In the afternoon "Lost in London" was the bill and last evening "The Sporting Duchess" was presented. The scenery used in the production was magnificent and the costimning superb. Mr. Grattan appeared as Lord Dosborough and to say he was good in the part is only giving ham half his deserts. Arthur J. Pickens as Major Mostyn did ex-cellent work. Special mention is deserved to the manner in which Mr. Forrest staged the piece and also his portrayal of the role originated by J. H. Stoddard, that of Joe Alymer, the horse trainer. This afternoon "Streets of New York" will be presented. Tonichle as the remond of
