SIX THOUSAND ATTENDED FAIR

YESTERDAY A BIG DAY AT TUNKHANNOCK.

The Grounds Were Thronged All Day with Visitors, the Weather Being Delightful—Grand Procession of All Horses and Live Stock—Awards Meet with General Satisfaction.

ACTED AS LUNCH COUNTERS.

Again, the carriages and surreys served as lunch counters, and in many a buggy was enacted a pretty tableau of Mary Jane and her best young man having a tete-a-tete dinner out of the same lunch basket.

TRIALS OF SPEED.

The afternoon trials of speed were scheduled to begin at 1 o'clock, but it was much nearer 2 when the first field of horses were in readiness to try conclusions.

GRIP-FLUENZA.

The use of "Seventy-seven," during September, October and November, secures immunity from Grip and Colds all Winter long.

DOCTORS' OPINIONS.

Dr. Humphrey's famous Specific, "77" restores the checked circulation, indicated by a chill or shiver, the first sign of taking cold, starts the blood coursing through the veins, and "breaks up" the cold.

DOCTORS' OPINIONS.

HONESTDALE.

Honestdale, Sept. 21.—Mrs. William H. Swift and daughter, Kate, are at the home of Mr. Swift, where they will spend two weeks with friends.

QUEER BOUNDARY POINTS.

In an old Susquehanna county deed a certain boundary line was described as terminating at "a stump where Feniel Huntington, who is called 'William Jones' in the early days of Harmon township, a road was laid out, which was described as 'running from Comfort's meadow to the stream where old Mr. Doolittle's horse died.'"

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

The case of a little visitor to this vicinity, who rather missed the conveniences of the city, is cited as showing that the season's outing is not always considered an unmitigated blessing by those enjoying the same.

A COSTLY SOMBRERO.

An old resident of Susquehanna county has a sombrero which cost him $6,000. The only ornamentation about it is a cord of gold braid wrapped about the crown.

HOPBOTTOM.

Hopbottom, Sept. 21.—It has been expected that a new pastor would be on hand at the Universalist church on Sunday. Somebody has prevented the arrangements from going into effect.

IN SUSQUEHANNA COUNTY.

Montrose is raising money and supplies for the Galveston sufferers. The home band will furnish music for the Harford fair.

TREED A WILDCAT.

Tom Osgood and his two dogs treed a wildcat near Hallstead on Monday night. The cat hid in the branches of an oak tree, and while Osgood was circling around in the brush and fallen timber, to catch sight of the beast, it sprang with a scream upon the hunter's back.

JUST SAID ASIDE.

It is not the biggest things that make the most commotion. Take a mouse in prayer meeting, for instance. The best way to encourage a tramp is to show him a pile of cord wood.

A NEW PERIL OF THE ROAD.

A freight train on the Ontario road came to a standstill near Poyntelle the other night, owing to the engine slipping an eccentric, and the engineer and fireman got out to repair it.

HALLSTEAD.
