SUDDEN DEATH OF HARRY PECK

SUCCUMBED TO AN ATTACK OF TYPHOID FEVER.

He Came Here a Few Days Ago from Allegheny City Suffering from the Disease-Graduated from Lehigh as a Mechanical Engineer-Mr. and Mrs. Leyshon Entertain - Mine Worker in Trouble-Car Jumped the Track-Other Notes.

At 12.30 o'clock this morning, the messenger of death entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Peck, 1523 Price street, and summoned to the great beyond their only son, Harry, whose unusually promising career has disease, typhoid fever.

Only a few days ago, the young man came to his home from Allegheny City, suffering from the malady, but no serious consequences were anticipated, but a change for the worse or curred last evoning, and he gradually sank, until death released him.

Deceased was about 27 years of age and graduated with honors from Lehigh university as a mechanical engineer. Soon afterward he entered the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western dops in this city for the purpose of obtaining the practical lessons in his profession, and it was not long before his ability was recognized.

About two years ago he was en-gaged by the New York Central railcoad company, with headquarters at Albany, and a few months ago advanced to a responsible position with the Carnegie Steel company at Braddock, where he was employed when taken ill.

Mr. Peek was one of the best known and most popular young men in this families in the state. His father is of the Delaware, Lackawannna and Western company's most trusted engineers, having been on the Bloomsourg division many years.

Harry was to have been married in October, and his sudden death comes not only as a shock to his parents, but also to his betrothed. The sympathy of the entire community goes out to the family in this, their hour of hereavement. The funeral will be announced later.

Excitement at the Bridge.

A Baltimore and Ohio fruit car, No 19,586, jumped a frog under the West city, and represented one of the oldest Lackawanna avenue bridge yesterday afternoon, and caused no little excite ment. A large crowd was attracted to the scene, and watched the Central ailroad employes, with the assistance of engine No. 403, restore the car to the tracks.

The crowd was later thrown into a futter of excitement when a short ime afterwards George Thomas, the oung son of Street Commissioner Thomas, was thrown from his wagon and narrowly escaped serious injury. The Thomas boy is a cripple, and
