Special to the Scranton Tribune. Susquehanna, Oct. 4.—Farmer Bill Winthrop lives near Brookdale. His eldest son, Bob, aged sixteen, a sturdy young fellow, for a year has been "under the weather" and able to do but little work on the farm.

Bob had a very bad attack of the stomach, but all of his physicians told him that he was laboring under a hallucination.

Bob had a perigrinating Indian doctor of the Onondaga tribe, struck Brookdale. He took Bob's case in hand and one day made him drink about a quart of some bitter decoction, after which he took him to a spring and placed him on his stomach.
