DR. C. R. KNAPP WAS FOUND GUILTY

WESTCOTT EXONERATED ON THE GROUND OF INSANITY.

He Went on the Stand in His Own Behalf and to Prove That He Is Not Unbalanced Wanted to Read One of His Own Poems-"Yellow Kids" Treid for Burglary and Larceny-Action Taken in a Number of Liquor Cases-Pleas of Guilty.

After court opened yesterday morning a verdict of guilty was returned in the case of the commonwealth against Dr. C. R. Knapp, of Forest City. It is generally understood that the case against Mrs. Ames will not be pressed, and that a reconciliation between herself and huband will be effected. Edward Stone Westcott was returned not guilty yesterday of the charge of blaspheming, on the ground that he is insane. He was given until Saturday to arrange his affairs, and some action will then be taken with reference to his case by the court. The witnesses examined yesterday on behalf of the commonwealth were County Detective Thomas Leyshon, Patrolman Kiah Peters, A. C. Heiser, Mrs. T. Phillips, C. E. Daniels, William Fowler, A. S. Wagstaff and William Marsh. They testified to the blaspemous language of Westcott on many occasions. He wanted to examine the witnesses, and his attorney, C. E. Ballentine, had great difficulty in restrain- guilty, county to pay the costs.

WESTCOTT ON THE STAND.

Westcott went on the stand in his own behalf, but would neither take an oath nor affirm. He said he thought it wrong to ask any man to take an oath. In a mumbling way, he told that while he did not admit that he had blasphemed, he felt he had the right to if he so desired, and that the foremost legal minds of the country would sustain this view. He told of his arguments against (Christianity, of his introduction to people as Robert Ingersoll's eldest brother, because the way he argued to show that Christianity is a delusion.

"It is said that I am unbalanced," continued Westcott, "and to prove to you that I am not I want to read you a poem I wrote." The court declined to hear it, but Westcott was not to be suppressed, and before the court suceceded in stopping him, he had recited a stanza.

Dr. John O'Malley and Dr. J. C. Bateson were called. Both are well acquainted with Westcott, and gave it as their opinion he is insanc.

David Davis, Charles Graham, Richard Allen, Harry Hill and Francis Winwood, members of the "Yellow Kid" gang of West Scranton, were tried for burglarizing the stores of Florey & Brooks and the D. I. Phillips estate and stealing from Tobey's Penn avenue store. Harry Hill pleaded guilty, and told all he knew about the burglaries. David Davis tried to establish an alibi. The jury retired at 4:30 to consider the case.

John T. Kennedy, charged with selling liquor on Sunday, and Patrick J. Glynn, charged with selling without a license, entered pleas of guilty, and court suspended sentence upon payment of the costs. These were Men's Union cases.

Mrs. Margaret Kennedy, who is charged with selling liquor without a license, is ill, and the court allowed a nol pros. to be entered upon payment of the costs. Robert Wilson, agent for the Men's Union, was the prosecutor. In the case of M. J. Gilbride, of North Scranton, which was tried Tuesday before Judge Love, a verdict of not guilty was returned yesterday.

George Beisel pleaded guilty to a charge of selling liquor without a license, preferred by Robert Wilson, agent of the Men's Union, and was sentenced to pay a fine of $500, costs and spend three months in the county

Michael J. Horan entered a plea of guilty to a charge of selling liquor without a license, preferred by Robert Wilson.

Charles Davis, who with Philip Elliot, was indicted for running a gam-bling house, yesterday entered a plea of guilty through his attorney, Joseph O'Brien, and was sentenced to pay a fine of $10 and costs. Salvatore Pendola and Givolana Pendola were tried before Judge Love, charged with striking Charles Aronson on the head with a brick. Aronson is employed in the store of B. Josephson in South Scranton. The defendants came in to make some purchases, and during the trouble the brick was thrown. The jury went out just be-fore court adjourned.

George Rashonsko was, returned not guilty of the charge of committing an assault and battery on Mary Sullivan. The defendant was directed, however, to pay the costs.

Martin Walsh pleaded guilty to committing an assault and battery on Ludwig Bernhardt, and was directed to pay a fine of $10 and costs. Edward Flynn pleaded guilty to a charge of larceny and receiving, and sentence was suspended. Police Office David J. Davis was tried before Judge Gordon on a charge of assaulting Mrs. Dora E. Williams, of Eynon street, on July 3 last. It was stated by the witnesses examined that on the evening of July 3 Mrs. Willlams, her husband and several relatives took chairs, on the evening in question, and sat on the sidewalk in front of the Williams residence, Patrolman Davis came along and told them to move. They did not do so, and when he came along some time later he used some force to remove them. During the difficulty, it is alleged that the officer assaulted Mrs. Williams. He declares that the prosecutrix slapped him in the face, and that he merely pushed her away from him. The case was given to the jury at 3:30 p. m. The verdict was not

On the application of Attorney John F. Scragg, of counsel for the defense, the case against Richard Little and M. J. O'Toole, who are charged with ibelling Colonel E. H. Ripple in the Scrantonian, was continued until the next term.

In the libel cases of Alderman John P. Kelly, Deputy Constable Jacob Ellman and Joseph Cross against Little and O'Toole, verdicts of not guilty were taken before Judge Love. The county will pay the costs. Judge Love was moved to allow this action to be taken by the statement of Attorney John F. Scragg to the effect that Little recently served a six months' term of mprisonment for libel, and that he had paid a fine of $250 imposed upon him in the same case.

In the case of William Howell, charged with being the father of the child of Ruth Phelps, a verdict of not guilty was taken, Howells to pay the costs.

A verdict of not guilty was taken in the case of Thomas McGuire, charged with assault and battery by Benjamin Vaughan. McGuire must settle the costs.

The jury in the case of Deputy Constable Jacob Ellman, who was tried Tuesday before Judge Gordon for committing an assault and battery on a woman, returned a verdict of not guilty yesterday, but directed Ellman to pay the costs.

PIERCE NOT GUILTY.

Anthony Golden, of Carbondale, appeared as prosecutor in a case against Tax Collector Henry H. Pierce, of the same place. The prosecutor alleged was taken by agreement upon pay. that the defendant approached him and requested payment of certain taxes. Some dispute arose, when the defend-Anna McHale, who was indicted or ant, as the prosecutor testifies, drew "black jack" from his pocket and struck the prosecutor in the head with it, using such force as to render the prosecutor unconscious. The defendant denied ever having struck the prosecutor, and stated that the only trouble that occurred at the time menioned was in connection with the discussion over taxes. He stated that the prosecutor became so abusive that he was forced to take him by the collar and lead him out. The jury returned a verdict of not guilty and divided the Alexander Goodwin was acquitted of assaulting and beating Tillie Van Horn and the costs put on the county. Attorney R. L. Levy represented the defendant. The parties live on Wyoming avenue, Pine Brook, and it appeared that on one afternoon in May last, when the defendant was endeavoring to quiet some parties engaged in a scuffle, he accidentally struck the prosecutrix, who had appeared for the same purpose.

Tony Magnoti was acquitted of the charge of assault and battery preferred against him by Ann Walters, but directed to pay costs. The prosecutrix was a tenant of the defendant. and on the evening of the 10th of June some difficulty arose between them over the payment of rent.

BY POLITENESS.

A Reminiscence of the Great French

Admiral, Count Rochambeau. ance Thompson, in the Saturday Evening Post In the public square of Vendome, I topped at a little shop to have punctured tire repaired. "Have you seen our new statue?" said the man; "yonder in the square-it's a very fine thing-Rochambeau." The American who travels in France takes his country with him. There is hardly a canton without its American souvenir-or countess. This statute to the glory of the man who forced Cornwallis to surrender at Yorktown was presented to his birth-place by Americans and unveiled by the American ambassador. Not all republics are ungrateful. I don't remember very much of Rochambeau's career. Yorktown is

But the little man of Vendome, as he oumped up my wheel, told me an aneclote which proves that politeness, like onesty, is the best policy. During the Reign of Terror the convention had condemned the old hero to death. With crowd of unfortunates he was ordered into the wagon that was to take him to the guillotine. Courteously the old man stepped aside that Malesherbes and his companions in death might get in first. The wagon was full before his turn came.
"Take him back," said the heads-man; "he can go with tomorrow's But when tomorrow came Robes-pierre had fallen and the reign of the guillotine was over. It was a lesson n politeness, and when the little shop man and I parted we took off our hats o each other. One never knows what may happen in this land of revolutions.

THE MARKETS.

Wall Street Review.

Wall Street Review.

New York, Oct. 10.—Activity in the stock market was very much benumbed by the perplexities in the money market outlook. International exchange and the rates for money on foreign markets attracted more attention than did the news of domestic events except as they affected acme special properties. What small interest there was in stocks was mostly centered on the specialties and the movement of prices there was irregular. People's Gas was depressed on the news of a general issue of injunctions to provent the company from charging more than 10 cent sfor gas while that rate was accorded to any of its customers. Lacked Gas weakened, apparently in sympathy. Sugar and Tennessee Chal were also forced down over a point on rather free selling. Manhattan on the contrary, showed a continuance of its recent stringth during the early dealings, and Brooklyn Rapid Transit seemed in some demand. American Tin Plate in the metal group iose over a point and Hocking alley as fuch. Except for the last named stock these advances were all wiped out in the late reaction. The heaviness of the general list became marked after anly a brief resistance. The movement of prices was very narrow and dealings small so that the net changes are not important, but practically all of them are losses. More loans were called today and the rate was marked up to 4 per cent, before new accommodation could be found. This was the demand influence in the market and the renewed fall in sterling exchange, which carried the rate down to the new level of gold imports, seemed to have little influence in off-siting the effect of the higher money rate. Total sales, 547,600 shares. There were firm spots in the bond market, but business was very dull. Total sales, par value, $855,000. United States coupen 3s and old 4s declined ½ and new 4s advanced ½ per cent, on the last call.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be insurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly falling to cure with local treatment, pronounced it insucuole. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It nots directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it tails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address, F. J.
