THE SCRANTON TRIBUNE- WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 10, 1900.

TRIAL OF THE CASE AGAINST DR. KNAPP

not unknown to the criminal courts of the county, was next put on trial, charged by James May with a vicious assault and battery upon Mrs. Mary Barnoski. The testimony of May and a man named Kinney was that they saw Ellman belaboring the woman with a black-jack on Emmet street, and they compelled him to desist and took him before Alderman Kelly, of the Eighteenth ward, who held Ellman in ball, for his appearance at court.

ELLMAN'S STORY.

Ellman's story was to the effect that he had arrested a boy for stealing copper wire from the Hunt & Connell warehouse, when Mrs. Barnoski came along and attacked him so savagely that he had to let him go. He alleges that the woman bit and otherwise left marks upon his person. To make her let go of him, he testified that he hit her over the head with the leather handle of his black-jack. Ellman was defended by Attorneys W. W. Baylor and M. J. Ruddy, and the commonwealth's side of the case was con-ducted by Attorney John M. Harris. A verdict had not been returned at the hour of adjournment.

Miss Margaret Burns was arraigned on charges of selling liquor without a license and on Sunday. She had not employed counsel and Attorney Ralph D. Levy was assigned by the court to defend her. George West testified that on Sunday, June 3, with F. W. Dodge, he visited the place kept by the defendant on North Main avenue in the First ward of this city, and purchased two bottles of beer. They saw no license of any kind displayed on the walls. The beer was sold to them by Miss Burns. There was no bar in sight and when they asked for been she went into an adjoining room and returned with two bottles of beer. Fred W. Dodge corroborated the testimony of West. Robert Wilson, the agent for the Men's union, testified to admissions made by the defendant to the effect that she sold liquor without a license

SHE BECAME EXCITED.

While he was testifying, Miss Burns said several times: "You lie!" "You lie!" "You must keep quiet!" sternly said

Judge Gordon to her. "I can't," exclaimed the woman,

"when he's telling lies." "You must, or you'll be sent to jail," said the judge, and the woman subsided. The defense was that Miss Burns and her sister conducted a small store and occasionally sold a bottle of beer to their neighbors. They did not have a bar and did not know they were violating the law. She was a dressmaker, but her hand became disabled and she was compelled to do something to make a living. In charging the jury the court said that the defendant had admitted selling and he did not see that they could do anything but render a verdict of guilty. Such a verdict was rendered. In the case of Anthony Dunleavy, charged with selling liquor without a license, which was given to the Jury by Judge Love just before the adjournment of the court Monday afternoon, a verdict of guilty was returned yesterday afternoon. The jury had great difficulty in reaching an agreement.

In the case of Mrs. Catherine Cannon, of Christ court, also charged ## out a license, preferred by Robert Wilson, agent for the Men's union, and his ball was forfelted and a caplas issued for him. The ball of Frank Shumiel, of Carbondale, was also forfeited. He is charged with selling liquor without a license by Constable Henry H. Pierce, of that place.

An assault and battery charge against Jacomo Sabio was tried before Judge Love. The prosecutor, Savino Prezioso, asserted that on June 10, last, as he was walking by the defendant's carriage, in Dunmore, he saw the latter strike at several children with his whip. When he protested the defendant then turned upon him, struck him several times with the whip and also struck his five-year-old boy. The defendant denied this story, and stated that he simply acted in self-defense after being attacked by the prosecutor. The verdict was not guilty, but pay one-half the costs.

Dennis Finnegan, of Carbondale, was acquitted of the charge of selling liquor without a license, and the costs were placed on the county. Constable Henry H. Pierce was the prosecutor. A nol pros. was entered in the case against Joseph Octzel and Charles Rossa, charged with selling liquor without a license. County Detective Leyshon was the prosecutor.

RUSH ON TRIAL.

Just before court adjourned Henry Rush was put on trial before Judge Gordon, charged with selling liquor without a license. Robert Wilson, of the Men's union, is prosecutor. Toni Minottl will be tried this morning before Judge Love on a charge of assault and battery, preferred by Ann Wallers Peter Marchuck, who is charged with criminal assault, entered ball in the $800. Thomas Hawson and sum of Ricz Marchuck were the sureties.

For a great many years doctors pro-nounced it a local disease, and preseribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to care with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Sel-ence has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional disease. All therefore manufactured by F. J. ### SCRANTON'S SHOPPING CENTER.

A Startling Silk Event As Broad in Importance as The Use of Silks by Women.

There is not a woman anywhere who loves charming waists, exquisite gowns or beautiful silk petticoats who is not intensely interested in such an offering as an important transaction of last week brings out in the Silk Department today. Big things in silk selling are a part of our daily store life, and we wouldn't waste much time or talk on limited quantities or common-place values. The silks of this offering are neither limited or common. Thousands of yards-remarkable aside from their cheapness.

The best feature of the offering, aside from the ridiculously low price, is the broad variety from which to choose-almost every variety of fancy silks is included, making it an offering to meet every need as well as every taste. There can be no disappointment among such a broad collection of high-class silk elegance, with selling liquor without a license. a verdict of guilty was returned yesterday morning. The jury in this case asked to be discharged Monday af-ternoon, but the court refused to grant request. They agreed soon after the adjourning hour, sealed their verdict and reported it to court westerday morning.

Part of the good fortune is at the cost of the manufacturers, other lots are smartly reduced from our own stocks.

MRS. CRANE CONVICTED.

The first case tried before Judge Love yesterday was that of Mrs. Sarah Crane, of Capouse avenue, Green Ridge, who was charged with selling liquor without a license. Robert Wilson, agent for the Men's union, was the prosecutor. The agents of the union testified that they visited Mrs. Crane's place on April 19 and purchased drinks from her of an intoxicating character. The record of the clerk of the court's office was produced and proved that Mrs. Crane was not granted a license to sell. The defendant endeavored to show that a previous conviction had been obtained in this case before Mayor Moir under the province of the city's speakeasy ordinance, and held that the defendant could not again be convicted for this offense. Judge Love refused to take this view of the case and thereupon the case was submitted to the jury without cvidence on the dress part of the defense. A verdict of men. guilty was returned, and the defendant recommended to the mercy of the court. M. J. Gilbride, of Brick avenue, this city, was tried on the charge of selling liquor without a license. This was also one of the Men's union cases. Several witnesses testified to having purchased liquor at the defendant's place on July 3, of this year. It was also shown that the defendant had an internal revenue license, and in his defense he stated that he only sold soft drinks and cigars. The jury of that case was out at adjourning hour.

PLEADED GUILTY.

Thomas Gerrity, of this city, pleaded guilty to selling liquor without a license. Robert Wilson, agent for the Men's union, was the prosecutor, Sentence was suspended until Saturday. Padden, the Washington avenue hotelkeeper, charged with selling liquor on Sunday, County Detective Leyshon was prosecutor. The same action was taken in the case of Mrs. Bridget Walsh, who also conducts a hotel on Washington avenue. She also was charged with selling on Sunday.

The first of the gambling cases to be prosecuted by the Men's union was called yesterday. The defendants were Philip Elliott and Charles Davis, who had rooms over the Windsor. Attorney Fred E. Beers was prosecutor, Elliott entered a plea of guilty, and was sentenced to $25 and costs. Davis did not appear and his bail was for-feited and a caplas issued for him.

Thomas E. Jones pleaded guilty to selling liquor without a license and will be sentenced Saturday.

William Simms entered a plea of guilty to a charge of aggravated as-sault and battery. He was sentenced to pay a fine of $1, costs, and spend one year in the county jail. John Moffitt failed to appear to an-

FATHER MATHEW DAY.

There Will Be No General Celebration in This City.

Today is the anniversary of the birth of Father Theobold Mathew, the great apostle of temperance, but the usual parade of all the Catholic Total Abstinence and Benevolent societies in the diocese of Scranton will not be held. It was to have been in Hazleton, but it was put off on account of the strike. It was then decided by the district board of the First district, comprising this city, to have a local parade, but this idea, too, was abandoned and there will be no general celebration. A number of the separate societies will have celebrations of their own, however. The Father Mathew society of West Scranton will give a ball in Mears' hall and the following societies will conduct smokers in their various rooms: St. John's, of Pine Brook; St. Aloysius, of South Scranton; St. Joseph's, of Minooka; St. Peter's, of Bellevue, and Father Whitty's of North Scranton.
