REMARKABLE OPERATION.

James Carle, of Jermyn, underwent a remarkable operation at Dr. Wheelers's private hospital. About five inches of the large intestines, on which a large malignant growth depended, completely obstructing the ailimentary canal, were removed and the free ends of the intestines were fastened together with a Murphy button. Owing to the location of the abnormal growth, the operation was one of the most difficult known to surgery. The patient's condition is fa-

TAYLOR.

About two hundred gathered on the Riverside grounds yesterday afternoon and witnessed an interesting foot ball contest. The Park Hill stars, who were to have contested with a representative team under the management of M. Glynn, failed to put in an appearance, and finally a team was selected from among the spectators and was coached by P. Jordan. The latter team when lined up appeared to be quite fast. Among it its members was big Coggans, who at one time played tackle on the Scranton eleven and did good work while the game was in progress. garet Evans; psalm, Willie Samuels; It was just 4 o'clock when Coach Jordan lead his invincibles on the field. They outweighed their opponents on an average of ten pounds to a man. Connolly kicked off to J. Evans, who advanced the ball about fifteen yards but lost it in the scrimmage on an alleged foul tackle by Coggans, who ith a clear field made a touchdown just three minutes after play commenced. He failed to kick the goal. Howells kicked off for the home team and made a long drive. Connolly caught the oval but was downed in his tracks by Evans, whose team held their opponents for their down on the fifteen-yard line, and after hard plunges pushed the quarterback over for a touchdown. Winterburn failed to kick a goal. Coggans kicked off and Day advanced the ball well down the field. On the next line up the ball was given to Half Back Evans who plunged through the center and with beautiful interference ran fifty yards for a touchdown. This time the goal was kicked by Full Back Winterburn. Connolly again kicked off and planted it right on the regulars tenyard line. At this the first half ended. The second half was commenced after an intermission of ten minutes. Howells kicked off. He drove the ball well down the field. The oval was advanced to the middle of the field where it remained throughout the remainder of the game and when time was called it was in possession of the Invincibles. The final score was: Regulars, 11; Invincibles, 5. Sabbath services tomorrow at the Modjeska This Afternoon and Evening.

The farewell engagement of Modjeska ity this afternoon and evening at the Lyceum theater promises to be one of the big theatrical events of the reason, "Macbeth" is announced for the matinee and "King John" for the evening. The magnificent production of "King John" which has been prepared for the great Polish Mrs. Charles Perry and daughter, of Dunmore, visited relatives here part of Howard Yeager, of Scranton, spent ectress by her new managers, Messrs. Wagenhals & Kemper, restores to the American stage one turned home from their wedding trip of the greatest of the Shakespearean historical tragedies. This revival is all the more important because it had furnished Modjeska with one of the greatest characters she has ever essayed the role of Constance, which she has desired for st., Omaha, says: "I have tried most every thing that is used as a pre-many years to impersonate.

"King John" was first produced in the United States at the old Southwark theater, Philadelphia, Dec. 12, 1786, by a stock company under the direction of Mr. Douglass, and including Mr. and Mrs. Hallam, great favorities of the time, as well as Miss Cheer, an actress who afterward became of great note.

"Devil's Auction."

It has been customary to introduce throughout the performance of Charles II. Yale's "Foreve Devil's Auction" a number of special vaudeville features, whose specialty, although not strictly identified with the plot of this popular spectacle is, by clever stage management and costuming made a most interesting part of the same. The three Brothers Leando, whose phenomenal act has placed them at the topmost round of noveltics, will undoubtedly prove a revelation to these who had not before had the pleasure of seeing them. Also in Richard T. Brown Mr. Yale has secured an absolute novelty, which can also be truthfully said about this season's ballets. Another unusual feature is Mile. Irene an aza, an act that has captured all New and has been the drawing card of the roo gardens during the past summer. The Clements Sisters, singers and dancers, are also numbered among the new specialties. Charles H. Yale's "Porever Devil's Auction" will be the attraction at the Lyceum next Tuesday right.

The Schiller Stock Company.

On the cement tracks, where the wheelmen race for glory and gold, the single wheel champion is looked on with a great deal of respect, as regards speed; but how small he does look when the hig pace-making machines get into the game and whiz off mile after talle at a pace that will lap the fastest single rider in a mile if he rides without taking their pace.

So it is in the show business. The Schiller Stock company, with its brilliant repertoire of recent New York successes, its galaxy of metropolitan artists, both from the dramatic and vandeville world; its handsome scenery, elaborate effects and superb mountings, has long ago lapped all rivals and now leads the vanguard of popular priced attractions. The company will open a week's engagement at the Academy of Music on Monday evening, presenting as the opening play "Falsely Accused." On the cement tracks, where the wheeling BELGIUM'S KING IS GRACIOUS.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press. Paris, Oct. 19.-The king of Belgium gave proof of his friendship for the United States today by attending a luncheon given by Commissioner Peck to Thomas F. Walsh, national commission er from Colorado, who leaves Paris temorrow. The luncheon was served in the national pavilion, fifty covers being laid. The king entered during the progress of the lunch-on, accompanied by Counts Outremont and Thiennes. After being formally presented his majesty said:

"I have come to pay homage to my friend, Mr. Walsh, and have the pleasure of meeting American men, which is always a source of controllection to mee."

gratification to mee."

King Leopold remained through all the specches which followed, rising and howing when complimentary references were made to him or his country.

After the luncheon the king was introdu to all and spoke in flattering terms of the United States and its people. His majesty left the building in company with General Horace Porter, the United States ambassador, whom he invited to be his guest at Ostend next summer.
