialism—The Tasks Which Confront Us Today—A Nation of Men and Not Weaklings.

Saratoga, Sept. 5.—The Republican state convention was called to order at 10:13 o'clock this forenoon, and proceeded at once with the nomination of candidates. The ticket nominated, each candidate unanimously, was as follows: For Governor—E. B. Odell, jr., of Orange; For Lieutenant Governor—Timothy L. Woodruff, of Kings; For Secretary of State—John T. McDonough, of Albany; For Comptroller—William J. Morgan, of Erie; For State Treasurer—John P. Jastrel, of Cayuga; For Attorney General—John C. Davis, of Onondaga; For State Engineer—Edward A. Bond, of Jefferson.

Mr. Odell for governor and Mr. Woodruff for lieutenant governor received the unanimous vote of the convention on the first roll call. The ticket was then completed as above by the secretary being instructed to cast the ballot of the convention for the renomination of the present secretary of state, comptroller, treasurer, attorney general and state engineer. This concluded the convention's work and a committee was appointed to invite Governor Roosevelt to address the gathering. The nominee for vice president responded and was given an ovation as he mounted the platform. Mr. Roosevelt, in opening, congratulated the convention on the men nominated, and referred to the fact that the Republican party had been in power for six years in this state. The Republicans had always kept their pledges, he said, and the party felt it had the right to challenge the support of all men who desire the government to be administered with cleanliness and efficiency.

Referring to national affairs, and statements made that the senate would pass the amendment to the silver legislation, even though Mr. Bryan and a Democratic house were to be elected, Mr. Roosevelt said: "If the people of this country declare in favor of Mr. Bryan and elect a Bryanite congress next year, they will have secured the silver as well as every doctrine enunciated in the Chicago platform of '96 and reiterated in the Kansas City platform of 1900; and when the people have secured the silver, they will have secured the best of all possible worlds, and they will have elected a man who will not act otherwise than they have been directed at the polls to act. The election of Mr. Bryan this fall would be the people's mandate for free silver, and as such it would tell upon every senator who has felt doubtful how to act in the past."

Bryan Vote Is a Silver Vote.

The men who directly or indirectly aid Mr. Bryan in this most important election vote cast except for the re-election of President McKinley is a vote for free silver and for social disorder, a vote for the partial repudiation of the national debt, a vote for the destruction of financial and industrial systems; and upon all such men will rest forever afterwards the heavy responsibility of having plunged the business world into disaster, the laboring world into misery, and of having tainted with dishonor the national name.

So much for what the success of our opponents would mean at home. Aboard gentlemen, their success would mean that the nations was to be cringed before the honorable task which it has so honorably begun and to take down the flag which we are introducing in the Philippines, not only such order, but such liberty as has never been known on the islands before and to hand them back to the unspeakable tyrant of a corrupt oligarchy.

There is no such thing as militarism or imperialism at stake in the contest. These are terms only used to frighten the people into support of militarism to be in the Philippines, then it is militarism to put down the Alaskan bandits. It is militarism to put down the Alaskan bandits. It is militarism to put down the Alaskan bandits. It is militarism to put down the Alaskan bandits.

AT THE CLOSE OF GOVERNOR ROOSEVELT'S SPEECH THE CONVENTION ADJOURNED SINE DIE.

NATIONAL PARTY IS ORGANIZED

Another Presidential Ticket Placed in the Field—Caffery and Howe Are the Candidates.

New York, Sept. 5.—The National party—the official name of the third party—met in convention today in Carnegie hall, this city, and nominated candidates for president and vice-president of the United States. A platform was adopted and a title and emblem chosen.

These are the candidates: For president, Donaldson Caffery, of Louisiana; for vice president, Archibald Murray Howe, of Cambridge, Mass. There were no other candidates for the position and the nominations were received with hearty applause. The platform says: "We find our country threatened with alternate peril. On the one hand is a public opinion misled by organized forces of commercialism that have prevented a war intended by the people to be a war of humanity into a war of conquest. On the other hand is a public opinion excited by demagogic appeals to factional and class prejudices which would lead to a civil war. We believe that either of these influences, if unchecked, would ultimately compass the ruin of our country, but we also believe that neither represents the sober conviction of our countrymen."

"Convinced that the extension of the jurisdiction of the United States over the holding foreign people as colonial dependencies is an innovation dangerous to our liberties and repugnant to the principles upon which our government was founded, we pledge our efforts through all constitutional means. "First—To procure the renunciation of all imperial or colonial pretensions with regard to all persons and territories not acquired through or in consequence of military or naval operations of the last two years. "Second—To further pledge our efforts to secure a single gold standard and a sound banking system. "Third—To secure a public service based on merit only. "Fourth—To secure the abolition of all corrupting special privileges whether under the guise of subsidies, bounties, undeserved pensions or trust breeding tariffs."

The convention was called to order by Theodore M. Osborne, of Auburn, N. Y., who presided at the Indianapolis preliminary meeting a month ago. Everett V. Abbott was secretary. There was no roll call. All the delegates were volunteers who had replied by their presence to the invitation issued to all persons in sympathy with the objects of the party. Speeches also were made by Mr. Osborne, John Jay Chapman and Archibald Murray Howe.

GRAND CIRCUIT RACES.

Crescus Breaks the World's Record for Stallions—A Purse of $1,000 Presented.

Hartford, Conn., Sept. 5.—The big event of the racing in the grand circuit today was the trial of Crescus, owned by Ketcham farm, Toledo, O., to beat the world's stallion record by Directum of 2:05 1/2. Crescus was driven by George Ketcham and was urged by Joe Patchen, driven by Dickerson, and by a runner driven by Walker. Dickerson coached the horse to the half alone, when Walker came in with his runner, both pushing him at the flank to the wire. Crescus did not skip a skip in the mile and the time by quarters was 31 1/2, 1:02 1/2, 1:23 1/2, 1:44 1/2, 2:05 1/2, beating the record with apparent ease, finishing very strong and not in the least blowed. Crescus was brought back to the stand amid the greatest enthusiasm. The management gave $1,000 for the performance.

The other events went to the favorites all along the line and the racing was not up to Tuesday's mark. The 2:12 pace, purse $2,000, was won by Johnny Aman in straight heats, Clinton B. 2:07 1/2, 2:08 1/2, 2:09 1/2. Corner won the 2:09 pace, purse $2,000, in five heats. Island Wilkes, Jr., took the second heat and second money, and Will Leyburn took the fourth heat, six starters. Time—2:04 1/2, 2:05 1/2, 2:06 1/2, 2:07 1/2, 2:08 1/2. The 2:10 trot, purse $1,200, was won by Charles Herr, in four heats. He finished first in four heats, but was set back for fouling Pilatus, and the latter was given the heat. Six starters. Time—2:10 1/2, 2:11 1/2, 2:12 1/2, 2:13 1/2. The 2:15 pace, purse $1,200, was won by Stacker Taylor, in straight heats, by Martin Bells second in each heat. Five starters. Time—2:12 1/2, 2:09 1/2, 2:11 1/2, 2:12 1/2, 2:13 1/2.

CALMLY AWAITING STRIKE.

Operators of Wyoming Valley Believe Nothing Can Prevent It.

Wilkes-Barre, Sept. 5.—The miners of the Wyoming valley are anxiously awaiting news from Indianapolis. The majority of the underground workers have come to the conclusion that a strike will be ordered and that when the order is given the mines will be promptly shut down. The operators here do not look for a compromise of any kind. They say the men are bent on a strike and they might just as well have it out. The coal companies have formulated no programme as to what course they will pursue in case a strike should be declared, beyond taking steps to protect their property. In the event of a lockout, the collieries will be guarded day and night.

REPUBLICAN PLURALITIES IN VERMONT.

White River Junction, Vt., Sept. 5.—Returns from 230 cities and towns in the state, leaving only seven to be heard from, give Stickers, Republican, 47,870; Senator, Democrat, 35,842; all above 1,773. The same cities and towns in 1896 gave Grover, Republican, 53,024; Jackson, Democrat, 41,929; all others, 1,032. Stickers' plurality in these cities and towns is 62,004, and majority over all, 90,781.

BRYANISM AND ACCOMPANYING DISASTERS

Mr. Gage Shows How Gold Standard Could Be Destroyed.

Washington, Sept. 5.—Secretary Gage has made the following reply to an open letter he has received from Carl Schurz, of New York: Dear Sir: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your of the 3d instant, in which you utter some words of criticism upon the statements made by me in a newspaper interview, published August 26, in which I expressed the opinion that Mr. Bryan, if elected president, could, by the exercise of considerable "persuasive ingenuity," put the government on a silver basis, ruin its credit and bring incalculable disaster upon the business interests of the country.

You deny that the danger set forth by me in that interview really existed, and that any president would be able to do what I declare might be done, "unless the Republican party in control of the government in both the legislative and executive branches pressed its policy to the end in its professed purpose to maintain the gold standard." You say your denial "is not based on the reasoning of those of your critics who seek to show by figures that a president, desiring over so much to put the country on a silver basis, would lack the means of doing so." On the contrary, you admit "the argument of all I say on that point, and I would not seem, therefore, that there is any particular difference between us as to what Mr. Bryan as president would be able to do under the law, or in spite of the law as it now is."

It ought to have been apparent to you, as it no doubt was, that I was speaking of the possibility of the government, under the conditions as they now exist, but you proceed to point out how, at the next session of congress, which will meet in December, legislation could be had which would completely forestall any friendly action toward the gold standard, even if Mr. Bryan were elected, and should still cherish the firmest purpose declared by him on September 1, 1896, that a large number of them would be maintained, and that any president who would undertake to do so would be in a false position. "If there is any one who believes that the gold standard is a good thing, or that it should be maintained, I am not at all skilled in controversy and have had no special training in dialectics, but I will indulge in a few words in the way of rejoinder to your criticism."

In the first place, then, no more serious disaster could be visited upon the country, in this respect, than the effects of the consequent placing of our country upon the silver basis, already caused untold millions of our securities to be thrown upon the market. Scores of business enterprises are already in a state of liquidation, and the number of manufacturing establishments have already stopped or restricted their operations, enterprise is already discouraged and nearly paralyzed. And if these are the effects of a mere proposition of a possibility, what would be the effect of the limit itself? There is scarcely an imaginable limit to the destruction certain to be wrought by the business disturbance that Mr. Bryan's mere election would cause."

I myself am unable to perceive why the same consequences in a minor degree, perhaps, would not ensue for now which you so forcibly forebode. Now, when consequences so great as these are involved, the operators of the mines should be resisted at every point. Even the possibility of danger should be avoided. It is a familiar fact, and one altogether too much in evidence, that an administrative officer, filled with hatred and contempt for a particular man, can, by perverse ingenuity, practically nullify his operations. You point out to your letter that if the course indicated by me in the interview referred to should be followed by Mr. Bryan the Republican congress which meets in December next could in advance restrain him by new and more effective mandatory provisions. The proposition that in case of Mr. Bryan's election the present congress can tie his hands so that he cannot give effect to his expressed intention appears to me to be fallacious. It would require new legislation by a party next house would have been rejected by the people through their last expression at the polls. Further than this, the next session will expire by operation of law on March 4, 1901, and the new congress would be probably impossible. Can any one doubt that Mr. Bryan would use action by his friends in congress to prevent the further strengthening of the policy which he denounces as criminal? Your remarks upon this point seem to indicate that you rely upon the exercise of the power already conferred upon the Republican party to prevent the country from experiencing disasters which Mr. Bryan, if he can, will bring upon us. May I not suggest that the way to secure safety is not to take power from those upon whom you rely for protection, but to confer it upon those whose action you may have good cause to dread."

"Since you have raised the question of further legislation, let us look a little further forward. If Mr. Bryan is elected president it is of all things the most probable that the next house will have a Democratic majority, but even admitting that the congress dating from March 4, 1901, will not be able to effect any change in the present financial legislation, still, we may fairly ask, will be the effect of the continued agitation of the question upon business and industry, set in motion by a president bent upon the restoration of free silver, the ratio of 16 to 1, and elected upon that platform. You end your letter by suggesting that I retract what I have said in fairness to the business community, which should not be unnecessarily disquieted, especially not by those in authority. Thinking as I do that the election of Mr. Bryan would be a real menace to the commercial and industrial interests of our people because of his purpose he cherishes and the power he would possess, I do not feel at liberty to act upon the suggestion. I feel it my duty to at least wait until after Mr. Bryan himself has reiterated his statement of 1896, that "if (the gold standard) will not be maintained in this country longer than I am able to get rid of it."

Very truly yours, Lyman Gage, Hon. Carl Schurz, Bolton Landing, Lake George, New York.
