JAMES GRIER IS ON TRIAL

which passed two readings in common council, was amended in common, May 10, and passed on third reading in that body May 16. Mr. Lynott was recalled and read from the minutes of April 11 that P. F. Calpin, president of the board, introduced an ordinance providing for a license tax in the city...

On the evening of April 24, he went to Rohrwasser's and was taken to a room in the rear of the bakery, where he was introduced to Grier by Coleman. He could not remember that Coleman remained during the interview.

Mr. Harris' further examination was as follows: BY MR. NEWCOMB: Q. Will you go on now and state what conversation, if any, you had with Mr. Grier at that time with reference to any ordinance that was just pending in the council of this city?

Q. Just tell you what you said to Mr. Grier and he to you? A. After the formal introduction Mr. Grier spoke about the mayor and several different things, and he says, "I understand you are here in behalf of the Traction company."

Q. Describe what it was? A. There was a hole at the top of the door, and a hole at the bottom of the door, about a foot from the bottom, and about a foot and a half from the top, made in the panel. There was also a space of about that much at the time underneath the door.

Q. What about seeing through the door? A. I don't think I could see through the door, but there was only one place where a man could sit down, and he had to sit down there, and they could see that and away beyond it.

Q. How do you know? A. Because I went in and tested it, and I always had my windows closed. Q. What about seeing through the door? A. I don't think I could see through the door, but there was only one place where a man could sit down, and he had to sit down there, and they could see that and away beyond it.

money," and look out $50, and he says, "No," and I laid the $50 on the table and walked out. Q. Did you go outside on the street at that time? A. I walked out and he possibly came right after me.

Q. Did you see anybody outside? A. Yes, sir; Mr. Coleman and Mr. Calpin. Q. Anybody else? A. Yes, there was Mr. Grier myself, and also Operators A. B. A. and E. A. W. Q. They were not in your immediate presence? A. No.

Q. Did you have any controversy at that time over your instructions that you say you had known to Mr. Grier that you had got to deal according to your instructions with the individual members? A. Yes, sir; I did; I suggested a plan; I said, "Now, Mr. Grier, I am a young fellow and so on, and I want a chance," and I said, "I think the best way to go about this is to make the company spend some money if you can't get it in any other way," and I said, "If these men come and see me, if they do come and see me I shall give them something on account; but," I said, "that doesn't interfere with you at all."

Q. Did you state to Mr. Grier then that your instructions were? A. I did. Q. Did you want me to produce the money, and I argued against it, if I gave one man all the money it wouldn't be any evidence, and I told him I couldn't go against the instructions I had received and so on, and it was the general common sense of the council that then through.
