CARBONDALE.

FINGERS CAUGHT IN PRESS.

Claude Lamreaux, a bright little 14-year-old boy, employed at the office of the Carbondale Review, met with a painful accident last evening at 6 o'clock. He was feeding a job printing press and as he glanced from his work in a momentary thoughtlessness, the jaw of the powerful machine closed on the third and fourth fingers of his left hand, fastening them between beds of iron, not more than an eighth of an inch apart. Not until the awful squeeze commenced was he aware of any danger. The same instant it was all over, and the plucky lad was on his way to a doctor's with his flattened digits. The fingers were taken up to the middle joints, but Dr. Wheeler, who dressed the wounds, thinks they can be saved.

H. B. REILLY TO LEAVE.

H. B. Reilly, editor of the News, will next week sever his connection with that paper and go to Philadelphia, where he has found a wider field for his expanding talents. During a residence of nearly two years, Mr. Reilly has been a prominent figure in the town. He managed and edited the News until it was purchased by E. W. Fletcher, who purchased a few months ago by Hartwell and Behre, since which time he has been its editor and advertising solicitor. He has been a staunch advocate of municipal water and has performed valuable service on the citizens' committee. For a time he was among the basses of the Methodist church choir.

FLOURISHING UNION.

Eleven new members have been added to the Young Men's union, which is already in a flourishing condition. Last evening, Dr. W. W. Fletcher gave an interesting address before the union on the subject of "Amusements." Next Sunday, E. E. Garr, superintendent of schools, will be the principal speaker.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Skeels are visiting friends in Owego. Louis Davis is on the sick list. W. G. Hathaway has returned to his studies in the New York college of Pharmacy. Miss Emma Gilmarth and Thomas Harte will be married in St. Rose church at 4 o'clock. All the Jewish stores of the city will be closed today in honor of the Day of Atonement. The funeral of the late Mrs. Michael Lynady will take place Thursday morning at 9:30 o'clock. Services will be held in St. Rose church and interment will be made in St. Rose cemetery.

OLYPHANT.

Fire broke out on the roof of the Taylor building, on Lackawanna street, yesterday morning at 10 o'clock. An alarm was sounded from Box 23, but the blaze was extinguished with a few buckets of water. The fire started from a spark from the chimney in the kitchen of the part of the building occupied by Richard Daw.

Mrs. Richard Owens, of Blakely, who is seriously ill with typhoid fever, was removed to the Scranton private hospital yesterday. The fire started from a spark from the chimney in the kitchen of the part of the building occupied by Richard Daw.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church are making preparations to hold a calico social next Wednesday evening in the church parlors. A good time is anticipated.

The Independent Order of Odd Fellows, No. 581, are requested to attend divine service at the Blakely Baptist church next Sunday evening. All members are requested to meet at the hall at 6:30 o'clock.

There will be a meeting of the Excelsior Hose company on Friday evening.

John Williamson was a caller here yesterday.

A cluster of incandescent lights have been placed on top of the fountain on Lackawanna street, which adds much to the appearance of that locality.

The Oliphant Browns defeated the West Side Browns in a game on the Oliphant grounds yesterday afternoon. The score was 7 to 3.

Miss Florence Howard has returned home, after a visit with relatives at New York.

Mrs. A. W. Shaw, of Blakely, is spending a few weeks in New York state.

John Munley, of Avoca, who has been visiting his sister, Mrs. John Lally, of Lackawanna street, returned home yesterday.

REV. S. A. DONAHOE Testifies to the Good Qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

On the 10th of December, 1897, Rev. S. A. Donahoe, pastor M. E. church, South, Pt. Henry, Pa., contracted a severe cold which was attended from the beginning by violent coughing. He says: "After resorting to a number of so-called 'specifics' usually kept in the house, to no purpose, I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which acted like a charm. I most cheerfully recommend it to the public. For sale by all druggists. Matthew Bros., wholesale and retail agents."

JERMYN AND MAYFIELD. David E. Jones and William M. Davis are visiting the latter's brother, Thomas M. Davis, at the Anthracite farm, which he recently purchased, and they will spend several days with him assisting in getting in the crops.

W. E. Davis has returned to Washington, D. C., to resume his studies at the Howard university.

Joseph and Willie Lauder, of Scranton, are the guests of Jermyrn relatives in this borough. One of the latest subscribers to the Central Pennsylvania Telephone company.

Druggist P. M. Graves has returned from his trip to New York city. Notices concerning the concessions made by the Hillside Coal company
