Mrs. Hall So Testified in Court Yesterday When a Continuance of the Case of Her Deceased Husband and Herself Against the Scranton Railway Company Was Asked-Trespass Suit Began Involving Prominent Carbondale Men - Issuing Commissions for Coal and Iron

Mrs. Charles E. Hall, of Schnell court, formerly Miss Anna Brumbaugh, was placed in an unenviable position in court yesterday. Several years ago Mrs. Hall was injured by one of the cars of the Scranton Rail way company. She alleges she had several ribs broken and her hip dislocated. At that time she was liv ing at Mudtown, with Charles E. Hall, and some time later an action was brought in the name of Charles E. Hall and Anna Hall to recover damages for the injuries, Mrs. Hall seeking to recover for the injury done to her and the husband for medical attendance, loss of her services and society. The suit was brought by the late Judge Stanton and after his demise Attorney C. W. Dawson was employed in the case

In the meantime, Hall had died and In the meantime, Hall had died and when the case came up yesterday Mr. Dawson asked for a continuance to enable him to substitute the name of Hall's administrator. This was objected to by Major Everett Warern, for the company, who contended that Mrs. Hall was not the wife of the between the following children: Ann Alber Saydow, William Bayis, Action Davis, Mars Annually Mars Andre Davis, Wars Annually Wars Andre Davis Wars Annually Wars Annually Wars Annually Wars Andre Davis Wars Andre Davis Wars Annually Wars Andre Davis Wars Andre Davis Wars Annually Wars Andre Davis Mrs. Hall was not the wife of the deceased and that they were not living together as man and wife at the time of the accident nor for some time thereafter.

Mrs. Hall was sworn and admitted she had never been married to Hall, but they had lived together as man and wife under a mutual agreement that they were such and that two children were born to them, both of whom are dead. She admitted they were not living together at the time of the accident, having quarreled, but that she returned to him some tim Judge Kelley decided to grant the continuance asked for.

The case of E. J. Wolfgang, a Penn avenue baker, against the Scranton Railway company was then put on trial before Judge Keliy. Wolfgang alleges that his bakery wagon was run into and badly damaged by one of the defendant company's cars.

The defense was that a man named Weiss, who drove Wolfgang's wagon, was responsible for the accident, having tried to cross the track directly in front of a car that was descending the Penn avenue hill.

Before Judge Searle, in the Superior court room, the trial of the case of J. D. Stocker against the borough of Jermyn was resumed yesterday morning and the entire day was consumed in hearing the cyldenes on the part of the defense. It is contended that Stocker's property was not damaged by the grading of Bacon and Main streets, as he alleges, but on the contrary was benefitted.

The case of D. K. Oakley against C. W. Thompson, administrator, was called for trial last week and a non suit was granted. Yesterday court granted a rule to show cause why the non suit shuld not be stricken off.

The trespass case of E. J. Ehrgood against the Orient Insurance company was yesterday settled, upon the payment of $310 to the plaintiff.

Prominent Men Involved.

William R. Moon, of Carbondale, through his attorneys, Vesburg & Dawson, yesterday began a damage suit in the sum of $10,000 against John W. Dimock, of that city, whom he charges with defamation of character.

Mr. Dimock not being a freeholder. a caplas was asked for and granted by Prothonotary Copeland, in order that he may be brought in to enter bail in the sum of $1,000, this being required

Both plaintiff and defendant were lately members of the Carbondale school board and each belonged to one of the two rival factions at that time existing in that body. Mr. Moon's term has lately expired.

In the affidavit filed with the prothonotary, Mr. Moon states that on September 17, 1999, Mr. Dimock made certain statements intended to wilfully injure his good name. He states that Dimock on that occasion said that he (Moon) had offered to get C. H. Lee, a janitor, a raise in his salary of $10 and to have this date back two months, provided the said Lee gave him (Moon)

Mr. Moon contends that these state ments were entirely untrue and without foundation. He claims that he has been greatly injured by these statements; that they have brought him into disrepute with his neighbors; that by reason of them he has been attacked in the public press; that they have caused him great anxiety of mind and finally that they have greatly injured his "good fame and name." Both of the gentlemen are prominent merchants and are recognized as being among the leading citizens of the city.

Issuing Commissions.

During the last week Recorder of Deeds Warnke has issued about +00 commissions to coal and iron policemen in the employ of coal mining companies of this county. The men will be used in protecting property.

The commissions are issued by the governor under a special act of the broke off the match recently, and legislature passed some years ago, and since then McCafferty has been dethe officer has the same powers usually conferred upon peace officers His commission, while it comes from the governor, is issued locally through the recorder of deeds and has to be recorded by him before it becomes effective.

JAMES HOWARD FOUND GUILTY

Jury Decides That He Fired the Shot Which Killed Senator Goebel, and Fix the Penalty at Death.

Frankfort, Ky., Sept. 26,-James Howard was this morning found guilty of firing the shot which killed Senator Goebel and the jury fixed the penalty at death. The crime occurred in front of the capitol building on January 20, this year, as Schator Goebel was walking to the executive hall with Colonel Jack Chinn. The senator died on Feb.

At 9.50 this morning the jury file I nto the court room. "Gentlemen, have you reached a verdict?" asked the judge. "We have," responded Wash Crutchr, foreman.

The verdict was then handed to the lerk, who read: "We, the jury, find he prisoner guilty as charged and fix he penalty at death." Howard sat unmoved as the verdict was read. He was very pale and sat in kep silence for a long time. Attorney Little, who had come in later, and John Little were at his side. Neither spoke word. Judge Cantrill then congratulated the jury for the work and disharged it. The trial of James Howard has been in progress since September

10. before Judge Cantrill. Howard is from Manchester, Clay unty, and is a member of fued family. He admitted killing George Baker, for which he is now under indictment.

The defense tried to prove an alibi for Howard. It was claimed that at he time of Goebel's assassination, Howard was at the Board of Trade said Howard was not there. During the trial, nearly 100 witnesses were examined. The trial has been the | Lacks. LOVE SICK FLORIST COMMITS SUICIDE.

Charles McCafferty Jumps Into the Christiana River.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Wilmington, Del., Sept. 26.- Because he was disappointed in love, Charles F. McCafferty, aged 27, a florist, committed suicide early this morning by jumping into the Christiana river at Shipley street wharf. Warren Wilson, of Baltimore, saw a man kneeling in prayer on Shipley street wharf, and while he watched him, the man arose and jumped overboard. Men threw a rope to McCafferty, but the suicide refused help. The body was recovered, and from a note found in the pocket, it was evident that Mc-Cafferty had contemplated suicide. Mrs. Kate McCafferty, of Monroe street and Concord avenue, mother the suicide, says that the mother of the woman whom McCafferty loved

THE MARKETS.

Wall Street Review.

New York, Sept. 26.—The stock market was more leverish and irregular today than for months. The movement of prices was very wide and the dealings were on a large scale, but the action of the market indicated that it was being tested by professional operators. The rally which set in the first of the week, seemed to have culminated during the morning session and the over enthusiastic buils who attempted to bid up prices against the outstanding short account found themselves burdened with increasing offerings to realize instead of driving the shorts to cover. They therefore allowed prices to drop back and the market fell into dullness at about last night's level. The bear side apparently made up their minds that the elimination of the short interest had so far weakened the technical position of the market as to warmant a fres hinroad upon prices. The raid was conducted with determination and showed the command of large resources. Northern Pacific and Missouri Pacific were the special objects of attack. The raid was successful in disolaring stop loss orders and the whole market fell away with some violence. Most of the leading stocks were a point or more below last night's level before the decline colminated. The early advance had shown gains of a point for many stocks. The nervous cundition of the beam was strikingly shown in the violent recovery of the last half haur of the market when a runcer got into circulation that the stille of coal minors had been settled. This runor was attributed to false renorts and the beam bought to cover in considerable haste. Some violent recoveries were the consequence. Reading first preferred rallying 3½ on wide impay and New Jersey Central 3. The covering movement extended throughout the list aid prices retraced their course to almost the top revolute whom until after the close of the market what the miners settlement applied only to one mine where peculiar conditions existed did not become known until after the close of the market, what effect the actual facts may have remains t actual developments which might change the

The bond market was dull and centinued in ocular. Total sales, par value, $1,000,000. U. h. new 4s advanced 1g, and all other issues 14 ser cent. in the bid price.
