Verdict in the Baylor Case.

After court opened yesterday the jury in the case of William Baylor against Loren G. Stevens brought in a verdict in favor of Baylor for $800. He sued for $10,000 damages.

The wage case of P. G. Boland against Thomas R. Pierce was given to the jury early in the day but a verdict has not yet been returned.

Late in the afternoon the trespass case of W. J. McDonough against Christ Moulter, which was put on trial Thursday afternoon before Judge Albright went to the jury. The case was still under consideration at adjourning hour.

After this case went to the jury Judge Albright listened to arguments for a new trial in the case of Attorney D. B. Replogle against Arthur Frothingham to recover damages for malicious prosecution and the case was tried at the May term before Judge Albright and a verdict for $250 returned in favor of the plaintiff. Mr. Frothingham desires a new trial. His interests were looked after yesterday by Attorneys R. H. Holgate and E. W. Thayer and Mr. Replogle was represented by Attorneys Joseph O'Brien and James H. Torrey.

Vermont Merchant Held Up in Bandit Fashion and Nevada Bank Robbed Dime Novel Style.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press.

White River Junction, Vt., Sept. 21.—A typical Western hold-up, with masked robbers in broad brimmed hats, flannel shirts and leather leggins and later an encounter between the desperadoes and a sheriff's posse, occurred in the town of Quechee village, five miles from here, last night.

Two men, with drawn revolvers, rode up to the store of Scott Tinkham, a prominent merchant, as he was about to close the place, bound and gagged him and galloped away with $300 in cash, watches and jewelry. Ten minutes after they left, Mr. Tinkham liberated himself and gave the alarm.

Deputy Thomas, who started toward Quechee with a team, encountered the resparadoes mounted, a short distance from Woodstock. He commanded them to halt and was answered by a volley of shots. Four bullets went through his coat and hat.

The deputy opened fire, but failed to bring down the men. The robbers deserted their horses and fled to the woods, where they were being hunted today.

Winnemucca, Nev., Sept. 21.—The First National bank was robbed today at noon by three men. Horses were in waiting outside the bank. When the robbers completed their work they mounted and started through the strets at top speed, shooting as they sped.

THE MARKETS.

Wall Street Review.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press.

New York, Sept. 21.—There was considerable futher liquidation in today's stock market, but prices resisted all day and in the later trading there was quite general recoveries of all the earlier losses and small net gains are the rule. The late recovery, however, did not bring prices fully up to the opening level. Yesterday's rather violent decline had the inevitable effect of attracting considerable selling orders from outside sources. Prices, therefore, yielded very generally after the opening, and declines ranging from 1 to 1½ were effected in a long list of stocks. People's Gas was especially affected and lost 2¾ and General Electric as much. Louisville was the weakest of the railroad list and fell at one time a point under last night. Some wider declines were made by newly awakened dormant stocks. Considering the range of this movement, the day's final changes will be found surprisingly small; a consummation which suggests a general closing up of speculative accounts. The forecast of an unfavorable bank statement, the developments in the miners' strike and the report that an agreement between coal operators and their employes seemed improbable did not appear to weaken the market, as they had been discounted by yesterday's selling. Total sales today, 312,700 shares.

Bonds continued reactionary and did not rally with stocks. Total sales par value, $935,000.

United States 3s and new 4s declined ¼ per cent, in the bid price.

Concerning Blankets
It isn't a chestnut—only a deepening conviction. Our testimony about the Blankets now going here is worth something to you. They are not mongrel lots picked up on the market, but they are superior goods made especially for the Connolly & Wallace public. We have no threatening terrors of higher future prices to present--although we believe they will come. But the urgency of present advantage is our excuse for again asking your attention to the line---the little printed list doesn't represent it.
