Beautiful Draperies Are Not Expensive

CURIOS MURDER CASE.

Only Witness to the Crime Cannot Write, Talk, Hear or Walk.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 2.—There is a curious murder case in Washington. James C. Lanckton, alias J. C. Long, who is described on the circus posters as "the American Hercules," is accused of taking the life of a woman named Bettie L. Wren, with whom he had relations, and the only witness is her sister, a paralytic, who cannot write, talk, hear or walk. She is an absolute helplessness in Washington.

Lanckton is somewhere in the neighborhood of sixty-five years of age, and has performed in circuses for thirty-six years with the exception of six years, when he served as a soldier during the war in the Ninth Indiana Infantry, having enlisted at Logansport. He has been with every circus of fame since he left the Grand Army of the Republic to come to his relief. His case is now being investigated.
