CARBONDALE.

AT HYMEN'S SHRINE.

A number of couples made known to the world yesterday that they will share the joys and perplexities of the remainder of their lives together. G. Frank Couch, the well known insurance agent, went to Uniondale and married Miss Edith, the daughter of the Hon. Philo Burritt. Rev. H. J. Crane performed the ceremony at 8 o'clock a. m. and Mr. and Mrs. Couch left on the Erie train north for an extended tour.

At noon James Gorman, merchant, of South Main street, and Miss Julia Houston, of South Main street, were married by Rev. T. F. Coffey at St Rose church. They were attended by the bride's sister, Miss Alice Houston and John Delaney, of New York. The out-of-town guests at the reception were: Dr. McGrath, and the Misses Crossin, of Scranton; W. J. Coyne and J. E. Boyle and Miss Boyle, of Pittston, Lieutenant P. J. O'Brien, and Willlam Lockhart, of Philadelphia: Miss Costello, of Elmira, and Miss Grier, of Dickson.

Last evening at Elkdale Thomas Morgan, an employe at Alvord and Male's general store and a well known man about town, was united with Miss Elizabeth Thomas in the holy bonds of matrimony. The wedding took place home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Mary Thomas and was attended by the relatives of the contracting par-

ANTHRACITE WILL BE CLOSED.

It was announced yesterday that the Anthracite hotel will be closed on October first. At intervals of a few months for the past two or three years the owners of Hotel American and of Hotel Anthracite have endeavored to reach some sort of an agreement whereby one of these hostelries might be closed, to the profit of the one remaining open, but negotiations were always declared off without having effected the sought-for result. At last it has been decided to close the Anthracite. The bar and billiard room will remain open and the Eric ticket office will continue to have a place in the building. Store rooms and offices will be offered for rent in the building.

Pretty Wedding in Sacred Heart Church-Cellar Flooded - Personal

Miss Mary Tallet, of Mayfield, and Mr. Michael J. Brennan, of Archbald, were united in marriage at Sacred Heart church at 2.30 o'clock vesterday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by Rev. M. E. Lynott, paster of the church, and was witnessed by a large number of friends of the happy young couple. Miss Mary Walker was birdesmaid, and both the bride and her maid were attired in pretty cream costumes. The groom was attended by Mr. J. Farrell, of Archbald.

Proprietor Johns, of the Sweeney house, has a just grievance against the borough, and has been put to considerable annoyance by the defective water ditch running past his property to the river. Last Friday evening his cellar was flooded and a considerable quantily of catables he had there were ruined as a result of the ditch being blocked. It would cost the borough bu a small sum of money to repair the street and prevent Mr. Johns being similarly annoyed after every heavy rainfall. There will be a special meeting of

READ HIS EDITORIAL.

From the Times, Hillstille, Va. I suffered with diarrhoea for a long time and thought I was past being cured, I had spont much time and money and suffered so much misery that I had almost decided to give up all hopes of recovery and await the result, but noticing the advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and also some testimonials stating how some wonderful cures had been wrought by this remedy. I decided to try it. After taking a few doses I was entirely well of that trouble, and I wish to say further to my readers and fellow-sufferers that I am a hale and hearty man today and feel as well as I ever did in my life .- O. Rence do Cocheforet of the cust.

The play has been seen here so often that discussion of its merits is unnecessary. Suffice t to say, that Stauley Weyman's excellent story If the Richellen period of French history has been transferred to the stage in a most worthy manner, and as presented last night the full clurm of the story was revealed. The scenery, costumes, etc., were in keeping with the char acter of the play.

"We 'uns of Tennessee.

The Aubrey dramatic company presented it beautiful play, from the pen of Lee Arthur-last evening, entitled "We uns of Tennessee." The piece was staged in a magnificent manner the scenery was superb, and judging from the applause the audience enjoyed it immensely. "We 'uns of Tennessee" is a war play with out the usual noise and shooting prominent is war dramas. The story of the play runs on in eldents, supposed to have taken place in camp at Chicomauga during the recent war between control of the United States and Spain. Miss Jean Con-elocutionist and her engagement in this gill, as Mandy Monroe, was all that could be cover affords a splendid opportunity expected. Sydney Ayres, as Jack Gray, made an exceptionally big hit, as did Uleses Davis as Captain Jack Thomas. A very elever bit of as Captain Jack thomas. A very freet of the character acting was done by Harry Sigglins in the role of Lige Monroe, the rough mountaineer. On account of the great satisfaction given by this piece it will be repeated Friday evening. This afternoon "Faust" will be preented, and tonight, "Red, White and Blue" will se the attraction.
