

LACKAWANNA COUNTY.

CARBONDALE.

TO PROTECT ANIMALS.

Secretary G. W. Evans, of the health board, has for some time past been assisting the project of forming a branch of the Lackawanna Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Animals in this city.

The flames spread to the fence, and in a short time the fire was spreading in all directions. The dry grass burned like tinder. A large number of people turned out, and after a few minutes' labor succeeded in putting out the fire.

The Recreable Dancing class will conduct a social at Burke's hall tomorrow evening. Common council lacked one of having a quorum last night and another attempt to hold a meeting will be made Friday evening.

A WONDERFUL CURE OF DIARRHOEA. A PROMINENT VIRGINIA EDITOR Had Almost Given Up, but Was Brought Back to Feet Health by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

READ HIS EDITORIAL. I suffered with diarrhoea for a long time and thought I was past being cured. I had spent much time and money and suffered no much misery that I had almost decided to give up all hopes of recovery and await the result, but noticing the advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and also some testimonials stating how some wonderful cures had been wrought by this remedy, I decided to try it.

FEKVILLE. Mr. Howard Barber, who has been working at Steelton, Pa., returned home last evening. Mr. W. F. Mott, who has been for several months at a private hospital at Philadelphia for treatment, is not expected to recover.

BALD MOUNT. Miss Corinne Bieseker is home from Harvey's lake. Mr. Thaddeus Roth entertained her Sunday school class last Friday afternoon.

CLARK'S GREEN. Mr. and Mrs. Bert Brittain and son, of Olyphant, were visitors here on his many relatives on Sunday last. Mr. Charles P. Pease was the guest of Miss Irene Brooks on Sunday last.
