BUSINESS MAN'S VIEW OF STRIKE

THINKS THE MERCHANTS DESERVE CONSIDERATION.

Does Not Understand Why They Should Carry Customers Any More Than the Cash Dealers Do—Knights of Malta Elect Officers—Elsteddfod at Taylor Christmas Day—Some of the Competitions and Prizes to Be Given—Minor News Notes and Personals.

A representative business man of this city, who has been following the strike situation very closely, pauses to tell, in his own way, just how he feels about it, and asks The Tribune to print his views. The gentleman has been identified with the business interests of Scranton for nearly forty years, and is in a position to know what he is talking about. Here are his views: "Where are we at?" is at present the question that is puzzling a great many who are in the business world. The strike among the coal miners is the topic all along the line. As a reminder of the strikes of the past, we cannot very well let the present one go unheeded as far as the miners. At the present time we are facing what, in my estimation, is a calamity to every family who has not the wherewith to exist any length of time without the aid of the storekeeper, or fall back on what resources they have been striving hard to get together for a rainy day.

"The operators should come manfully and willingly meet the miners in a discussion of their alleged grievances, such as the powder question, semi-monthly pay and the company store, and the men should show a similar spirit toward their employers. "Since 1863, or as you may call it, during the war, we have witnessed four strikes, all of which I am certain proved disastrous to the miner and his associates, and especially to the merchant of this city and adjoining towns. Under what is right and just, I cannot see that it would be reasonable to expect the merchant to carry his customers any more than the cash store man, who deals for cash and cash only. To do so is to invite almost certain financial ruin. The past strikes are eloquent histories of what happened to many merchants who were prosperous and well-to-do before the industrial

This Old Command Is Easy to Fulfill in Scranton.

To win a wager an English Marquis stood on London bridge and offered for an hour British sovereigns ($5.00) for five shillings ($1.25). He could not find a customer. There are several good reasons why the ordinary mortal could not be induced to buy, but no reason can be given why Scranton people will not accept the following convincing proof about Doan's Kidney Pills. Read this:

Mr. Bryan Flynn, of 228 Grant avenue, Hyatt Park, employed at Briggs brookers, says: "There was a dull gnawing pain just over my kidneys for two years. If I took cold it always settled in my back and made it lame and sore for days. I read much about Doan's Kidney Pills in our papers and heard others speak of them so highly that I decided to try them and got a box at Matthews' drug store. They straightened my back and completely relieved the other weakness. I have taken lots of medicine and doctored but I never had anything so good as Doan's Kidney Pills. I have had one or two slight returns of the pain in my back but a dose of Doan's Kidney Pills never failed to quickly banish it."

For sale by all dealers, price 50 cents. Foster-McMillan Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents, State.

SOUTH SCRANTON

SECOND WEEK OF MISSION IN ST. JOHN'S CHURCH.

This Week Will Be for Men of the Congregation—Funeral of Mrs. John Bremmer from Her Late Home on Maple Street—Miss Barbara Beck Pleasantly Entertained a Number of Her Friends at Her Home on Meadow Avenue—Other Interesting News Notes.

The first week of the mission in St. John's church by the Redeemer's Fathers, of New York city, and which was for women only, came to an auspicious close yesterday afternoon. On account of the crowded condition of the edifice, it was necessary to have two exercises, one for the married ladies and one for the unmarried. Father Parr closed the mission for the married ladies and Father Mullaney had charge of the closing mission for the single ladies. The meetings for the women have been magnificently attended, the church being crowded at all meetings. Last night the men's mission was opened with an immense gathering and a deep, powerful sermon by Father Lindner on "The Importance of Eternal Salvation" was reverently listened to.

The meetings will be similar to those conducted last week, with mass at 5 and 8 a. m. and the evening service at 7:30, with short instructions, reciting the rosary and mission sermon and benediction. On Tuesday evening at 7:30 there will be two special lectures, one for the married men in the auditorium and the other in the basement for the unmarried. Confessions will be heard commencing with Wednesday to Sunday, inclusive, when the mission will come to a close.

Funeral of Mrs. Bremmer. The funeral of Mrs. John Bremmer took place yesterday afternoon from her late home on Maple street and was largely attended. At 2 o'clock the cortege moved to the German Presbyterian church at Petersburg. After the services the cortege moved to the Dunmore cemetery, where interment was made.

Newspaper Thieves. W. H. Holder, of Cedar avenue, the South Side newsdealer, has been frequently annoyed of late by a gang of bold, bad boys from the flats, who steal his periodicals and papers and sell the candy and peanuts which he also handles. Recently a lot of this petty thieving has been going on and yesterday as they were seated in the store a paper was seen to flutter from one of the stands outside. Mr. Holder suspected something was wrong. He started to investigate and found several boys sneaking off with a bundle of Sunday newspapers. He immediately gave chase and caught the offenders, but let them go upon promise never to be seen in that vicinity again. If the depredations continue arrests will be made.

Miss Beck's Party. Miss Barbara Beck very pleasantly entertained a large number of her friends at her home on Meadow avenue Friday evening. The evening was spent in dancing, singing and indulging in various merry diversions. Later refreshments were served.

Those present were: Misses Ida Chase, Elizabeth Chase, Elizabeth Clark, Elizabeth Welton, Minka Beck, Rose Welton, Minnie Nantz, Katie Williams, Leonard Hensel, Kate Hunt, Katie Dumbacher and Mary Powell. The gentlemen present were: Gus Keifer, Joe Higgins, August Nagel, Joe Rader, Edward Katakowitz, Edward McNally, Charles Nagel, Thomas Honan, Michael Johnson, Charles Fuller, Chris Rose, Gus Bahr, Fred Welton, Victor Roth, John Roth, Henry James Henry Kiefer, Fred Neuls and Philip Lewert.

NEWS NOTES AND PERSONALS. A very pretty christening took place yesterday morning at the home of Philip Kiefer, of Brook street, when two young children, a boy and girl of Mr. and Mrs. George Hutzler, were christened by Rev. W. A. Nordt, of the Hickory Street German Presbyterian church. The sponsors were Mr. and Mrs. William Vilhaber, who stood for William, and Mr. and Mrs. Philip Kiefer, who stood for the girl, little Bernadine.

Charles McHugh, of Dunmore, who attempted suicide Friday evening while in a drunken stupor by leaping over the Cedar avenue bridge was fined $2 at a hearing Saturday before Alderman Store for being drunk and disorderly.

The funeral of Max Leibold, the 2-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. John Leibold, of Moltke avenue, who died Saturday, will take place this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment in Minnoka.

Miss Helm, of No. 3 school, very pleasantly entertained a number of her friends at her home on Pittston avenue Friday evening.

DUNMORE. The services in the Methodist Episcopal church yesterday were well attended, large congregations greeting the pastor, Rev. A. J. Van Cleft, who preached on the subjects, "Rejoicing in the Lord," in the morning, and "The Battle for Bread," in the evening.

Rev. J. L. Kreamer preached in the Dunmore Street Baptist church yesterday morning and evening, the themes of his sermons being "David, the Penitent," and "The Remedy for Sinful Hearts."

A social and entertainment will be held under the auspices of the ladies of the Methodist Episcopal church, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Wert, on Thursday evening next.

At the Tripp Avenue Christian church yesterday Rev. J. D. Dabney preached in the morning on "Watchfulness," and in the evening on "Sin and Its Costs." The services were well attended.

Rev. W. F. Gibbons preached in the Presbyterian church yesterday morning and evening as usual.

Some person or persons, maliciously inclined, entered the home rooms of the Scranton Fire company, on Drinker street, Saturday, and stole a pair of rubber boots. Petty thievery also continues in other neighborhoods of the borough.

The members of the Women's Home and Foreign Missionary and the Young Ladies' Mission circle of the Presbyterian church will hold a rummage HUMAN NATURE STUDIES. Not Speaking to Him. MR. GROVER CLEVELAND, it is reported in a dispatch, is "not satisfied" with the Democratic platform.

Which reminds us, an embarrassed guest of narrow relations was once suddenly asked to sign a blessing at table, and as the speaker closed his mouth in a sentence of grace a host at the other end of the table broke in: "I couldn't hear a word you said." "I wasn't talking to you, sir," was the prompt reply.

A Good Thing to Cherish. FORMER GOVERNOR BRADBURY, of Augusta, for some time Maine's chief executive, is still living in his old home, and although nearly a century old, he is hale and hearty, says a Washington correspondent of the New York Tribune. When asked the other day if he had always been well, the governor said:

"No, when I was a young man I had to leave college because of ill health, and my disease was thought to be incurable."

"Well, governor," said the interlocutor, "you must have had a lot of experience in getting and keeping well; what would you advise to insure longevity?"

"To get an invariable ailment in your youth," responded the old gentleman smiling, "and nurse it until your death."

Apologized to the Wrong One. LORD JOHN RUSSELL was not tactful, says the Chicago News. On one occasion he took the Duchess of Inverness down to dinner, and after he had sat down for a minute he jumped up and went to the opposite side of the table and sat by the Duchess of St. Albans. His wife asked him afterward why he had done it. He said:

"I should have been ill if I sat with my back to that great big 'F' lord."

His Ideal Rudely Displeased. THERE is an interesting story told of the infant, which is, perhaps, the most popular of all Paderewski's compositions, says the Chicago News. Paderewski, who is a professor at the Conservatoire of Warsaw, was once writing the music of a Polish post, Skrzatowski, who expressed the opinion that no living composer could compare with Mozart in beauty and simplicity. At the moment Paderewski merely shrugged his shoulders, but the following evening he appeared, and asked permission to play his best little thing of Mozart's which, perhaps, he did not know. He played the minuet. Skrzatowski was enraptured and cried triumphantly:

"Now you must acknowledge that a piece like that could not have been written in our time!"

"Well," said Paderewski, "that happens to be a minuet composed by me."

Primitive Emotion. MARY ROSE, aged 8 years, was telling Elsie, aged 17, about the making of the world. "And Adam was the first creature," she announced, solemnly. "So it was awfully lonely for him, and one day, when he was asleep, the Lord took a rib out of his side and made a woman out of it—Adam would have a friend to play with him."

"And wasn't Adam 'sprimed'?" asked Elsie. "Surprised! Why he was just tickled to death!" said Marie Rose ecstatically.—New York Commercial-Advertiser.

A Boom in the Cat Trade. GENERAL SIR HERBERT CHAMBERLAIN, who is now in South Africa, was formerly a consul in Asia Minor, where he was very popular, says Collier's Weekly. Once, in a weak moment, he sent a couple of beautiful Angora cats to a lady in Constantinople. The lady was so pleased that she asked him to send some more. Sir Herbert gave his native servant some money and told him to go and buy two or three. Then came a demand for more cats from the consul's friends, and he gave his servant more money with which to buy cats. This went on for two or three months, and the native servant was exceeding fat that morning, however, the general, on coming out of the consulate, was surrounded by a host of infuriated veiled women, who brought Mahomet to curse him because he had stolen all their cats. It appears that the native servant had pocketed the money for himself and gone round with a sack and collected every cat in the place.
