THE NEWS THIS MORNING

Weather indications today, CLEARING; COOLER. 1 General—Coal Operators Simplify Their Offer of a Ten Per Cent. Increase.

TO SIMPLIFY THEIR OFFER

Operators Agree to Reduce Powder to $1.50 a Keg and Allow 21-2 Per Cent. on the Gar.

ADOPT STANDARD BASIS

The Reduction in the Price of Powder Is to Be Figured as Equivalent to a Seven and One-half Per Cent. Increase in Wages—The Remainder of the Ten Per Cent. Advance Is to Be Allowed on the Car—Big Companies Still Refuse to Specify any Time to Which the Offer Is to Extend—Misunderstanding Created by Inaccurate Reports—Mine Workers' Conference.

NOTICES POSTED ARE SATISFACTORY

Last Offer of Big Companies Is a Forerunner of a Speedy Ending of Coal Strike.

WATKINS' STATEMENT

President Watkins, of the Temple Iron company, stated to a Tribune reporter after the meeting that it would be cheaper for the companies to figure out in each individual miners' case just what per centage of expense would be saved by receiving a reduction of $1.25 on powder, but to make the matter clear and avoid annoyances that would likely ensue every day, it was decided to fix a standard percentage for the whole region.
