EXCELLENT SHOWING AT MONTROSE FAIR

One of the Largest and Most Interesting Exhibits Ever Held. Five Thousand Attend.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Montrose, Sept. 19.-Nature smiled on the Susquehanna county fair, held here today, and consequently one of the most successful exhibitions ever given by the County Agricultural society is to be chronicled.

The day broke clear and bright, and so it continued throughout. At an early hour the roads from every direction centering at Montrose, were lined with vehicles of all sorts, not a few pedestrians, and drove after drove of live stock, all bound for the county fair. The exhibits in all departments were large in extent and excellent in quality, though the horses shown were not quite as numerous as in some former years; and the effect of the prolonged drought was shown in the fruit and vegetable exhibits, but not in so marked a degree as had been anticipated, and some magnificent specimens were shown.

FINE LIVE STOCK DISPLAY.

The herds of mild-eyed Jerseys, of Devons, Durhams, Holstein and other leading breeds of cattle were many and fine; the same is to be said of sheep and swine. It was remarked in the hearing of The Tribune representative that the showing of live stock sur-passed that which the speaker had seen at a recent state fair.

The poultry show is a strong feature of the Susquehanna county fair, and each year this department shows a growth that must be both surprising and gratifying to the society and to the poultry enthusiasts of the county. There were a great number of birds $18. shown this year, almost every known variety being represented. Of pigeons

BABY SHOW.

No feature of the programme attracted more general interest than did the "baby show," in which a score or more little tots were competing for the prize. It is one of the most difficult things in the world to settle such a contest satisfactorily, but in this case the judges, Alderman Myron Kasson, of Scranton; Colonel Charles Pratt, of New Milford: Justice J. S. Court-Bunker hill. right, of Montrose, proved equal to the occasion by following the award of the first prize with the announcement brated Rebekah day at their hall, on that a similar prize of equal value should go to each of the contestants. The trapeze performers, jugglers, the ained animals and the boxing bout, which a female pugilist participatd, all proved a delight to the vast idience.

EXCELLENT ATTENDANCE.

It is estimated that more than five thousand people were in attendance. The receipts were nearly $1,500. The fair was from all standpoints a success, and the agricultural society and its thousands of patrons are alike to be congratulated upon the outcome.

BRADFORD COUNTY.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Towanda, Sept. 19 .- Levi Burch, an old and respected citizen of Newark Valley, committed suicide on Friday afternoon by hanging himself in his sawmill. In the report which comes out, it seems that he had been planning this rash deed for some time, and in the meantime had settled his business accounts. On the day of his death he selected his casket of an undertaker, although there was nothing thought of his idea. Later in the day he drove to a neighbor's, hitched his horse and went to the mill, and requested his neighbor to come over in a little while. In a short time he went and there found Mr. Burch hanging and already dead. He had also severed an artery in his wrist with a razor, to make a sure job of it. An elaborate programme is being prepared by a committee in charge of the next annual meeting of the Con-tral New York conference of Methodists, which will be held at Cazenovia, N. Y., week after next. The district comprises the western portion of Bradford county in part as membership, The meeting, which will be attended by nearly three hundred ministers, will presided over by Bishop McCabe, of Minneapolis, Minn.

Miss Eugenia Dodge has gone to the Bermuda Islands for a visit.

Mrs. E. W. Gaylord is visiting relatives at Corry, Pa., for a few days.

Mrs. T. R. Braund has returned from an extended visit in West Virginia.

L. A. Thompson, a flagman on the Northern Central railroad, was run down and instantly killed by the cars at Canton last Saturday. Only two years ago he lost an arm in a freight train wreck.

D. J. McClarty died at his Athens home on Sunday from injuries previously received in the furniture factory at that place.

F. N. Betts has returned from a trip to Ireland, England and Scotland. Jesse Coolbaugh, of Wysox, is in Philadelphia hospital, being treated for appendicitie.

After the usual lodge ceremonies were gone through with, the committee on entertainment announced the programme for the evening, which consisted of literary and musical selections by the members. The programme was followed by a banquet, which was all that the name implies. The members of May Griffin lodge of Rebekahs, of Clark's Green, were invited to be present as honored guests, but through some unknown cause they did not arrive, which caused much disappointment. The following programme was carried out: Instrumental music, Miss Helen Smith; "Our Order," Mrs. N. A. Gardner; "The Original Rebekah Lodge," Mr. J. G. Capwell: graphophone selection, George W. Stanton: "Rebekah Day," Mrs. A. A. Brown; "Odd Fellowship," Mr. M. C. Rhoads; graphophone selection, George W. Stanton.

Today is the second day of the Wyoming county fair, and many of our townspeople will be over there today and tomorrow.
