"A Bell Boy" is a laughable musical farce-comedy, and may be seen at the Honesdale opera house on Wednesday and Thursday evenings of this week for the first time. The play is presented by a competent company of people and is sure to please. Saturday night James Drake, of Hawley, was brought before Justice Smith, charged with throwing stones and using insulting language to some striking glass-cutters, who had rework in the shop of J. S. O'Conner. He was committed to jail. Bail was furnished late Saturday night. but he was not released until Monday morning.

District Attorney Lawrence M. Atkinson will probably succeed Mr. W. W. Wood as chairman of the Wayne county Republican committee.

Miss Isabella Calloway has resigned her position in the Independent office, and will go to New York. October 1. where she will enter the Woman's Art school at Cooper union. Grand jury court is being held this week. The Maple City band will accompany the Erie excursion to Binghamton next Sunday. The shortage of coal is felt already in Honesdale, although without any locked, and failing to gain entrance, serious results thus far. The factories several shots were fired through the are kept running by the use of the culm taken from the fillings of the duff's thigh. He also fired on the asabandoned gravity works. This is sailants, but to no effect. The young screened and made possible to burn. man seemed to have presence of mind as Keystone has done but very little practicing yet, and played men who had never played the game before. Christy Mathewson, who has been holding a position on the New York National league base ball team the past season, has been spending a few days here with his parents, prior to returning to Bucknell university. He has won new laurels for himself in the pitcher's box this year, and has taken good care of himself, therefore we expect in another season to hear more of his marvelous work on the diamond. have returned from an extended tour through the west. Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Mathewson returned Friday from a three weeks' stay with friends in New York state.

BRADFORD COUNTY.

thews, of Trinity Memorial church, in Binghamton, assisted by Miss Wescott and the male quartette of Trinity church.

HALLSTEAD. ecial to the Scranton Tribune.

Hallstead, Sept. 24 .- At the teachcounty institute which meets in Montrose next month, many arrangements are being made to make it a big year among the teachers and directors, Among the new features will be an institute manual, which will be printed and distributed gratis to the teachers and others. The manual is to contain the names and addresses of all the teachers and directors of the county. The funeral of William Sweet father of Mrs. Frank Mack, was held from the home of Frank Mack last Saturday. Interment was in Rose Hill cemetery. He was an estimable gen-

TUNKHANNOCK. pecial to the Scrinton Tribune. Tunkhannock, Sept. 24 .- The conference of the Democratic party for the Twenty-third Senatorial district, met here today after an adjournment over Sunday and after several ballots were taken, nominated Attorney Maynard, of Athens, as their candidate for senator. The conference was deadlocked, each county having two conferees, and Wyoming's two supporting C. A. Little, of this place, and the two supporting Maynard, The nomination certificate under the law is required to be filed at Harrisburg on Tuesday, and in order to make the nomination in time to get the certificate filed it was necessary to make the nomination today. Under those circumstances, the two candidates drew lots and the choice fell to the Bradford man. Owing to the mix up chance of carrying the district this fall. C. B. Little, of Scranton, spent Sunday in town.

As a result of the shooting affair at Wyalusing Saturday night, by which the night operator at the Lehigh Valley station at that place was seriously injured. Sheriff Gray was notified carly Sunday morning that three tramps were coming south on a freight train, and to be on the look-out for them as they were suspected of being the ones who did the shooting. The sheriff deputized G. O. Skinner and H. M. Howell, and the three watched the freights as they came in here. About 11 o'clock one pulled in, and an examination discovered four tramps in one of the cars. They were taken out and placed in jall and the authorities notified. Railroad Detective Caskey came down from Sayre yesterday afternoon.
