CARBONDALE.

LAST OF OLD LANDMARK.

Mrs. Adelaide Estabrook is moving from her house on Garfield avenue to the tenement in the Kirby block recently vacated by Mrs. Meaker. The Estabrook house so long occupied by Dr. C. Burr and one of the oldest in the city is to be torn down at once and a handsome home erected there by O. L. Utley, who recently purchased the premises. On the rear of the lot large barns will be put up for the use of the Grand Union Tea company. The plans for Mr. Utley's residence are now being completed by the architects and the home when finished will be an ornament to the handsome thoroughfare.

RAID ON SPEAKEASIES.

Fred Racht, of this city, acting for the Men's union in conjunction with E. E. Bunnell, also of this city, swore to information which led to the arrest of Dennis Finnigan, Thomas Norton and Scott Whipple, whom they allege have been selling liquor without a license. Those three are located near the Dundaff street crossing. Yesterday morning Messrs. Racht and Bunnell caused the arrest of Dennis Toolan, James Bagley and James Burke, of the South Side, on the same charge. In each case the men were required to give bonds to the amount of $500 for their appearance at court.
