was unconscious when picked up and

was at once taken to his home on Main street, where Dr. Shields and Dr.

I. S. Graves attended him. He received a number of contusions about the face and head, the worst being at the back of the neck, just below the base of the skull. His hand was also badly cut. His injuries are quite serlous, his lower limbs being paralyzed.

It is hoped that this may be only the result of concussion of the brain, but

CARBONDALE.

DEATH OF AGED LADY.

Mrs. Fannie M. Tiffany, widow of Alson Tiffany, deceased, died at the home of her son, A. E. Tiffany, of this city, at 10.45 last evening, aged eighty-nine years. She was born in Brook-Susquehanna county, August 8, 1811. She was the daughter of Silas Ely, the oldest of fourteen children. and the last to pass away. She was united in marriage to Alson Tiffany, September 19, 1830, and at once began housekeeping in Lenox, Susquehanna county, where she lived continuously over sixty years. She bore ten children, five of whom are still living: Frank M., of Dalton; Jared M., of Jermyn; Mrs. N. J. Hawley, of Dorrance ton; Mrs. H. N. Smith and A. E. Tiffany, of this city. In 1832 she united with the Presbyterian church of Brooklyn, and had been a faithful member of that church until the present time. There is but one person living who belonged to the church at the time joined it, Albert Gear, of Brooklyn. She fell and fractured her hip a few weeks ago and this hastened her death. The funeral will be private and will at the home of A. E. Tiffany, 17 Rickett street, on Friday evening at 7.30. The interment will be made in the Tower cemetery, in Lenox, on Saturday at 12,40, where a brief service will be held.

C. W. SEAMAN MARRIED.

C. W. Seaman, of the firm of Seaman Bros., of Church street, this city, was married in Honesdale yesterday afternoon to Miss Celia Reede. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's aunt. Mrs. M. P. Norton, of Maple avenue. Rev. G. A. Place, Ph.D., formerly of this city, tied the knot. After a short tour they will reside in Carbondale.

THE LILIPUTIANS TONIGHT.

Tonight the juvenile fairy spectacle. The Liliputians in Fairyland," will be presented at the Grand opera house for the benefit of Trinity church. The performance will be repeated tomorrow evening. Nearly 200 of our little townspeople will participate, and the entertainment promises to be one of the most charming that ever appealed to Carbondalians.

RAILROADERS LOSING TIME.

Railroaders of this city are already feeling the effects of the approaching miners' strike. Yesterday seven Delaware and Hudson crews reported for duty as usual but were informed that they were not "out." Nearly all the miners of this vicinity and those at Vandling and Richmondale kept at work yesterday, but they all talk strike for Monday.
