DR. GIFFIN ON THE NEED OF A CREED. SPOKE IN ELM PARK CHURCH LAST NIGHT.

Said Creeds Should Be Taken Into the Heart and Not Tucked on Shelves—A Right Creed Is Necessary to a Proper Development—Revising the Creed Is Despairing It. If Much More Is Washed Out There Would Remain Only a Gospel of Sound Instead of a Sound Gospel.

Rev. Dr. C. M. Giffin, pastor of the Elm Park Methodist Episcopal church, delivered a sermon before a large congregation last night on the topic, "Why Stick to a Creed?"

There are a great many folk who don't believe even the cardinal facts of the creed of the church to which they belong. There are some churches in which the ordinary person is never expected to assent to the creed.

One of the things I like about my Catholic brethren down on the corner is the thorough way they have of educating the children and of impressing on their minds their particular dogmas and beliefs.

insipidity our notions of religion will be of little use to us. I saw advertised in a magazine—will miss it. We will have a gospel of sound rather than a sound gospel."

Pointed Question Asked by the Rev. James Hughes. Rev. James Hughes, in the Adams Avenue Presbyterian chapel, last night preached a sermon in which he asked the question, "Why do men not attend church more regularly?"

I think it is generally admitted that there is a very great reluctance on the part of many men to attend church. It is very obvious that there is a very large preponderance of women at our church services.

When any of the family are dangerously ill a minister or some faithful member of the church is sent for to pray or minister in spiritual things to the sufferer.

Even the most pronounced non-church-goer would be shocked if any Christian refused to pray and for his consistency considered it beneath him to officiate at the funeral of his deceased wife.

Now were you to charge such men with inconsistency, they would resent such a charge with indignation, yet it would be most difficult to point out where their inconsistency consisted.

Ought we not and shall we not honor God by assembling together in the house of worship to praise him with the great host and living fountain of all the blessings which have come down to us through human channels.

Will be the effect of your conduct on the life and destiny of your sons? How many young men have been wrecked on the barren rocks of a father's example?

Rev. Dr. Moore, of Kingston, occupied the pulpit of the Providence Methodist Episcopal church yesterday morning.
