WELCOME HOME TO R. H. WILLIAMS

SELECT COUNCILMAN FROM THE FIFTH WARD HONORED.

Reception Tendered Him in Co-Operative Hall Last Evening—Addresses by W. Gaylord Thomas, Colonel E. H. Ripple, William R. Lewis, Howell Harris and Others—Four Weddings for This Week—Other Shorter News Notes and Personals.

Select Councilman Richard H. Williams, of the fifth ward, who has been abroad during the summer, and returned home a few days ago, was tendered a reception by a large number of his friends in Co-operative hall last evening. The affair was attended by many men prominent in business and municipal affairs, among whom were the following:

Postmaster E. H. Ripple, City Solicitor A. A. Voshurg, George W. Jenkins, Philip Rinsland, Roger Evans, Elvigor Evans, Hon. John T. Williams, Hugh Jones, Howell Harris, Evan J. Williams, Benjamin Griffiths, Henry P. Davis, W. E. Johns, Philip H. Warren, Prof. Silas Rossner, Court-ward Charles Goddard, Joseph O'Connor, Edward James, T. J. Coyne, William Griffiths, Stephen Dyer, W. Gaylord Thomas, Prof. Gray, John T. Edwards, Richard Jones, David Stephens, Joseph Lloyd, William J. Thomas, Rowland Thomas, William H. Lewis, David M. Jones, Assistant City Solicitor David J. Davis, John H. Phillips and others.

At 8:30 o'clock, Evan J. Williams called the assembly to order and in a few words stated the object of the meeting. The exercises were opened with a Welsh solo by David J. Davis, and W. Gaylord Thomas was called upon to make the address of welcome. His address expressed gladness on Mr. Williams' return, and he welcomed him in all sincerity. He said the gathering was an attestation of the esteem in which the select councilman is held.

Phillip Warren sang "The Noble Boy of Truth" in fine voice, and Attorney William R. Lewis followed with some excellent remarks, during which he said that Mr. Williams had done one thing in his life which alone was worthy of commendation, that of sacrificing himself in order to give his children a thorough education, and he advised those present to plant the seeds of education in the minds of their own children if they want to do something for posterity.

This Interesting Exposition of Fashionable Art in Dress Fabrics

So that the display to which we invite your attention is in reality a broad-gauged demonstration or object lesson on how to dress well and fashionably according to the means at your command, for this exhibition includes all grades, qualities, styles, colors and weaves that will be carried in stock throughout the season, and at no other time of the year can the complete range be seen by visitors. The reasons why are too obvious to require explanation. The space at our command is too limited to permit of us entering into details. We will say, however, that in addition to the staple weaves and colorings which you would expect to find, there are many exclusive novelties and the handsomest collection of plaid back and reversible suitings ever shown in Northeastern Pennsylvania.

Among the Weaves Most Sought for

This season we may mention Granite Cloths, Plain and Corded Poplins, Whicords, Epingles, French and English Serges, Venetians in various finishings, Wis-trar, Finetta Cloths, Prunellas, Zebclines, Homespuns, Chevots, Camel's Hair Suitings, Broadcloths, Chevrans, French Foulards, Lansdowns, Beiges, Fancy Plaids, Paronetta Cloths, Henriettas, Amaranth Suitings, etc.

During This Special Display

We invite ladies to roam at will through the annex, which is given up to the Dress Goods Opening for this week. It's looking time, and no person shall say one word to visitors about buying.

WOMEN'S FEET

are nearly always reliable thermometers of their health. Who cannot read the story told by weak, listless footsteps, dragging wearily to and fro? What a contrast to the strong, graceful movements of the woman who is in good condition. What makes the difference? Simply health. The world is made for well people. At work, in the home, in society—vigorous, active women are the favorites, the successful ones. Health is woman's right. It will bring her everything worth living for. If she has not this priceless boon, she should strive for it.

There is one relief open to all women. It is Pe-ru-na, the specific for catarrhal congestions, irritations, inflammations, weakening drains, painful irregularities, etc. As a rule, the majority of diseases which make life a burden to women spring from a debilitated or catarrhal condition of the sensitive membrane which lines the pelvic organs. Being a specific for all catarrhal conditions, Pe-ru-na easily corrects such disorders and brings about a normal, healthy condition even in cases which appear almost hopeless. It does not claim to be a cure-all or a wonderful restorer of lost youth. But it does claim to heal, strengthen and revitalize the mucous membrane which lines the entire body.

GATHERED IN SOUTH SCRANTON

FUNERAL OF FRANK GRIFFIN, OF GENET STREET.

Requiem Mass Celebrated in St. John's Church—Funeral of Mrs. Mary Pehibek—Alderman Ruddy Has Given His Decision in the Purcell-Gerrity Case—Party in Honor of Albert Gilger, of Shamokin—Fred Weing Injured by the Bursting of a Bottle.

The remains of the late Frank Griffin, of Genet street, were laid to their last resting place yesterday morning with impressive ceremonies. Prior to the funeral, the house was thronged with sympathizing friends, who paid their last respects to his memory. At 9 o'clock the funeral cortege moved to St. John's church, where a requiem mass was celebrated by Rev. Father O'Donnell, who later preached the funeral sermon.

At the conclusion of the service the procession moved to Cathedral cemetery, where interment was made. The pall bearers were Michael Flaherty, Peter Judge, Thomas Brady, William Dolan, John Gibbons and Thomas Brodson.

Mrs. Pehibek's Funeral.
The funeral of the late Mrs. Mary Pehibek, who died last Friday, took place yesterday morning at 9 o'clock from the home of her daughter, Mrs. Adam Enger, of Pittston avenue, and was largely attended. A high mass of requiem was celebrated by Rev. P. C. Chris, of St. Mary's church, of River street, who also delivered the sermon. After the services, the funeral cortege moved to the German Catholic cemetery, where interment was made. The pall bearers were George Bechtloff, John Walsh, Frank Grambo and John Weisler.

Decision Rendered.
Alderman John J. Ruddy's final decision in the case of Purcell vs. Gerrity, which he heard August 31, has been rendered. The case grew out of a watch owned by Purcell, a bartender in the bank hotel run by P. F. Gerrity, being taken for which Gerrity claimed he made reparations, to which statement Purcell made a denial and began a trespass suit.

In Honor of Mr. Gilger.
Albert Gilger, of Shamokin, who is the guest of Ray Reed, of Pig street, was tendered a delightful reception Saturday evening at Mr. Reed's home. The evening was spent in indulging in games, dancing and singing. Flashlights in grotesque attitudes were taken. Refreshments of a light character were also served.

Those present were: Misses Josie Mettler, Elizabeth O'Hara, Agnes Manley, Hattie Kellerman, Mame Crane, Mame Clare, Mary McGovern, Kate Hastings, Margaret Manning and Katherine Dowling. The gentlemen present were: William Deddoe, Charles Deddoe, Thomas Jones, James Ford, Oscar Jones, Jesse Reed, William Austin, Selden Brady and Ray Reed.

Many Joining Classes.
As the autumn approaches, and the weather is cooling somewhat, the interest in the turning exercises of the Scranton Athletic club begins to grow apace, and every practice night sees new faces in the ranks. Last night's meeting, which was conducted by their efficient instructor, Victor Noth, of the West Side, was devoted mostly to the swinging of Indian clubs and high jumping, with a slight mixture of double bar exercises. The boys are preparing for an exhibition and dance to be given later in the season.
