WHITNEY'S WEEKLY BUDGET OF NEWS

BOLD FOX AT THE RESIDENCE OF MRS. SURDAM.

Montrose Will Celebrate the Fiftieth Anniversary of Hon. G. A. Grow's Election to Congress—Farmer Hayward Kills an Eagle Near New Milford—Railroad Racket—General Topics of Interest in Susquehanna County.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Susquehanna, Oct. 8.—Mrs. Surdam, of Brookdale, was feeding the chickens the other morning when a sudden squawk of anguish behind her caused her to turn in time to see a fox making off with a big hen that it had just seized. Mrs. Surdam is an active woman, and she had that fox by the tail before it could get through the fence. She clung to the fox and was being pulled to the hen, and there was great screaming and cackling in the barnyard until the two house dogs came—and that was the last of Bre'r Fox.

SOME SIDE ISSUES.

The world is full of liars but the fortune teller takes the palm. A Montrose young lady has made a "crazy" suite out of letters offering marriage. The letters are worked in silk of beautiful colors.

A vicinity paper heads an item, "A Woman Slaps a Child at Point of Dying." This seems very acme of the thing, yet from a physiological standpoint it is a delightful vagu as the announcement that recently appeared in a Binghamton paper to the effect that a dog had been "shot on the North Side."

It is a fact worth pondering that, though the right falls around us it never breaks where the day breaks but never fails. I offer this hint to some struggling aspirant for political honors.

In making presents do not look for gifts beyond your pocketbook; For gifts beyond your pocketbook, that come with love and heartiness.

A solid citizen of Montrose was so mad on returning home to find that during his absence his wife had permitted coal wagons to go across the lawn that he refused to sleep in the house, spent the night in the barn, and was evidently in operation twenty-four hours per week. Experience teaches some people nothing.

Whitney.

There is always something new in a paper, if its only the date line. They had been blasting rocks in a quarry, "was during the hour of noon." When one smoked on a big log of powder— And now there's two men in the moon.

THE NEWS CRIST.

John Reynolds, a veteran of the civil war, died at his home in Oakland township on Saturday evening, in his 82nd year. The funeral will occur from the Avenue Methodist church, Oakland, this afternoon, the pastor, Rev. W. M. Bouton, officiating. Moody post, No. 55, Grand Army of the Republic, will attend in a body.

The Susquehanna Telegraph and Telephone company will hold a meeting today to consider the matter of purchasing a telephone line of H. F. Williams, esq., of Windsor.

Rev. Kenneth Craig, of Sayre, on Sunday declared the pulpit of the Presbyterian church vacant.

The congregation of the Presbyterian church last evening gave Rev. and Mrs. Deed I. Sutherland a farewell reception, which was largely attended. They will leave on Wednesday for Detroit, Michigan, their new field of labor.

JUST TO FILL IN. The shortest day in the month is today. The burning question of the hour is the price of coal.

No service has been discovered, or is likely to come into vogue soon, to make advertising more effective than the respectable newspaper.

The woman who loses her temper finds her tongue.

An old bachelor at a baby show ranks with an old maid among the spectators at a divorce suit.

Even a barrel hoop will turn when tilted upon.

A local cynic remarks that everything nice in this world grows on the other side of a barbed wire fence.

IN SUSQUEHANNA COUNTY. Today, in Montrose, the friends and admirers of Hon. Galusha A. Grow, will celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of his first election to congress. He was elected Oct. 8, 1850, he being then only 27 years of age. He was the youngest member of the house. Today he is the oldest member.

The next meeting of the Susquehanna County Medical society will be held at Hallstead on the first Tuesday of February next.

The post-office of F. B. Jewett, fusion candidate for member of assembly, will continue to be Brooklyn, Pa. This is an offer for fusionists in Susquehanna county.

The Susquehanna County Teachers' Association will meet on the 13th inst.

"Oiling Up." Just a little oil on the engine at the right time may mean the difference between life and death to the passengers and crew. What oil is to the friction of the delicate parts of the engine, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is to the delicate organs of the human body.

It eases their labor, prevents the loss of power and waste of energy caused by "friction" in the human body. It is the only medicine that cures the ailments of the human body.

Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery," nor any medicine called "Just as good" by the dealer.

Mr. Chas. Hunwick, of Lenox, Macomb Co., Mich., writes: "I have never felt better in my life than I do now. I have taken Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery right along. I can now walk quite well with a cane, and hope to throw even that away before long, and as I have had to use crutches for nearly two years, I think I am doing fine. I do not cough now and I can sleep like a baby. You must know that I have been treated by two hospitals and by three doctors besides, and received no benefit; so I think your medicine the only medicine for me."

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser in paper cover, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expenses of mailing only. Address: Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

win, Middletown; W. H. Tingley, New Milford; Hendrick, P. E. Bennett, Franklin; E. W. Stedman, Forest Lake; M. E. Compton, Springville, and A. C. Barrett, New Milford. The paramour issues of the campaign were discussed in two masterly addresses delivered by Congressman-at-Large Galusha A. Grow and Hon. James T. DuBois. An added interest to the occasion came from the fact that it was the fiftieth anniversary of Mr. Grow's entrance into public life, having been first elected to congress from the old Wilmet district in October, 1850. The meeting was marked by great enthusiasm, and the Republican cause in this county was given a tremendous impetus. Excellent music was furnished by the Montrose Glee club and the Springville band.

TERRY MURDER CASE. Plea of Voluntary Manslaughter Accepted—Other Court News. Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Tunkhannock, Oct. 12.—The trial of James Terry for the killing of his brother came to an abrupt conclusion yesterday. The last witness called last evening was the stenographer who took the ante-mortem statement of D. Terry at the Wilkes-Barre hospital. The defense objected to the admission of the statement, but their objection was overruled, and the statement read. It contained no new matter, being substantially what the witness had testified to in the jury room, namely, that the two were quarreling, that a fight resulted from the quarrel, and that during the scuffle, while both men were on the ground, the stabbing was done. On coming into court a proposition was made by the defense that they would withdraw their plea of not guilty and substitute one of guilty of voluntary manslaughter, and after some discussion between the district attorney and the court this plea was accepted, and the jury discharged. Sentence was suspended for the present, and the prisoner taken back to jail. The highest punishment that can be inflicted under this aspect of the case is a fine of not more than $1,000 and imprisonment not exceeding twelve years.

The case of commonwealth vs. Howard Moss, charged with assaulting the defendant, was called this morning after the disposition of the Terry case. District Attorney Kinner appearing for the commonwealth and Attorneys Henry Harding and Asa S. Keele for the defense. The defense offered testimony submitted by the defendant without argument, and the jury returned a verdict of guilty. Sentence was suspended until Monday morning.

In the case of commonwealth vs. Lloyd Newell, charged with assaulting an Arabian pony, submitted by the defendant and pleaded guilty, the defendant was called for sentence. Several witnesses were called in order to fix the degree of sentence, and the defendant went on the stand to tell his story. He is a very young boy, and was evidently in operation twenty-four hours per week. Experience teaches some people nothing.

Whitney.

Institute will be held in Montrose next week.

EAGLE KILLED A WILDCAT. Farmer Hayward, of Summersville, killed an eagle in New Milford on Saturday. While looking for a lost cow he saw two large birds in a tree and took them for hawks. He shot the largest one and the other flew away. When he came to pick up the bird he found it to be an eagle. In the brush near by he found the body of a wildcat, just killed. There were signs of a fierce combat. The savage cat had evidently been killed by the two great birds.
