McNALLY'S CAUSE POLICE TROUBLE

THREE OF THE TROUBLESOME QUARTETTE UNDER ARREST.

Constables Lance and Jones had to call Patrolmen Evans and Jones to assist them—Royal Arcanum smoker—Wedding at St. Patrick's—Carpenter lost his tools—Republican Club Meeting and Ivories' House-warming—Other Police and Aldermanic Cases—Notes and Personal.

Three of probably the toughest characters the police and constables have ever had dealings with are now locked up in the station house on Jackson street, and before nightfall the fourth member of the gang will undoubtedly be in the toils. The quartette is composed of Patrick, John and Martin McNally and their sister, Mrs. Bridget Maddocks.

The McNallys reside in Hand's place, between Hampton and Eynon street, and have been terrorized to the whole neighborhood for many months. Even the owner of the house, Mrs. Beckett-Thomas, cannot collect the rent due her from them, on account of her failure to obtain entrance to the premises, but now that the gang has been broken up, the residents in that locality are in hopes that the landlord will take steps to fumigate the place.

Yesterday Patrick Lally threatened the life of Mary Troy, one of the neighbors, and she swore out a warrant before Alderman Moses. Constables John Lance and Timothy Jones attempted to arrest him last evening, but they were prevented by his sister and two brothers, John and Martin.

While the constables were after Patrolmen Thomas Evans and Thomas Jones, Patrick McNally went to D. M. Jones' drug store and insulted District Mine Superintendent Evan J. Williams, who was standing in front of the place. This caused more trouble and it was only through the efforts of the more law-abiding citizens that a riot was averted as a result of the insult.

Meantime the officers appeared and placed Patrick under arrest and incidentally met with much interference from the other members of the family. Martin succeeded in escaping by jumping through a window, but Patrick, John and Bridget are in the toils. They will be given a hearing this morning.

You May Spend All the Money

You please on handsome furniture, costly paintings, statuary and other magnificent ideas, but if you take away softening influences and charming graces of appropriate draperies, the effect of all your collection of costly beauty would be so diminished as to become wearisome to the eye and a positive bore to the refined or sensitive mind.

Beautiful Draperies Are Not Expensive

This week we are making a practical demonstration of this fact, and the practical home maker, housekeeper, or cozy room or corner furnisher may learn much in a few minutes spent in our Drapery Department these days that all the reading and home study of a month could not impart. The truth is, we are enthusiastic on the subject of

Popular Priced Draperies

And upholsterings and offer opportunities to buyers of taste such as are not to be had elsewhere. All the new fabrics, tone effects and colorings are seen at their best in our extensive collection, and our long and successful study of how to make homes beautiful at a surprisingly low cost may be of value to you.

Of Course, We Include Lace Curtains

Door Panels, Sash Curtains, etc. Some are made in the Scranton factory, others come from abroad, inexpensive Nottinghams and Irish Points are much sought after and the new art effects are lovely. Then there are the dainty Muslin and Swiss Curtains with ruffles or plain; elegant Brussels and Irish Point goods; Oriental European and American hangings, etc., none of which will frighten you by their cost. Suppose you drop in and see them this week.

Globe Warehouse

Arcanum, will conduct another of their popular members' socials and smokers. The committee having charge of the details promise an entirely new bill of fare in the way of refreshments, and if the old saying that "the best way to reach a man is through his stomach" is still true, then it is safe to predict that all those who have been favored with invitations will be on hand.

In addition to the "feed," an unusually attractive programme has been prepared. Mayor Moir will be chairman of the social session, and is expected to deliver one of his characteristic speeches. The Green Ridge Wheelmen's quartette, John W. Jones and Prof. Llewellyn Jones will furnish the vocal and instrumental numbers, and City Solicitor Vosburg will speak on "Scranton as a City of the Second Class."

Past Regent Charles Oliver will also make an address on "Why I am an Arcanumite," and impromptu remarks will follow by members of the order. Several hundred invitations have been sent out, and the committee anticipate that tomorrow evening's event will eclipse all former efforts.

Kept the Police Busy.

At an early hour yesterday morning a crowd of young men from North Scranton, who make a practice of filing home on Lackawanna coal trains, were acting in a disorderly manner at the crossing, and Lieutenant Williams and Patrolman Peters cautioned them to desist.

Instead of heeding the warning they moved up the railroad towards the M. Pleasant street and began hurling epithets at the officers. One of the number, William Toner, of West Market street, was bold enough to defy the minions of the law, and when the latter made a dash for him, Toner sprinted away like a winner.

He secreted himself in a dark spot, and was congratulating himself on his success in eluding the officers, when a train approached. Meantime the lieutenant and his understudy had also gone into hiding, and when Mr. Toner attempted to board the train, he was placed under arrest. The experience cost him a five spot in police court yesterday.

Ivories' House-warming.

The rooms of the Robert Morris lodge of Ivories, at 124 and 126 South Main avenue, have been thoroughly renovated and tonight the members will hold a house-warming therein. A programme of much merit has been arranged and the committee in charge will provide refreshments for those who attend. The social session will follow after the regular meeting.

Wedding at St. Patrick's.
Patrick Barry, of 425 Twentieth street, and Miss Anna McNulty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony McNulty, of 1908 Luzerne street, were united in marriage at St. Patrick's church Tuesday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock by Rev. Francis Canavan.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Mayme McNulty, and John Kenney was groomsmen. The bride was becomingly attired in a suit of pearl gray, with crepe and pearl trimmings, and wore a hat to match. The bridegroom was attired as of old.

The wedding party were tendered a reception at the home of the bride's parents, and left the same evening for New York, Boston and other points of interest. Mr. and Mrs. Barry will be at home to their friends after October 10.

All on Account of the Strike.

The maxim that "sticks and stones will break one's bones, but names will never hurt them," was rather inappropriate to the termination of a case in the Adams' court yesterday. One John Richards, of Eynon street, is employed at the Bellevue washery as a watchman, and while he was in the vicinity of his home a number of children tantalized him by calling him a "scab."

Without much ado he picked up a brick and hurled it into the crowd, striking Mrs. Llewellyn Davis on the head, inflicting a severe scalp wound. She had gone into the street to take one of her children away from the scene of the trouble, and received the injury for her reward. The alderman held Richards under $200 bail for appearance at court on the charge of assault and battery.

Carpenter Lost His Tools.

Charles Lee, of North Bromley avenue, a carpenter employed by Washington, Williams & Co., lost his kit of tools yesterday. The alderman was waiting at the corner of Main avenue and Jackson street for a street car, and laid the tools down in front of John's shoe store.

When the car arrived Lee forgot to take his tools along and did not miss them until he reached the house on Jefferson avenue where he is engaged. Upon his return to the corner, a half hour afterward, no trace of the tools could be found.

If the finder does not know Mr. Lee, the tools can be left at the West Scranton branch of The Tribune and Jenkins drug store, and they will be restored to him. The loss has been reported to the police.

Republican Club Meeting.

A regular meeting of the West Side Republican club will be held this evening in their rooms over Harker & Warnke's store. The uniforms for the Rough Riders' squad will be distributed and final arrangements made for the opening meeting of the campaign in Meers' hall on Thursday evening, Oct. 11.

The campaign committee will make its report, and the other incidental business will be acted upon. Every member of the club who feels interested in the welfare of the Republican party is urgently requested to attend the meeting, and all others desirous of identifying themselves with the party are cordially invited to be present.

Funeral Announcements.

The funeral of the late John Gilligan will take place at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning from the house, 309 Chestnut street. Services will be held in St. Patrick's church at 10 o'clock. Interment will be made in the Cathedral cemetery.

MUST BELIEVE IT.

When Well-Known Scranton People Tell It So Plainly.

When public endorsement is made by a representative citizen of Scranton the proof is positive. You must believe it. Read this testimony. Every backache sufferer, every man, woman or child with any kidney trouble will find profit in the reading.

Mr. A. W. Klotz, of 1514 Lafayette street, painter by trade, says: "Five years ago I was afflicted with kidney trouble which settled in my bladder. Ever after my kidneys troubled me a great deal. I used many different remedies and took medicine from a doctor who pronounced my trouble catarrh of the bladder, but I got little if any relief. My condition was continually growing worse, and there was a constant dull pain across my back, often sitting down or getting up and turning about the pain became very sharp. I had to work often for hours in a stooping position and if I straightened up my back felt as though it would snap in two. The kidney secretions were irregular, of a high color and a disagreeable odor, and accompanied by too frequent action. I was finally laid up unable to do any work. At this time a friend recommended Doan's Kidney Pills to me. I had not much faith in them, but I went to Matthews' Bros' drug store and got a box. I received so much benefit from this that I continued the treatment until well."

NORTH SCRANTON NOTES.

Marriage of Charles Bertine and Miss Emma Wilson Celebrated Yesterday—Other Notes.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Robinson, of Oak street, was the scene of a very pretty wedding yesterday morning at 11 o'clock, when the latter's sister, Miss Emma Wilson, was united in marriage to Charles Bertine, of the central city. The couple were attended by Rev. J. B. Sweet.

They entered the front parlor, where they were met by the Rev. G. E. Guild, pastor of the Providence Presbyterian church, who performed the wedding ceremony. The bride wore a traveling gown of castor color and hat to match. She carried an immense bouquet of white carnations. After the ceremony, which was witnessed only by the relatives of the contracting parties, a wedding luncheon was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Bertine left amid showers of rice and congratulations, on the 12:55 Delaware, Lackawanna and Western train for New York city. They will visit many other places of interest before their return.

Mrs. Bertine is a beautiful young woman and is highly esteemed by her many friends. Her husband holds a lucrative position with A. B. Warman, the laundryman, and enjoys a large acquaintance.

Brief News Notes.

Fire broke out in the home of Mrs. Jane Langan, of McDonough avenue, yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock. An alarm was sent in from box 81, and was quickly responded to by the Excelsior, Niagara and Liberty hose companies. As the flames had made but little headway, they were quickly extinguished. There was but slight damage done to the property. The fire was probably caused by an overheated stove in the kitchen.

Mrs. Frank W. Davis and children, of St. Clair, Pa., who have been the guests of relatives in this section of the city for the past month, have returned home.

Miss Beatrice Willis, who has been the guest of Mrs. William Lowry, of Church avenue, returned to her home in Huntington, Pa., yesterday afternoon.

In honor of these events, many friends were invited to participate in the festivities, which they did, also remembering both parties by substantial presents. Mr. and Mrs. Senkler were the recipients of many valuable and handsome silver presents, while Mrs. Gunter was also finely remembered. ### They Ate Toadstools.

J. Stawicki, a Polish living on Locust street, while in the vicinity of Mountain Lake one day last week, picked what he thought was a choice mess of mushrooms and took a large quantity of them home. He also gave some to his neighbors.

The supposed mushrooms turned out to be toadstools, and as a result, all who ate them became deathly sick, and on the following day, vigorous consultations did they offset the influence of the poison.

Stawicki ate the lion's share and also became very sick, and in vomiting strained himself severely, badly injuring his left lung. Dr. H. Quinn attended the family, and reports them doing nicely.

His Finger Severed.

John Bour, of Hickory street, a car inspector on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western, had the forefinger of his right hand severed at the second joint Monday in a most peculiar manner.

Mr. Bour's son takes and brings Mr. Bour to work in a carriage, and while coming home from work Monday evening, the latter was fixing the top, when it fell, catching him on the forehead, completely severing it. Dr. Kolb dressed the injured member.

HON. JOHN DIENHART'S MESSAGE TO SUFFERERS

He Writes a Letter to The Peruna Medicine Co., of Columbus, O., in Which He Gives His Experience with Peruna.

HON. JOHN DIENHART, Assistant Prosecutor, City Hall, Chicago, Ill.

Hon. John Dienhart, Assistant Prosecutor, City Hall, Chicago, Ill., is an enthusiastic believer in Peruna. The following letter was recently received by The Peruna Medicine Co.:

Gentlemen:—"Peruna is the best medicine I know of for kidney and liver complaint, rheumatism, catarrh of the stomach or lungs, and for all morbid conditions of the system. I place it at the head of all tonics and as a nerve restorer it has no superior."

Very truly yours,
JOHN DIENHART.

In systemic catarrh of the lungs, heart, bowels, stomach, kidneys, and all other parts of the mucous membranes are in a flabby, unhealthy condition. This is due to a want of nerve supply on account of nerve weakness.

The constant drain of nervous vitality depletes the whole nervous system and the mucous surfaces suffer accordingly. This is the condition called systemic catarrh. It very rarely cures itself, and there is really no practical difference between this condition and the condition known as neurasthenia or nervous prostration. Peruna will be found to effect an immediate and lasting cure in all cases of systemic catarrh. It acts quickly and beneficially on the diseased mucous membranes, and with healthy mucous membranes the catarrh can no longer exist.

Address The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, O., for a free catarrh book.
